30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

Saints & Special Observances

Week of October 17th

Sunday: 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time; World Mission Sunday
Thursday: Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles
Saturday: BVM

Sts Simon & Jude Thaddeus were both selected by Jesus to be his Apostles. Simon was known as "the Zealot." Because he was strongly committed to Jesus who changed his life & he believed in him with all his soul. St Jude Thaddeus used his full name so as not to be confused with Judas who betrayed Jesus. Jude is the saint of hopeless cases because he had such great faith that he takes your problems to Jesus whom nothing is impossible for those who believe. Simon & Jude traveled together to teach other about Jesus. Because of their eyewitness accounts of his miracles, death & resurrection many people became believers & were baptized. Simon & Jude died on the same day in Beirut for their faith.

Reflexión

24 de Octubre de 2021

30º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El mundo ha llorado mucho en estos dos años de pandemia. Después de tanto sufrimiento, Dios nos sigue invitando al cambio en nuestro corazón. La hemos pasado mal, muchas familias lloran aún a sus familiares que perdieron la batalla, otros miles siguen buscando trabajo. La lucha no termina y la esperanza en medio de todo es que volvamos a Dios, tal como el pueblo de Israel en la primera Lectura: "Partieron en medio de lágrimas, pero los hago regresar contentos" (Jeremías 31:9). Ya es tiempo de gozar del amor y la misericordia eterna de Dios. Fijémonos, en todo lo bueno y noble que hemos aprendido en este tiempo y trabajemos por una sociedad más justa.

El Evangelio también nos presenta el amor y la compasión de Dios por medio del ciego de Jericó que grita a la orilla del camino. "¡Hijo de David ten compasión de mí!" El ciego es símbolo de todas las personas que sufren en el mundo. Jesús, le pregunta: ¿Qué quieres que haga por ti? La respuesta del ciego: "Maestro, que pueda ver". Eso es lo que seguimos pidiendo: que podamos ver todas las injusticias de la sociedad, que podamos dialogar y buscar soluciones juntos, para poder vivir con paz y tranquilidad y así simbólicamente tirar el manto y escuchar su invitación: ánimo, ten fe, levántate. Jesús sigue llamando a cada uno, porque a todos nos toca ahora ver qué podemos hacer por los que nos rodean. El papa Francisco lo resume así: "Fijarnos en Bartimeo y su grito de búsqueda de Jesús. Hacerse prójimos en el camino de fe para acompañar. Testimoniar, fijándonos en los discípulos que le dirigen a Bartimeo solo tres palabras, ánimo, levántate, que te llama" (10/28/2018).

Around Our Lady of Guadalupe

St John Paul II

St John Paul II, who was born on May 18, 1920, was elected pope by the 2nd papal conclave of 1978, which was called after Pope John Paul I died after just 33 days of his papacy of the Roman Catholic Church.

The first non-Italian elected pope in 455 years, John Paul II is largely credited with having ended communism in his native Poland & eventually across Eastern Europe.

During his pontificate, John Paul II visited 129 countries & logging nearly 700,000 miles. More than any Pope before him. He attracted large crowds wherever he went - some among the largest ever assembled in history. One such gathering, the Manila World Youth Day in 1995, drew 4 million people, a record for a papal gathering.

In May 2001, during his 2nd trip to the Middle East & just 4 months before the Sept. 11 attacks, Pope John Paul II became the 1st pope to enter a mosque. In a speech, John Paul II said he was mindful of past centuries of conflict between Christians & Muslims & that he hoped the 2 faith traditions could "find new ways, at the start of the 3rd millennium, to present their respective creeds as partners & not as adversaries."

It's fitting that the 2 men who were instrumental in the collapse of the Berlin Wall & the breakup of the Soviet Union were both actors, President Ronald Reagan & John Paul II. Wojtyla's primary ambition growing up in the city of Wadowice was to be an actor. When he entered Krakow's Jagiellonian University in 1939, he joined student theater troupe called Studio 39. The Nazis invaded Poland that year, forever changing Wojtyla's life and eventually leading him to the priesthood.

Like Reagan too, John Paul II also survived an assassination attempt in May 13, 1981. while entering St. Peter's Square, John Paul II was shot 4 times. Agca was arrested by Italian authorities & later sentenced to life in prison. The pope later forgave Agca, even meeting with him. Agca was pardoned by Italian President Carlo Azeglio Ciampi at the pope's request & was deported to his native Turkey in 2000.

Pope JP2 spoke 12 languages. In addition to Polish, John Paul II could communicate in Latin, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, French, English, German, Ukrainian, Serbo-Croatian, Slovak and Esperanto.

John Paul II is the only pope to have appeared at 2 of the world's best-known sporting venues. He had mass at both Yankee Stadium & Madison Square Garden in his papal visit to the US in 1979. Then again in 1995, he came to the city a 2nd time. He had Mass at Giants Stadium & Aqueduct Race Track, adding 2 more Big Apple landmarks to his long list of travels.
