"What therefore God

-Matthew 19: 4-6

An Easter Gift of Amazing Mercy!

Imagine that you are walking someplace with a good friend of yours, when two big guys jump out of a car and they grab your friend. As he struggles to get away, the attackers tell you that you had better leave if you value your life. Even though you care about your friend, you are very scared and so you run away as fast as you can. 3 days later your friend comes to your home. He was beaten up pretty badly, but he was able to get away. Knowing that you had abandoned him in his time of need, how would you feel when you see him again? You would probably feel ashamed of yourself. You might wonder what kind of angry words your friend will say to you, words which you know that you very much deserve to hear. You might even wonder whether the two of you could ever be friends again.

This story might help us to understand how the 11 apostles probably felt when Jesus appeared to them the first time after He rose from the dead. They knew He was a totally innocent and holy person. But when He was arrested and tortured and nailed to a cross, practically all His Apostles, His closest friends, ran away from Him to protect themselves. Simon Peter, to whom Jesus had given great authority, 3 times denied that he even knew Him. So when Jesus rose from the dead, the Apostles were certainly happy, but maybe they were also ashamed of themselves. Maybe they thought Jesus would never forgive them.

But instead, when Jesus saw them, He did something very amazing (John 20:19-23). His first words to them after they had abandoned Him were, "Peace be with you." Then Jesus showed them His hands and His side, so they could know it was really Him. Then He said, "As the Father has sent Me, so I send you." There is one word which describes how the Father sent His Son to become one of us, to save us from the punishment we deserve for our sins. Every parent knows how hard it is to see your children suffer. We cannot even imagine what it was like for God-the-Father to ask His perfect, beloved Son to pay the price for our sins. The Father sent His Son to us in great, incredible MERCY for us, despite our sins.

So, instead of being angry with His apostles who had abandoned Him during His passion, Jesus completely forgave them and sent them to continue His mission of mercy to the world. He told His apostles, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, whose sins you retain are retained." Jesus gave the first priests of the Catholic Church the power to forgive sins in His name!

Think of the friend whom you love the most in the world, in whom you have the greatest trust. Imagine promising your friend, "No matter what bad thing anybody ever does to me, if you forgive that person for doing wrong to me, then I will also forgive that person!" That would be a very difficult promise for any of us to make.

But that is what Jesus did with His first priests! In amazing mercy, He invented the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the Sacrament of Confession. Jesus told the apostles of His Church that if they forgave the sins of a person, then He would forgive their sins. We could not buy that forgiveness for all the money in the world. Yet God offers it to us for free in the great Sacrament of Mercy, Confession!

But Jesus also said, "Whose sins you retain are retained." Why would an apostle NOT forgive the sins of somebody? Well, imagine a thief went up to St. Peter and said, "I am a thief and I am going to continue being a thief. Forgive me." Peter would not forgive him, he would retain those sins, because to receive forgiveness, a person must be truly sorry for his sins and intend not to sin again. In order for an apostle to forgive sins, he would need to hear a person confess those sins and express sorrow for those sins. That is what can stop us from receiving God's infinite mercy – if we are not truly sorry for our sins. That is why, when we confess our sins to a priest, we must express our sorrow for our sins by making an Act of Contrition. And if we are not truly sorry for our sins and we intend to sin again, God will know and He will not forgive us, no matter what the priest says. But if we confess our sins to a priest and we are truly sorry for our sins and intend not to sin again, God will always forgive us.

All of us are guilty of sin, we are all guilty of abandoning God in some way. Yet through the loving sacrifice of Jesus, and through the holy Church He has given us, in His great mercy He offers us complete forgiveness and help to avoid sin. Alleluia!

¡Un regalo de Pascua de Misericordia Asombrosa!

Imagina que estás caminando por algún lugar con un buen amigo tuyo, cuando dos tipos grandes saltan de un auto y agarran a tu amigo. Mientras lucha por escapar, los atacantes te dicen que es mejor que te vayas si valoras tu vida. Aunque te preocupas por tu amigo, estás muy asustado y huyes lo más rápido que puedes. 3 días después tu amigo llega a tu casa. Lo golpearon bastante, pero pudo escapar. Sabiendo que lo habías abandonado en su momento de necesidad, ¿cómo te sentirías cuando lo volvieras a ver? Probablemente te sentirías avergonzado de ti mismo. Quizás te preguntes qué tipo de palabras de enojo te dirá tu amigo, palabras que sabes que mereces escuchar. Incluso podrías preguntarte si ustedes dos podrían volver a ser amigos alguna vez.

