SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." - Mk 1:27

Todos quedaron estupefactos y se preguntaban: "¿Qué es esto? ¿Qué nueva doctrina es ésta? Este hombre tiene autoridad para mandar hasta a los espíritus inmundos y lo obedecen". - Mc 1, 27

Holy Spirit Mission Statement

We, the Family of Faith at Holy Spirit, proclaim that by our Baptism we share in Christ's mission as Priest, Prophet and King. We recognize our responsibility to give worship to God, reverence to all people, respect to all creation and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Acknowledging our own brokenness and our need to hope, we seek to be a forgiving and welcoming community committed to service by the sharing of life and love with all, and working together to make peace and justice a reality in our world. Strengthened by the presence of God in our lives, we undertake all of this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen. Alleluia

Quote for the Week

"The life of the body is the soul; the life of the soul is God."
 – St. Anthony of Padua

From The Pastor's Desk

Fourth Sunday in the Ordinary Time

The people of Capernaum received sacred instruction in their synagogue every Sabbath. One day they had a different teacher, Jesus. What Jesus taught them that day, as well as the way He presented and demonstrated His message, simply amazed them. Why? Jesus' teaching contrasted sharply with that of the scribes. Jesus taught with authority, the scribes did not.

What does it mean to teach with authority? When we compare and contrast the teaching of Jesus with that of the scribes we notice three distinguishing qualities: The teaching of Jesus is (a) from the heart and not just from the head, (b) focuses on the spirit and not just on the letter of the law, and (c) inspires a positive change of heart in the hearers.

JESUS TEACHES FROM THE HEART. He teaches with absolute conviction in His message because He knows that His message is in accordance with the mind of God. His preaching is a personal testimony of His intimate relationship with God His Father. The scribes, on the other hand, get their knowledge not from their personal communion with God but from their long and intricate study of commentaries on the Law. As a result, most of their teaching is from the head and not from the heart, as they try to recall the portions of the commentaries that apply to the situation at hand.

A second difference between the teaching of Jesus and that of the scribes lies in the CONTENT OF THE MESSAGE. Whereas the scribes seek to apply the prescription of the Law to the letter, Jesus goes deeper to find out the spirit, the original intent of the law. Consequently, Jesus is able to discover the positive value that the law seeks to protect whereas the scribes busy themselves with words and minimal applications. Take for example the law of Sabbath observance. The scribes would busy themselves trying to determine precisely when the Sabbath begins and ends, and what constitutes work and what doesn't. Jesus would rather seek the mind of God who gave the law to His people as an expression of His fatherly care and love. On this account, people receive the teaching of Jesus as liberating good news in contrast to that of the scribes which they perceive as a heavy burden.

The final difference between the teaching of Jesus and that of the scribes is that Jesus' teaching is always intended to bring about a POSITIVE CHANGE of heart in the people, not just to make people bad. Whereas the scribes teach whatever makes sense in terms of their understanding of the Law and Traditions, Jesus teaches that which made a positive difference. Presented with a man blind from birth the scribes seek to explain why he is blind- whether it was he who sinned or his parents. Jesus, on the other hand, is only interested in curing the blindness. For this reason Jesus performed healings and exorcisms together with His teaching, to show that His primary concern is to change the human situation not just to explain it.

What is our attitude to the word of God we hear? Do we allow it to challenge us and bring about a positive difference in our lives or is it simply to satisfy some intellectual curiosity? If it is the gospel of Jesus that we hear, then we cannot hear it week after week and remain the same.

Amen.
 Fr. Steve

Youth Ministry

The first time in 15 years we will not have our pilgrimage to the Youth Stand for Life in Washington, DC. Though we are sad, we know that we have many more opportunities to stand up for life. Please continue to pray for the unborn, support of our food pantry, donations to pregnancy centers, and support of young mothers and individuals in need. Pro-life organizations doing work in the DFW area: Catholic Charities Dallas, The Catholic Pro-Life Committee, Abide Women's Health Services, Bridges Safehouse, In My Shoes, MaterFilius Dallas, Birth Choice, White Rose Women's Center.

WITH HEARTFELT SYMPATHY

Especially for Innocent Okoli, Isidra Lopez, Juan Francisco Garcia, Pedro Castillo and all the victims of the coronavirus. May perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace, and may the angels lead them into heaven. Please pray for the Departed souls of our community. Amen

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

IN-PERSON GROUP C is in session this SUNDAY, JANUARY 31. Check in begins at 8:45 a.m. and doors will close promptly at 9 a.m., as we are live-streaming Mass in the gym as part of class...and no, you can't drop your kiddo off at 10 a.m. Don't forget our Children's Church donation box, where your child may make any type of monetary donation into our beautifully built "church" before or at the end of Mass. It is a reminder that giving, no matter how much, can start at any age and it's how we support our parish community that supports us. This was highly successful during the Fall Semester so we are excited to resume this activity with the children. There are no In-Person Faith Formation Sessions on Sunday, February 7. All children will do the on-line CatholicBrain video lesson assignments.

