NOTES FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear parishioner,

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Saint John Paul II put the remembrance on the Sunday following Easter. I believe he did so in order for us to make the connection of the new life of Easter with the forgiveness that is God. God's mercy is far greater than God's justice. We are all sinners. Living in God's mercy invites us to put mercy, compassion, and love before justice. How difficult it is to be a Christian!

Blessings,

Father Martin

NOTICIAS DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Querido feligrés,

Hoy es el domingo de la Divina Misericordia. San Juan Pablo II puso el recuerdo en el domingo siguiente a la Pascua. Creo que lo hizo para que hiciéramos la la conexión de la vida nueva de la Pascua con el perdón que es Dios. La misericordia de Dios es mucho más grande que la justicia de Dios. Todos somos pecadores. Vivir en la misericordia de Dios nos invita a anteponer la misericordia, la compasión y el amor a la justicia. ¡Qué difícil es ser cristiano!

Bendiciones,

Padre Martin

SANTA MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA HUMILDE INSTRUMENTO

Sor Faustina era una monja joven y sin estudios en un convento de la Congregación de Hermanas de Nuestra Señora de la Misericordia en Polonia durante la década de 1930. Procedía de una familia pobre que pasó apuros durante los años de la Primera Guerra Mundial.

Sólo tenía tres años de educación sencilla, por lo que las suyas eran las tareas más humildes del convento, normalmente en la cocina o el jardín. Sin embargo, ella recibió extraordinarias revelaciones - o mensajes - de nuestro Señor Jesús. Jesús le pidió a Sor Faustina que registrara estas experiencias, que ella recopiló en cuadernos. Estos cuadernos se conocen hoy como el Diario de Santa María Faustina Kowalska, y las palabras que contienen son el mensaje de amor de Dios sobre la Divina Misericordia.

San Juan Pablo II canonizó a Sor Faustina en el año 2000 convirtiéndola en la "primera santa del nuevo milenio". Hablando de Sor Faustina y de la importancia del mensaje contenido en su Diario, el Papa la llamó "el gran apóstol de la Divina Misericordia en nuestro tiempo".

Hoy, seguimos contando con Santa Faustina como un recordatorio constante del mensaje de confiar en la infinita misericordia de Jesús, y de vivir la vida con misericordia hacia los demás. También nos dirigimos a ella en la oración y a ella en la oración y pedimos su intercesión a nuestro Salvador misericordioso en nuestro nombre.

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA THE HUMBLE INSTRUMENT

Sister Faustina was a young, uneducated nun in a convent of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Poland during the 1930s. She came from a poor family that struggled during the years of World War I.

She had only three years of simple education, so hers were the humblest tasks in the convent, usually in the kitchen or garden. However, she received extraordinary revelations — or messages — from our Lord Jesus. Jesus asked Sr. Faustina to record these experiences, which she compiled into notebooks. These notebooks are known today as the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, and the words contained within are God's loving message of Divine Mercy.

Saint John Paul II canonized Sr. Faustina in 2000 making her the "first saint of the new millennium." Speaking of Sr. Faustina and the importance of the message contained in her Diary, the Pope called her "the great apostle of Divine Mercy in our time."

Today, we continue to rely of St. Faustina as a constant reminder of the message to trust in Jesus' endless mercy, and to live life mercifully toward others. We also turn to her in prayer and request her intercession to our merciful Savior on our behalf.

Thank you to all who attended, planned, prayed, participated, contributed, and supported the liturgies of Holy Week at The Cathedral of the Madeleine.

One way of understanding "liturgy" is that it is "the work of the people." Many, many people support Cathedral liturgies. Apart from our clergy and staff, we have a number of volunteers: ushers, ministry schedulers, seamstresses, masters of ceremony, lectors, altar assistants, altar servers (candles and incense), video streamers, choir members and cantors, catechists, extraordinary ministers of Communion, flower arrangers, candle replacers, tour guides, counters, and more. Our deacons voluntarily lead us in service and in prayer. And while we are all are in Mass praying every day, the Good Samaritan program continues to feed hundreds of people thanks to your generosity.

May this Easter reignite our missionary discipleship in our homes, our work, and wherever we travel. May the Lord bring an end to this pandemic so we may once again fill our churches and our homes with our family and friends. May God bless us and The Cathedral of the Madeleine.

Gracias a todos los que asistieron, planificaron, rezaron, participaron, contribuyeron y apoyaron las liturgias de la Semana Santa en la Catedral de la Madeleine.

Una forma de entender la "liturgia" es que es "el trabajo del pueblo". Muchas, muchas personas apoyan las liturgias de la Catedral. Aparte de nuestro clero y personal, tenemos un número de voluntarios: ujieres, programadores de ministerios, costureras, maestros de ceremonia, lectores, ayudantes de altar, monaguillos (velas e incienso), transmisores de video, miembros del coro y cantores, catequistas, ministros extraordinarios de la Comunión, arregladores de flores, reponedores de velas, guías de turismo, contadores, y más. Nuestros diáconos nos guían voluntariamente en el servicio y en la oración. Y mientras todos estamos en misa rezando todos los días, el programa del Buen Samaritano sigue alimentando a cientos de personas gracias a su generosidad.

Que esta Pascua reavive nuestro discipulado misionero en nuestros hogares, en nuestro trabajo y allá donde viajemos. Que el Señor ponga fin a esta pandemia para que podamos volver a llenar nuestras iglesias y nuestros hogares con nuestros familiares y amigos. Que Dios nos bendiga a nosotros y a la Catedral de la Madeleine.