Esta historia podría ayudarnos a comprender cómo se sintieron probablemente los 11 apóstoles cuando Jesús se les apareció por primera vez después de resucitar de entre los muertos. Ellos sabían que Él era una persona totalmente inocente y santa. Pero cuando fue arrestado y torturado y clavado en una cruz, prácticamente todos Sus Apóstoles, Sus amigos más cercanos, huyeron de Él para protegerse. Simón Pedro, a quien Jesús le había dado gran autoridad, negó 3 veces que lo conocía. Entonces, cuando Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos, los Apóstoles ciertamente estaban felices, pero tal vez también estaban avergonzados de sí mismos. Tal vez pensaron que Jesús nunca los perdonaría.

Pero en cambio, cuando Jesús los vio, hizo algo muy asombroso (Juan 20:19-23). Las primeras palabras que les dirigió después de que lo abandonaron fueron: "La paz sea con vosotros". Entonces Jesús les mostró sus manos y su costado, para que supieran que realmente era él. Luego dijo: "Como me envió el Padre, así os envío yo". Hay una palabra que describe cómo el Padre envió a Su Hijo para que se hiciera uno de nosotros, para salvarnos del castigo que merecemos por nuestros pecados. Todos los padres saben lo duro que es ver sufrir a sus hijos. Ni siquiera podemos imaginar cómo fue para Dios el Padre pedirle a su perfecto y amado Hijo que pague el precio de nuestros pecados. El Padre nos envió a Su Hijo en una gran e increíble MISERICORDIA por nosotros, a pesar de nuestros pecados.

Entonces, en lugar de enojarse con sus apóstoles que lo habían abandonado durante su pasión, Jesús los perdonó por completo y los envió a continuar su misión de misericordia en el mundo. Les dijo a sus apóstoles: "Recibid el Espíritu Santo. A quienes perdonéis los pecados, les serán perdonados; a quienes se los retengáis, les serán retenidos". ¡Jesús les dio a los primeros sacerdotes de la Iglesia Católica el poder de perdonar los pecados en Su nombre!

Piensa en el amigo que más amas en el mundo, la persona en la que tienes mayor confianza. Imagínese prometiéndole a su amigo: "No importa qué cosa mala me haya hecho alguien, si perdona a esa persona por haberme hecho mal, entonces yo también perdonaré a esa persona!". Esa sería una promesa muy difícil de hacer para cualquiera de nosotros.

¡Pero eso es lo que Jesús hizo con sus primeros sacerdotes! En asombrosa misericordia, Él inventó el Sacramento de la Reconciliación, el Sacramento de la Confesión. Jesús les dijo a los apóstoles de Su Iglesia que, si perdonaban los pecados de una persona, entonces Él perdonaría sus pecados. No podríamos comprar ese perdón ni con todo el dinero del mundo. ¡Sin embargo, Dios nos lo ofrece gratis en el gran Sacramento de la Misericordia, la Confesión!

Pero Jesús también dijo: "A quienes se los retuviereis, les quedan retenidos". ¿Por qué un apóstol NO perdonaría los pecados de alguien? Bueno, imagínese que un ladrón se acerca a San Pedro y le dice: "Soy un ladrón y voy a seguir siendo un ladrón. Perdóname". Pedro no lo perdonaría, retendría esos pecados, porque para recibir el perdón, una persona debe estar verdaderamente arrepentida de sus pecados y tener la intención de no volver a pecar. Para que un apóstol perdona pecados, necesitaría escuchar a una persona confesar esos pecados y expresar dolor por esos pecados. Eso es lo que puede impedirnos recibir la misericordia infinita de Dios, si no nos arrepentimos verdaderamente de nuestros pecados. Por eso, cuando confesamos nuestros pecados a un sacerdote, debemos expresar nuestro dolor por nuestros pecados haciendo un Acto de Contrición. Y si no nos arrepentimos de verdad de nuestros pecados y tenemos la intención de volver a pecar, Dios lo sabrá y no nos perdonará, diga lo que diga el sacerdote. Pero si confesamos nuestros pecados a un sacerdote y realmente nos arrepentimos de nuestros pecados y tenemos la intención de no volver a pecar, Dios siempre nos perdonará.

Todos somos culpables de pecado, todos somos culpables de abandonar a Dios de alguna manera. Sin embargo, a través del amoroso sacrificio de Jesús, ya través de la santa Iglesia que Él nos ha dado, en Su gran misericordia Él nos ofrece el perdón total y ayuda para evitar el pecado. ¡Aleluya!
