STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The three kings in today's Gospel traveled a great distance at considerable cost to offer their riches to the Infant Jesus. How far will I go and what will I offer to do homage to this newborn King and Savior?

VOCATION VIEW

Many adults never grow up. They continue to traipse across the earth looking for a shining star. Tell them who lights up your life, O Christian.

LITURGY LINES

EPIPHANY ON SUNDAY BY FR. PAUL TURNER

On many calendars, Epiphany falls on Jan. 6. But the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates it on whatever date Sunday falls during the week of January 2.

"Epiphany" means "manifestation", and it celebrates the day that the infant Jesus revealed his divinity to the magi. Traditionally, this event is connected with two others from the Gospels: the baptism of Jesus and the wedding at Cana. In all these events, the mystery of Christ became more manifest. The magi, coming from the East, signify that gentile nations - not just Jewish nations - were coming to recognize Jesus as the savior of the world.

The Bible does not indicate on what day the magi visited - nor, for that matter, on what day Jesus was born. January 6 was probably chosen for this observance as an alternative for early Christians living in a culture where pagans already commemorated the birth of a sun-god on the same day.

The day, the 12th day of Christmas, gave rise to a host of customs, as well as a popular Christmas carol.

The biblical event is so important that the Catholic Church lists Epiphany among the solemnities that may be designated holy days of obligation. Episcopal conferences determine local holy days, and in the United States, January 6 was never included. In any country where Epiphany is not a holy day of obligation, the observance moves to a Sunday, so that it may be celebrated by the entire Catholic community.

The transfer of Epiphany to a Sunday has the disadvantage of dividing the celebration among various Christian churches of the world, but the advantage of helping the entire Catholic community proclaim and celebrate the meaning of coming of Christ.