The required ELECTRONIC Student Self-Reporting and Family Waiver Form will be sent to you as a Google link on Friday in your weekly reminder email. The response form will open at 6:00 a.m. on Sunday morning for completion (not before since children can get sick in a 36-hour time span!) and close at 8:30 a.m. in order to print out a check-in report.

On-Line Learning continues with video lessons on the CatholicBrain platform. If you have questions regarding CURRENT video lessons, just send me an email. For those of you who have yet to catch on to the CatholicBrain platform but don't respond to emails or answer your cell, well, I'm fresh out of ideas. FYI: It will affect sacramental preparation next year.

If you need some tutoring on the platform, just give me a call and we can set up some instructional time. This has been super beneficial for those who have taken the initiative to do so. Be sure to bring your electronic device of choice since the platform works differently on the various devices, i.e., cell phones versus computers versus I-Pads, etc. And bring a mask...

DOZZING OFF WITH MS. DEBORAH Love...Holy Spirit Style!

Join us Wednesday, February 10 for a valentine's bedtime story night on Holy Spirit's Facebook Page!
We go live at 8 p.m.!

CHILDREN'S FRIDAY LENTEN PROGRAM

With Lent just around the corner, we are going to try and have a small Children's Friday Lenten Program on Friday, February 19 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. It will be limited to 25 children in Grades Kinder through 5th. Watch for more information!

On Sunday, February 7, wear your favorite football jersey and bring a can of soup, as we "Score Big for Outreach!" All cans of soup (please make sure they have current expiration dates, as we can't accept them if they don't) will be collected for Holy Spirit's food pantry.

Just look for our "Souper" Bowl display in the courtyard. You'll even be able to pick your favorite Super Bowl LV football team by dropping off your soup cans at the appropriate team's goal post. We also invite you to our "tailgate party" where we'll be serving prepackaged meals of hot dogs, chips and a drink. A small donation is gratefully requested. Come out and show your team spirit while supporting a fantastic cause!

SACRAMENTS & SUCH:

A tremendous thank you Angelica Delgado for baking, decorating and DONATING all those beautiful cross cookies for the Children's First Reconciliation Celebration last Thursday! I have her number. ☺

- Our next First Communion Parent & Student session is this Saturday, January 30 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon or Sunday, January 31 from 2 to 4 p.m. Contact Lisa, ext. 312, with questions/concerns.
- The Retreat for Children/Youth in the RCIA process has been rescheduled for Saturday, February 6 from 1-5 p.m. in the dining room. At least one parent for each student will need to stay at the Retreat from 1-2 p.m. for a discussion about baptism. Parents will be dismissed after 2 p.m., and students will continue with the Retreat activities. Please contact Lindee Greer, ext. 343, if you have questions or need additional information.

On Monday, January 18, Children's Faith Formation recognized and honored all of our "essential workers" better known catechists. We also acknowledged those who have served 5 and 10 years in our Children's Ministry, specifically Francisco Bernal, Genaro Cardoza and Rebecca Garza. We also paid tribute to two very special individuals who have gone above and beyond their typical "catechist" duties these past two years. Please join me in honoring Debra Seeley as Catechist of the Year for 2020 and Sharon Bush as Catechist of the Year for 2021. Both the ladies have a combined 41 years of service here at Holy Spirit. Debra has not only taught Kindergarten but has also taken charge of our Special Needs classes, offering not one but two classes last year—one in the morning and one at night. Sharon teaches PK3, is our PK3 Coordinator, Nursery Coordinator, Safety Officer and this year has taken on the added responsibilities of ensuring the church is properly sanitized after daily and weekend Masses and all special events. Both Debra & Sharon currently help out at all three In-Person CFF Sessions. They are AWESOME!

This weekend, January 30-31, is Commitment Weekend which is an opportunity to help the Catholic Diocese of Dallas raise necessary funds through the Bishop's Annual Appeal. If you were not able to fill out a pledge card during Mass, please bring it to Mass next week and place in the collection basket, or visit us online for more information and to make a donation:

Este fin de semana, 30-31 de Enero, es el Fin de Semana de Compromiso, el cual nos ofrece la oportunidad de ayudar a la Diócesis Católica de Dallas a recaudar los fondos necesarios a través de la Campaña Anual del Obispo. Cada año, nos comprometemos a reflexionar en la gran generosidad de Dios y responder con nuestro donativo para llevar a otros a una relación con Jesucristo y Su Iglesia. Si no les fue posible llenar una tarjeta de compromiso durante la Misa, le pedimos que lo traiga a Misa la próxima semana y lo coloque en la canasta de la colecta, o nos visite en línea para obtener información adicional y realizar un donativo:
