STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits – the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

VOCATION VIEW

You are filled with the Spirit!
What is your gift?
What is your ministry?
Pray for wisdom and knowledge, faith and healing power. Pray to know how God wants you to use your gifts.
(1 Corinthians 12:4-11)

LITURGY LINES

ORDINARY TIME BY FR. PAUL TURNER

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year, fills the weeks "which do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ." It's the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

The number of the weeks of Ordinary Time replaces the old counting of weeks "after Epiphany" and "after Pentecost." The old calendar suggested that Pentecost ran for six months. The new calendar gives Pentecost a day. Then we return to Ordinary Time.

At first glance the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting till Advent. Basically, that's how it works. But we have a few quirks.

For example, there is no "First Sunday in Ordinary Time"; however, there is a first week. Usually Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. (Some years the Baptism of the Lord falls on a Monday, but that's another story.) Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. (In countries where this solemnity is a holy day, it falls on a Thursday.) So when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off.

Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost not based on where we left off before Lent but counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.

LORD, HEAR OUR PRAYERS

To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven,

Bishop Robert Barron's newest study program
T H E M A S S

Walk through the Liturgy with Bishop Barron and you'll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ.

See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

The Mass will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life.

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Hoy en la segunda lectura, San Pablo les dice a los Corintios (y a nosotros) que todos nuestros dones vienen de Dios y que nos son dados, no para nosotros solamente, sino para el bien común. Pero la generosidad de Dios no conoce límites – el milagro en Caná nos recuerda que siempre que hacemos fielmente como Dios pide, Él puede cambiar nuestros dones de agua en vino!

MIRADA VOCACIONAL

Ustedes están llenos del Espíritu Santo!
¿Cuál es tu don? ¿Cuál es tu Ministerio?
Ora por sabiduría y conocimiento,
fe y poder sanador. Ora para saber cómo Dios quiere usar tus dones.
