NOTICIAS DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Querido feligrés,

Mi amigo, el padre Sam, prefiere el tofu a la carne. Así que le pregunté si los veganos tenían que comer carne los viernes de Cuaresma. La práctica de la abstinencia de la carne está destinada a reconocer el sufrimiento de Jesús. Es decir, que su carne y su sangre fueron sacrificadas por nosotros. Por eso, sacrificamos el comer carne y sangre. En la Edad Media, los pobres apenas comían carne en su vida diaria. Eran los ricos los que comían carne. La práctica de la abstinencia, creo, era una señal de que la verdadera riqueza no se cuenta en monedas.

Bendiciones,

Padre Martin

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear parishioner,

My friend, Fr. Sam, prefers tofu to meat. So, I asked him if vegans had to eat meat on the Fridays of Lent. The practice of abstinence from meat is meant to recognize the suffering of Jesus. That is, that his flesh and blood was sacrificed for us. So, we sacrifice the eating of flesh and blood. In the Middle Ages, the poor had little to no meat in their daily living. It was the wealthy who ate meat. The practice of abstinence, I believe, was to be a sign that true wealth is not counted in coins.

Blessings,

Father Martin

Come and join us!
We want to listen to what you have to say!

SESIÓN DE ESCUCHAR en español

DOMINGO, 13 DE MARZO, 12:30PM - 2:30pm

¡Sirviendo los mejores donuts del mundo!

THE THREE THEMES to be discussed in the synod listening session of The Cathedral of the Madeleine :

- 1) Listening: Listening is the first step, but it requires an open mind and heart, without prejudice
- 2) Dialogue in Church and Society: Dialogue requires perseverance and patience, and enables understanding.
- 3) Authority and Participation: A synodal church is a participatory and co-responsible Church.

Los tres temas que se discutirán en la sesión de escuchar del sínodo de la Catedral de la Magdalena:

- 1) Corresponsables en la Misión: Todos estamos llamados a participar en la misión de la Iglesia.
- 2) Diálogo en La Iglesia y Sociedad: El camino de la vida incluye perseverancia, silencios y sufrimientos, y la experiencia de las personas.
- 3) Discernir y Decidir: Discernimiento requiere un consenso que nace de la común obediencia al Espíritu.

LENTE FAST AND ABSTINENCE RULES

1. All Catholics 14 years and older are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent.
2. All Catholics between the ages of 18-59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. (Canon #1252)
3. Fasting permits one full meal and two lesser meals, which combined are not greater than the full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted.
4. A spirit of fasting is recommended during all of Lent in anticipation of the great feast of Easter. In this way, we express our hunger for God, our responsibility to the poor and our recognition of the Kingdom of God as the answer to all human hungers.
5. Pastors and parents are to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance. (Canon #1252)

AYUNO Y ABSTINENCIA

1. Todos los católicos de 14 años o más deben abstenerse de comer carne el Miércoles de Ceniza y todos los viernes de Cuaresma.
2. Todos los católicos que están entre las edades de 18-59 años están llamados al ayuno el Miércoles de Ceniza y el Viernes Santo. (Canon #1252)
3. En un ayuno se permite una comida completa y dos más ligeras, que combinadas no se harán más grande que otra comida completa; no se permite comer entre comidas.
4. Un espíritu de ayuno es recomendado durante toda la Cuaresma como anticipación a la gran fiesta de la Pascua. En esta forma expresamos nuestra hambre de Dios, nuestra responsabilidad hacia los pobres y el reconocimiento del Reino de Dios, como respuesta para todo tipo de hambre humana.
5. Párrocos y padres/madres deben orientar a los menores de edad a quienes no repercute la ley del ayuno y abstinencia, educándolos en un auténtico espíritu de penitencia. (Canon #1252)

REFLEXIÓN SOBRE EL EVANGELIO

“El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación, ¿a quién he de temer?
Amparo de mi vida es el Señor, ¿ante quien temblaré? (Salmo 26,1). Junto a Dios no se debe de tener temor. Hemos visto como la pandemia destrozó vidas, y aun vivimos las secuelas de esta experiencia mundial. Dejó a muchas personas sin hogar y sin trabajo, sin techo ni comida. Sin embargo, en medio de todas las luchas de la presente vida, la persona no se desanima, porque grande es su esperanza que le reserva el Señor al final de su combate en la vida. ¡Dios siempre ha estado con nosotros, su compasión no tiene medida!

La Transfiguración de Jesús sitúa hacia donde será el final de este camino. La Liturgia de este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, indica también lo que será la gran celebración de la Pascua. “Maestro, ¡qué bueno que estemos aquí! Levantemos tres chozas: una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías. Pero no sabía lo que decía (Lucas 9,33). Pedro, sin saber lo que decía, propone a Jesús detener ese momento de gloria para siempre, construyendo tres chozas, una para Jesús y otras dos para sus acompañantes. ¿Qué choza construiremos a Jesús en esta Cuaresma? ¿Cuál es la esperanza que mueve a vivir la vida con esperanza? San Juan, en su Evangelio, indica la cercanía y unidad entre Jesús y su Padre. “Ahora, Padre, dame junto a ti la misma Gloria que tenía a tu lado antes que comenzara el mundo (Juan 17,5).

