Will You Be a Good Samaritan?

Jesus replied and said, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he encountered robbers, and they stripped him and beat him, and went away leaving him half dead. And by coincidence a priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan who was on a journey came upon him; and when he saw him, he felt compassion, and came to him and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them; and he put him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn and took care of him. On the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I return, I will repay you.’ Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robber’s hands?” And he said, “The one who showed compassion to him.” Then Jesus said to him, “Go and do the same.” (Luke 10: 30-37)

We might not often come across victims of violent robbery, but we do have among us many people who are seriously sick, homebound, and even some who are terminally ill. God calls us to visit and help our family and friends whose health is impaired. But in the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus reminds us that we are called to be “neighbors” to anybody in need. So consider whether God might be inviting you to join in a parish ministry to the sick.

Jesus showed great compassion to the sick and the handicapped, giving them special attention and many times curing them of their ailments. We might not be able to cure those who are sick, but we can show them the love of Jesus by how we compassionately visit them.

We need volunteers who will visit the sick and infirm in hospitals, nursing homes, and in their own residences. We need Good Samaritans who will be instruments of the love of Jesus, by listening to those in need, by praying with them, by consoling them, and at times by bringing to them Holy Communion, the Bread of Life and the pledge of eternal life.

We will soon have training sessions, both in English and in Spanish, for those who are interested in this important ministry. The Spanish session will be held in the Church on Friday, June 3, at 7 pm. The English session will be held in the Parish Hall on Friday, June 10, at 7 pm.

¿Serás un buen samaritano?

Jesús respondió y dijo: "Bajaba un hombre de Jerusalén a Jericó, y se encontró con ladrones, y lo desnudaron y lo golpearon, y se fueron dejándolo medio muerto. Y por casualidad bajaba un sacerdote por ese camino, y cuando lo vio, pasó por el otro lado. Asimismo, también un levita, cuando llegó al lugar y lo vio, pasó de largo por el otro lado. Pero un samaritano que estaba de viaje lo encontró; y cuando lo vio, sintió compasión, y se acercó a él y vendó sus heridas, derramando sobre ellas aceite y vino; y lo montó en su propio animal, y lo llevó a una posada y lo cuidó. Al día siguiente sacó dos denarios y se los dio al posadero y le dijo: "Cúidalo; y todo lo que gastes de más, cuando yo regrese, te lo pagaré". ¿Cuál de estos tres crees que resultó ser prójimo del hombre que cayó en manos del ladrón?" Y él dijo: "El que tuvo compasión de él". Entonces Jesús le dijo: "Ve y haz lo mismo". (Lucas 10: 30-37)

Es posible que no nos encontremos con frecuencia con víctimas de robos violentos, pero tenemos entre nosotros muchas personas que están gravemente enfermas, confinadas en sus hogares e incluso algunas con enfermedades terminales. Dios nos llama a visitar y ayudar a nuestra familia y amigos que tienen problemas de salud. Pero en la parábola del Buen Samaritano, Jesús nos recuerda que estamos llamados a ser "prójimos" de cualquiera que lo necesite. Así que considere si Dios podría estar invitándolo a unirse a un ministerio parroquial para los enfermos.

Jesús mostró gran compasión por los enfermos y los discapacitados, prestándoles una atención especial y curándolos muchas veces de sus dolencias. Es posible que no podamos curar a los que están enfermos, pero podemos mostrarles el amor de Jesús al visitarlos con compasión.

Necesitamos voluntarios que visiten a los enfermos en hospitales, hogares de ancianos y en sus propias residencias. Necesitamos buenos samaritanos que sean instrumentos del amor de Jesús, escuchando a los necesitados, orando con ellos, consolándolos y, a veces, llevándoles la Sagrada Comunión, Pan de Vida y prenda de vida eterna.

Pronto tendremos sesiones de capacitación, tanto en inglés como en español, para aquellos que estén interesados en este importante ministerio. La sesión en español se llevará a cabo en la Iglesia el viernes 3 de junio a las 7 pm. La sesión en inglés se llevará a cabo en el Salón Parroquial el viernes 10 de junio a las 7 pm.
