What Does the Holy Trinity Matter to My Life?

“There is One God Who is 3 Divine Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit” - This is the simple way many of us first learned of the great mystery of the Holy Trinity. But this does not explain how One God can be 3 Persons!

Some have used common objects to help us understand this mystery. Perhaps the most famous is our patron, St. Patrick, who is said to have used the three-leaf shamrock. His point was that, as the one shamrock consists of three leaves, so the One Holy Trinity consists of three Divine Persons. This kind of illustration helped many to accept the Holy Trinity, but of course it still does not explain the mystery.

But our inability to fully understand the Holy Trinity does not make this teaching less relevant to our lives. In fact, the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) calls the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity “the central mystery of Christian faith and life.” (CCC #234) This mystery is most important for us because each of us was created in the image and likeness of the One God Who is 3 Divine Persons. That means that whatever we can learn of the Holy Trinity will help us to know who we are and what we are called to be!

Perhaps the closest we can come to understanding the Holy Trinity is through another mystery, that of love. “God Himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and He has destined us to share in that exchange.” (CCC #221) God the Father eternally gives to the Son all that He is, as an act of perfect love. The Father makes this life-giving gift of Himself totally, freely and unconditionally. God the Son eternally returns the gift of Himself to the Father, perfectly loving the Father. We see this total self-giving love of the Son in human history, when He became the man Jesus Christ and in perfect obedience to His Father, suffered and died on the Cross. Jesus made this life-giving gift of Himself totally, freely and unconditionally. And What about God the Holy Spirit? When we pray the Creed, we say that the Holy Spirit proceeds from God-the-Father and God-the-Son. Since the Father and the Son love each other so perfectly, the Holy Spirit is sometimes called “the eternal fruit of the love of the Father and the Son.”

So what does all this mean for our lives? It means that all of us, created in the image and likeness of the Holy Trinity, are meant to freely give of ourselves in perfect love for the sake of other persons! We are meant to do this in a life-giving way, in a complete and unconditional way. Most of us are called to do this through marriage and family. But some of us are called to do this as single persons, perhaps in service to others as priests, nuns, deacons, and men and women in religious life. In this earthly life our love is not perfect, but our goal is to grow in God’s love, so that we will be able to love others perfectly by the time we get to heaven!

We came from God, and because of the loving sacrifice of Jesus, God can also be our destiny. O Most Holy Trinity, may Your love increase in us until we can become perfectly united with You forever!

¿Qué tan importante es la Santísima Trinidad a mi vida?

"Hay un Dios que es 3 personas divinas: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo". Esta es la forma simple en que muchos de nosotros aprendimos por primera vez del gran misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. ¡Pero esto no explica cómo Un Dios puede ser 3 Personas!

Algunos han utilizado objetos comunes para ayudarnos a comprender este misterio. Quizás el más famoso sea nuestro patrón, San Patricio, de quien se dice que usó el trébol de tres hojas. Su punto era que, así como el trébol consta de tres hojas, la Santísima Trinidad consiste en tres Personas Divinas. Este tipo de ilustración ayudó a muchos a aceptar la Santísima Trinidad, pero por supuesto todavía no explica el misterio.

Pero nuestra incapacidad para comprender completamente la Santísima Trinidad no hace que esta enseñanza sea menos relevante para nuestras vidas. De hecho, el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (CIC) llama al misterio de la Santísima Trinidad "el misterio central de la fe y de la vida cristiana". (CCC #234) Este misterio es muy importante para nosotros porque cada uno de nosotros fue creado a imagen y semejanza del Dios Único que es 3 Personas Divinas. ¡Eso significa que cualquier cosa que podamos aprender de la Santísima Trinidad nos ayudará a saber quiénes somos y qué estamos llamados a ser!

Quizás lo más cerca que podamos llegar a comprender la Santísima Trinidad sea a través de otro misterio, el del amor. "Dios mismo es un eterno intercambio de amor, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo, y Él nos ha destinado a participar en ese intercambio". (CCC #221) Dios Padre da eternamente al Hijo todo lo que Él es, como un acto de amor perfecto. El Padre hace este don vivificante de Sí mismo total, libre e incondicionalmente. Dios Hijo devuelve eternamente el don de Sí mismo al Padre, amando perfectamente al Padre. Vemos a este amor total de auto-girando al Hijo en la historia humana, cuando se convirtió en el hombre Jesucristo y en perfecta obediencia a su Padre, sufrió y murió en la cruz. Jesús hizo este don vivificante de sí mismo total, libre e incondicionalmente. ¿Y qué hay de Dios el Espíritu Santo? Cuando rezamos el Credo, decimos que el Espíritu Santo procede de Dios Padre y de Dios Hijo. Dado que el Padre y el Hijo se aman tan perfectamente, al Espíritu Santo a veces se le llama "el fruto eterno del amor del Padre y del Hijo".

Entonces, ¿qué significa todo esto para nuestras vidas? ¡Significa que todos nosotros, creados a imagen y semejanza de la Santísima Trinidad, estamos destinados a dar libremente a nosotros mismos en perfecto amor por el bien de otras personas! Estamos destinados a hacer esto de una manera dadora de vida, de una manera completa e incondicional. La mayoría de nosotros estamos llamados a hacer esto a través del matrimonio y la familia. Pero algunos de nosotros estamos llamados a hacer esto como personas solteras, tal vez al servicio de otros como sacerdotes, monjas, diáconos y hombres y mujeres en la vida religiosa. En esta vida terrenal, nuestro amor no es perfecto, pero nuestro objetivo es crecer en el amor de Dios, ¡para que podamos amar a los demás perfectamente cuando llegamos al cielo!

Venimos de Dios, y por el amoroso sacrificio de Jesús, Dios también puede ser nuestro destino. ¡Oh Santísima Trinidad, que Tu amor crezca en nosotros hasta que podamos unirnos perfectamente a Ti para siempre!
