A Reflection on the Gospel of Today

What we say and how we say it reveals the true intentions of our hearts. The content and manner of our speech is a window into the recesses of our souls. Our consciences, attitudes, sentiments, weaknesses, and motives are displayed. As much as we think we can hide the truth of our lives from others, we cannot. Who we really are is not only expressed on our lips but is written on our faces. Jesus says precisely this, “For every tree is known by its own fruit.” What does the fruit of our lives say about us?

Because we like to play the game of hide and seek with ourselves, in pretending that we are hiding we deflect attention others may give to us by becoming more critical of others. After all, the more time one can spend analyzing others’ behavior the less time one has to look at his or herself. Often, the behaviors we abhor most in others are the very ones we are guilty of ourselves. We just don’t know it yet. In focusing our attention on the beams in others’ eyes, the aridity and barrenness of our lives goes unchecked. St. Ambrose reminds us that “no one heals himself by wounding another.” Bringing our brothers and sisters down by being overly critical, serves no positive purpose.

But the one who knows how easy it is to fall into sin and weakness and how quickly errors in judgment can be made, knows the depth of true compassion, mercy, and kindness. Having recognized our own poor choices, misguided opinions, negative emotions, and ability to do horrendous things, we can be more sympathetic and understanding of where others may be. We are designed to be mentors and guides to one another. In walking the journey together, we can help each other become the best we can be. Humility is the order of the day.

Share a splinter that you recently removed.

CINEMA: "Father Stu"

He was a boxer and a night club bouncer, but after a near-death experience, he sought out religion. "Father Stu's journey from troublemaker to clergyman was inspiring to many, including me," said actor Mark Wahlberg, who plays the priest in a forth-coming film. Father Stuart Long's incredible story is coming to the silver screen, when Sony Pictures releases "Father Stu" in theaters on Good Friday.

ACOMPAÑENOS A LAS ESTACIONES DE LA CRUZ TODOS LOS VIERNES @6:00 PM DURANTE LA CUARESMA

Una Reflexión del Evangelio de Hoy

Antes de llegar al Miércoles de Ceniza e iniciar la Cuaresma, continuamos escuchando este domingo una serie de imágenes para enseñarnos lo que es la coherencia entre la fe y la vida. Si recordamos bien, el domingo pasado, el Señor dejó claro las reglas para una vida cristiana más justa y humana. Eso de amar a los enemigos y hacer el bien, no todos lo comprendemos y llevamos a cabo.

Ahora, Jesús usa esta comparación con la siguiente pregunta. “Puede un ciego guiar a otro ciego? Ciertamente caerán ambos en algún hoyo” (Lucas 6,39). Un ciego mal acompañado de seguro tropezará y caerá al precipicio. Estas parábolas llenas de sabiduría son el corazón del Evangelio. ¿Cómo comprender esta parábola? ¿Cómo ponerla en práctica? La siguiente enseñanza es lo referente a la paja en el ojo ajeno. Se refiere a evitar las malas intenciones o la crítica a los demás. Dejar de hablar de los demás es un proceso de toda la vida. La corrección fraterna en la familia y en la sociedad lleva mucho de la educación cristiana y civil. Es decir, que, si se aplican las enseñanzas del Evangelio, se darán frutos buenos; y si no se aplican, el fruto es lo contrario. “Así, el hombre bueno saca cosas buenas del tesoro que tiene en su corazón, mientras que el malo, de su fondo malo saca cosas malas. La boca habla de lo que está lleno su corazón” (Lucas 6,45). Solo queda escuchar la Palabra de Dios y aplicarla en la vida, porque como se expresa la persona, da a conocer quién es. ©LPi

On Monday, February 28, the Senate will vote on the Women's Health Protection Act, H.R. 3755. This deceptively-named, extreme bill would impose abortion on demand nationwide at any stage of pregnancy through federal statute. Even worse, it would eliminate modest and widely supported pro-life laws at every level of government -- the federal, state, and local level -- including parental notification for minor girls, informed consent, and health or safety protections specific to abortion facilities. It would force all Americans to support abortions here and abroad with their tax dollars. It would also likely force health care providers and professionals to perform, assist in, and/or refer for abortion against their deeply-held beliefs, as well as force employers and insurers to cover or pay for abortion.

We need to send an unmistakable message to the Senate that this horrible bill must never be enacted. Join Archbishop Lori, chairman of the Committee on Pro-Life Activities and Cardinal Dolan, chairman of the Committee for Religious Liberty in urging the Senate to oppose H.R. 3755.

Type to following link into your browser to view the chairmen's letter and the fact sheet to learn more about this radical bill.
