The Divine Mercy

La divina misericordia

Next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. On February 22, 1931, Sr. Faustina received a vision and she was told by Jesus "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary, 699). Confession can be made in the week before or after Divine Mercy Sunday.

El próximo domingo es el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. El 22 de febrero de 1931, Sor Faustina recibió una visión y Jesús le dijo: "Hija Mía, cuéntale al mundo entero acerca de Mi inconcebible misericordia. Deseo que la Fiesta de la Misericordia sea refugio y amparo para todas las almas, y especialmente para los pobres pecadores. En ese día se abren las profundidades mismas de Mi tierna misericordia. Derramo todo un océano de gracias sobre aquellas almas que se acercan a la fuente de Mi misericordia. El alma que se confiese y reciba la Sagrada Comunión obtendrá el completo perdón de los pecados y de las penas." (Diario, 699). La confesión se puede hacer durante la semana antes, o la semana después del Domingo de la Divina Misericordia.

The Resurrection Means Everything for Us!

*"This is the night,
when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld."
-from the Exsultet, Easter Vigil Mass*

Our belief in the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead on Easter Sunday is absolutely vital to our Catholic faith. What could we expect for ourselves after death, if Jesus had not risen from the dead? If death was the end of Jesus, then all of us who follow Him could only expect our physical death to be the end to our lives. In fact, St. Paul told the early Christians that if our hope in Christ is only for this earthly life, then we are the most pitiable of all people! (1 Cor. 15:19)

Our belief that Jesus rose from the dead is a vital matter of our faith, but it is not a blind faith, it is not an unreasonable faith. On the contrary, we have some very good reasons to support our belief that Jesus truly rose from the dead.

1. There was no denial of the empty tomb where Jesus had been buried, even from those who were most opposed to Christianity. The Jewish leaders and the Roman soldiers tried to come up with an explanation for the empty tomb (Mt. 28:11-15), but even they admitted the body of Jesus was no longer in the tomb.

2. We don't know what happened to the Roman soldiers who were guarding the tomb, who later claimed they fell asleep when the body was taken (Mt. 28:11-14). But the soldiers would have had every reason to guard the tomb well from robbers, for fear of very severe penalties from their superiors if they failed.

3. If the apostles had invented the story of the Resurrection, they would not have said that Mary Magdalen was the first person to witness the empty tomb (John 20: 1-9). In that time and culture, the testimony of women was not considered to be reliable, much less a woman of her reputation.

4. When Jesus was arrested and crucified, almost all of the apostles proved to be total cowards. Peter denied Jesus three times. All the apostles except John fled the scene of the crucifixion. Being such cowards before He died, how could we expect them to have found the courage to steal His dead body from a well-guarded tomb? And if they did not themselves come to believe Jesus had risen from the dead, how could they have found the courage to risk imprisonment, torture and death, proclaiming the Gospel of the Risen Jesus against severe threats from both the Jewish and the Roman authorities?

5. If Jesus had not risen from the dead, it is incredible that thousands of early Christians were willing to be persecuted, imprisoned, tortured and put to death, for their belief in the Risen Jesus.

6. The early followers of Jesus, whose faith was strongly rooted in Judaism, did something that was ABSOLUTELY UNTHINKABLE if Jesus had not risen from the dead. They changed the Day of the Lord, the Sabbath Day, from the Saturday observance of many centuries of Jewish tradition, to the day of the Resurrection, Sunday, which we still observe today!

Of course this and other evidence does not prove the Resurrection of Jesus, but they provide good support for our faith. Our brother Jesus has truly risen from the dead and He lives today! He has overcome all sin, suffering and death itself! And so we who follow Him can share in His great victory and His perfect eternal life! Alleluia!

¡La resurrección significa todo para nosotros!

"Esta es la noche, cuando Cristo rompió los barrotes de la prisión de la muerte y se levantó victorioso del inframundo."
-del Exsultet, Misa de Vigilia Pascual

Nuestra creencia en la Resurrección de Jesús de entre los muertos el Domingo de Pascua es absolutamente vital para nuestra fe católica. ¿Qué podríamos esperar de nosotros mismos después de la muerte, si Jesús no hubiera resucitado de entre los muertos? Si la muerte fue el fin de Jesús, entonces todos los que lo seguimos solo podemos esperar que nuestra muerte física sea el fin de nuestras vidas. De hecho, San Pablo les dijo a los primeros cristianos que, si nuestra esperanza en Cristo es solo para esta vida terrenal, entonces somos los más dignos de lástima de todas las personas! (1 Corintios 15:19)

Nuestra creencia de que Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos es un asunto vital de nuestra fe, pero no es una fe ciega, no es una fe irrazonable. Por el contrario, tenemos muy buenas razones para apoyar nuestra creencia de que Jesús verdaderamente resucitó de entre los muertos.

1. No hubo negación de la tumba vacía donde Jesús había sido sepultado, incluso por parte de aquellos que se oponían más al cristianismo. Los líderes judíos y los soldados romanos trataron de encontrar una explicación para la tumba vacía (Mt. 28:11-15), pero incluso ellos admitieron que el cuerpo de Jesús ya no estaba en la tumba.

2. No sabemos qué pasó con los soldados romanos que custodiaban el sepulcro, quienes luego afirmaron que se durmieron cuando se llevaron el cuerpo (Mt. 28:11-14). Pero los soldados habrían tenido todas las razones para proteger bien la tumba de los ladrones, por temor a castigos muy severos de sus superiores si fallaban.

3. Si los apóstoles hubieran inventado la historia de la Resurrección, no habrían dicho que María Magdalena fue la primera persona en presenciar el sepulcro vacío (Juan 20: 1-9). En esa época y cultura no se consideraba confiable el testimonio de una mujer y mucho menos una mujer de su reputación.

4. Cuando Jesús fue arrestado y crucificado, casi todos los apóstoles demostraron ser cobardes totales. Pedro negó a Jesús tres veces. Todos los apóstoles, excepto Juan, huyeron de la escena de la crucifixión. Siendo tan cobardes antes de que Él muriera, ¿cómo podríamos esperar que encontrarán el coraje para robar Su cuerpo muerto de una tumba bien guardada? Y si ellos mismos no llegaron a creer que Jesús había resucitado de entre los muertos, ¿cómo podrían haber encontrado el coraje para arriesgarse al encarcelamiento, la tortura y la muerte, proclamando el Evangelio de Jesús Resucitado contra las severas amenazas tanto de las autoridades judías como de las romanas?

5. Si Jesús no hubiera resucitado de entre los muertos, es increíble que miles de primeros cristianos estuvieran dispuestos a ser perseguidos, encarcelados, torturados y condenados a muerte, por su fe en Jesús resucitado.

6. Los primeros seguidores de Jesús, cuya fe estaba fuertemente arraigada en el judaísmo, hicieron algo ABSOLUTAMENTE IMPENSABLE si Jesús no hubiera resucitado de entre los muertos. ¡Cambiaron el Día del Señor, el día de reposo, de la observancia del sábado de muchos siglos de tradición judía, al día de la Resurrección, el domingo, que todavía observamos hoy!

Por supuesto, estas y otras evidencias no prueban la Resurrección de Jesús, pero brindan un buen apoyo para nuestra fe. ¡Nuestro hermano Jesús verdaderamente ha resucitado de entre los muertos y vive hoy! ¡El ha vencido todo pecado, sufrimiento y la misma muerte! ¡Y así nosotros, los que lo seguimos, podemos compartir Su gran victoria y Su perfecta vida eterna! ¡Aleluya!
