BENEDICT XVI

ANGELUS

Saint Peter's Square, Sunday, 20 January 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today the liturgy proposes the Gospel episode of the wedding at Cana, recounted by John, an eyewitness of the event. This episode has been allocated to this Sunday which immediately follows the Christmas season because, together with the visit of the Magi from the East and the Baptism of Jesus, it forms the trilogy of the Epiphany, in other words the manifestation of Christ. The miracle of the wedding at Cana is in fact "the first of his signs" (Jn 2:11), that is, the first miracle that Jesus worked with which he showed his glory in public, inspiring faith in his disciples.

Let us briefly recall the events that occurred during that wedding feast in Cana of Galilee. It happened that there was not enough wine and Mary, the Mother of Jesus, pointed this out to her Son. He answered her that his hour had not yet come; but then acquiesced to Mary's request and, having had the six large jars filled with water, he transformed the water into wine, an excellent wine, better than the previous one. With this "sign" Jesus revealed himself as the messianic Bridegroom come to establish with his people the new and eternal covenant, in accordance with the prophets' words: "as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you" (Is 62:5). Moreover, wine is a symbol of this joy of love; but it also alludes to the blood that Jesus was to pour out at the end to seal his nuptial pact with humanity.

The Church is the Bride of Christ who makes her holy and beautiful with his grace. Nevertheless this bride formed of human beings is in constant need of purification. And one of the gravest sins that disfigure the Church's face is that against her visible unity, the historical divisions that separated Christians and that have not yet been resolved. The annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is taking place in these very days, from 18 to 25 January, an event much appreciated by believers and communities, which reawakens in all the desire for, and spiritual commitment to, full communion.

Very important in this regard was the prayer vigil I celebrated about a month ago in this square with thousands of young people from all over Europe and with the ecumenical community of Taizé: a moment of grace in which we experienced the beauty of forming one in Christ. I encourage everyone to pray together so that we may achieve "what the Lord requires of us" (see Mic 6:6-8), as the theme of the Week this year says. The theme was suggested by several Christian communities in India, who invite the faithful as brothers and sisters in Christ, to work hard to achieve visible unity among Christians, and to overcome every type of unjust discrimination. Next Friday, at the end of these days of prayer, I shall preside at Vespers in the Basilica of St Paul Outside-the-Walls, in the presence of the Representatives of other Churches and Ecclesial Communities.

Dear friends, once again I would like to add to the prayer for Christian unity the prayer for peace. Praying that in the various wars that are, unfortunately, still raging, the despicable massacre of defenseless civilians may cease, an end be put to every form of violence and the courage be found for dialogue and negotiation. For these intentions, let us invoke the intercession of Mary Most Holy, Mediatrix of grace.

Readings

January 16, 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time: Is 62:1-5/Ps 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10 [3]/1 Cor 12:4-11/Jn 2:1-11

First Reading: As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you. (Is 62:5)

Psalm: Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations. (Ps 96)

Second Reading: But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes. (1 Cor 12:11)

Gospel: Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him. (Jn 2:11)

Sacred Heart Moms & Tots is a weekly group for Catholic mothers who have young children (infant-Pre-K) and are seeking faithful friends and fellowship with other moms of our parish. Our goal is to provide an opportunity for encouragement and prayer for our vocation as mothers, and to allow our children a chance to make friends with their peers in the parish. Moms and Tots will meet on Friday mornings after daily mass (around 9am) at the church playground next to the Family Life Center. For more information on how to join the group, please email Caitlyn Clark at clark.caitlyne@gmail.com or send a text to (979) 399-2281.

Helping Hands need your help!

Rosenberg / Richmond Helping Hands provides low income families with much needed food and clothing needs. In 2019 they served 5000 individual and families. In 2020 they served 23,274 with food distributions. In 2021 Jan thru May (5 months) they served 12,000. Please bring food / toiletries (toothpaste, shampoo, etc) to weekly mass and put in the brown baskets in the foyer.

Eucharistic Adoration

And behold, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they came up and took hold of His feet and worshiped Him. Matthew 28:9

Eucharistic Adoration is at Sacred Heart's Chapel every Thursday after 8am mass – 7 pm when it concludes with Benediction

Please feel free to join us.

In addition, we recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet 3pm during Adoration.

We are overjoyed to announce that three of our Sacred Heart parishioners have been officially accepted by Cardinal DiNardo as candidates to the order of the diaconate. We are blessed that Chris Adams, Chris Haskins and David Hobson and their families have offered their time, talent and energy in service to our parish and their passion for spreading God's word. Please pray for them and their families as they go through the next three years of discernment.