¡Escuchemos a Jesús, que es el amado del Padre! Durante la semana, busque a propósito un tiempo de oración para tener unidad con Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo. ©LPi

MOMENTS OF FAITH IN THE CATHEDRAL

The Cathedral Parish is blessed to have many members deeply devoted to praying the Rosary and honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary. Their witness is quiet and yet, powerful. I am especially touched when it is time to move the statue of Our Lady of Lourdes to the altar in May and October.

Interestingly, on the day we honor Our Lady of Lourdes, February 11, I had a brief encounter with a man standing before Mary's statue in its humble place outside the Rectory door. I mentioned that it was very good of him to honor the Blessed Mother on this, her Feast Day and he looked at me in surprise. He admitted not knowing who the statue was depicting. I gave him a quick primer on the apparitions of Saint Bernadette in France, and he remained before the image, praying.

Two weeks later, he eagerly approached me after the evening Mass, saying he had something important to share with me. He reminded me of our previous encounter and said he went directly home that day and researched more about Our Lady of Lourdes and Saint Bernadette. Finding a simple prayer asking for their intercession, he prayed it fervently, feeling a deep, inner peace that his prayer was heard.

The very next day, he told me he received the answer to a very important prayer. He received his green card in the mail that day, bringing an end to a 23 year wait and giving him hope for a bright future. Now this might not seem like anything special for most, but consider this: he was raised Hindu, yet has always attended Mass at a Catholic church as an adult.

Before leaving the Cathedral that evening, the man asked me how to donate to the Cathedral's charity outreach. I recommended supporting our Good Samaritan Program. It was nice to discover that he understood the importance of bringing his first fruits to the Lord to give thanks for answered prayer.

May the Cathedral of the Madeleine always be a refuge of prayer for those who seek the Lord with their whole heart.

Real encounters of faith in The Cathedral of the Madeleine as witnessed by Lorena Needham .

MOMENTOS DE FE EN LA CATEDRAL

La Catedral tiene la bendición de contar con muchos miembros profundamente dedicados a rezar el Rosario y a honrar a la Santísima Virgen María. Su testimonio es silencioso y, sin embargo, poderoso. Me conmueve especialmente cuando llega el momento de trasladar la estatua de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes al altar en mayo y octubre.

Curiosamente, el día en que honramos a Nuestra Señora de Lourdes, el 11 de febrero, tuve un breve encuentro con un hombre que estaba ante la estatua de María en su humilde lugar frente a la puerta de la Rectoría. Le mencioné que era muy bueno de su parte honrar a la Santísima Madre de Dios en su día de fiesta, y me miró sorprendido. Admitió no saber a quién representaba la estatua. Le di un breve clase sobre las apariciones de Santa Bernadita en Francia y se quedó rezando ante la imagen.

Dos semanas después, él se acercó a mí después de la misa vespertina, diciendo que tenía algo importante que compartir conmigo. Me recordó nuestro encuentro anterior y me dijo que ese día se fue directamente a su casa e investigó más sobre Nuestra Señora de Lourdes y Santa Bernadita. Encontró una sencilla oración en la que pedía su intercesión, y la rezó con fervor, sintiendo una paz profunda al saber que su oración había sido escuchada.

Al día siguiente, me dijo que había recibido la respuesta a una petición muy importante. Ese día recibió su tarjeta de residencia, poniendo a fin a una espera de 23 años y dándole la esperanza de un futuro esperante. Lo interesante es que el fue criado como hindú, pero siempre ha asistido a misa en una iglesia católica como adulto.

Antes de salir de la catedral esa noche, el hombre me preguntó cómo hacer una donación a las obras de caridad de la catedral. Le recomendé que apoyara nuestro Programa del Buen Samaritano. Fue agradable descubrir que comprendía la importancia de llevar sus primicias al Señor para dar gracias por la respuesta a la oración.

Que la Catedral de la Magdalena sea siempre un refugio de oración para los que buscan al Señor con todo su corazón.

Encuentros auténticos de fe en la Catedral de la Magdalena, con el testimonio de Lorena Needham.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

While we have to be cognizant of our societal and personal responsibilities in this world, we can never lose sight of where our true citizenship lies — heaven. When we become too immersed in earthly things and too preoccupied with our temporal responsibilities, we can actually become numb to our faith. Becoming ambivalent about our faith, our belief in Jesus Christ and the promises of heaven become more a source of agitation rather than a source of promise and hope. It is easy to become an enemy of Christ without even knowing it is happening. God has given us a very clear destiny. We are definitely not meant to conform ourselves to this world but to the transfiguration and glorification of our bodies to come. It is here where we can see clearly not only who God is but who we are. The way many conduct the daily business of their lives suggests that such a promise or hope is of little importance. What does the way you live your daily life say about you?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family.

His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.

THE COLLECTION FOR BLACK AND INDIAN MISSIONS IN THE UNITED STATES is this weekend, March 12/13.

The Black and Indian Mission Collection exists to help these special communities build up the Church and preach the Gospel of Jesus among the African American, Native American, and Alaska Native people of God. Funds support parish catechetical programs, promote vocations among African Americans and Native Americans, and support teachers in mission schools.

Envelopes are available in the vestibule. Online giving is available at: <https://www.osvhub.com/utcotm/funds/black-indian-missions-of-the-u-s>
