

JUNE 19, 2022 – THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

Después Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantado su mirada al cielo, pronunció sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y los fue dando a los discípulos, para que ellos los distribuyeran entre la gente. - Lc 9,16

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi

This weekend the Roman Catholic Church in the United States celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (or Corpus Christi). It is a time when we celebrate the real presence of Christ – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, in the Eucharist. But what does this mean? What does the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist mean?

In a 2019 Pew Report of people who identified themselves as Roman Catholic, 69% of them said that they did not believe in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. What was more alarming is that of those people who indicated that they go to Mass every Sunday, only 63% believe in the real presence. This means that 37% of weekly church goers do not believe in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Is this due to a lack of good catechesis (teaching), a lack of faith or a lack of understanding? Probably a little bit of all these reasons. You see, “presence” is one of those concepts which we all think we know, but which is difficult to describe and define. If we understand the word to mean, “being with”, then we can sense that God shows his “presence” in nature and all of creation. He is present in His Church and in the Scriptures in some manner. He is also present in all of us to some degree; however, when it comes to the Eucharist, this “presence” has a profound meaning. From the beginning of the Church’s history, early Christians understood that Jesus was uniquely present in the Eucharist. St. Paul admonished the Church in Corinth when they did not reverence Jesus’ presence in the breaking of the bread (Eucharist), “Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord” (1 Cor 11:27). This presence for St. Paul was so real that if one was seriously sinful or did not acknowledge Christ in the Eucharist and received it, then they would be considered to be irreverent to Jesus himself!

During the Protestant Reformation, many Protestants who wanted to do away with the need for a priesthood began to reinterpret the Sacred Scriptures to make it seem that the Eucharist was only a symbolic representation of Christ and not his real presence. The Church responded in the Council of Trent (1545-1563) that, “If anyone denies that the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained in the sacrament of the most holy Eucharist, but says that Christ is present in the Sacrament only as in a sign or figure, or by his power: let him be anathema (not with the Church)”.

So, what should we do if we have doubts? Like anything else of faith, I suggest prayer. Prayer before the Most Holy Eucharist or Adoration should be considered. As an early convert, I too had to come face to face with my own doubts about the Eucharist. After the first couple of times in front of the Eucharist, I still hadn’t removed my doubts, but I kept going every week. Eventually, I did have a faith-changing experience. I was able to overcome my doubts and believe that Christ was truly present in a very real way in the Eucharist. Through Adoration, I eventually solidified my faith and solidified my calling to the vocation of the diaconate. It changed the course of my life, and I believe that it can do the same for you as well. Bring Christ your doubts, bring Him your weaknesses and with His grace, you too may come to believe.

La Solemnidad del Corpus Christi

Este fin de semana la Iglesia Católica Romana en los Estados Unidos celebra la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (o Corpus Christi). Es hora de celebrar la presencia real de Cristo: Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad, en la Eucaristía. Pero ¿qué significa esto? ¿Qué significa la presencia real de Jesús en la Eucaristía?

En un Informe Pew de 2019 de personas que se identificaron como católicas romanas, el 69% de ellas dijeron que no creían en la presencia real de Jesús en la Eucaristía. Lo más alarmante es que de aquellas personas que indicaron que van a misa todos los domingos, solo el 63% cree en la presencia real. Esto significa que el 37% de los feligreses semanales no creen en la presencia real de Cristo en la Eucaristía.

¿Se debe esto a la falta de una buena catequesis (enseñanza), falta de fe o falta de comprensión? Probablemente un poco de todas estas razones. Verás, "presencia" es uno de esos conceptos que todos creemos conocer, pero que es difícil de describir y definir. Si entendemos que la palabra significa "estar con", entonces podemos sentir que Dios muestra su "presencia" en la naturaleza y en toda la creación. Él está presente en Su Iglesia y en las Escrituras de alguna manera. También está presente en todos nosotros en algún grado; sin embargo, cuando se trata de la Eucaristía, esta "presencia" tiene un profundo significado. Desde el comienzo de la historia de la Iglesia, los primeros cristianos entendieron que Jesús estaba presente en la Eucaristía. San Pablo amonestó a la Iglesia en Corinto cuando no reverenciaban la presencia de Jesús en la fracción del pan (Eucaristía), "Quien, por lo tanto, come el pan o bebe la copa del Señor indignamente, será culpable de profanar el cuerpo y la sangre del Señor" (1 Cor 11, 27). Esta presencia para San Pablo era tan real que si uno estaba gravemente pecador o no reconoció a Cristo en la Eucaristía y lo recibió, ¡Serían considerados irreverentes al mismo Jesús!

Durante la Reforma protestante, muchos protestantes que querían acabar con la necesidad del sacerdocio comenzaron a reinterpretar las Sagradas Escrituras para hacer parecer que la Eucaristía era solo una representación simbólica de Cristo y no su presencia real. La Iglesia respondió en el Concilio de Trento (1545-1563) que "Si alguno niega que el cuerpo y la sangre, junto con el alma y la divinidad, de nuestro Señor Jesucristo y, por tanto, todo Cristo es verdadera, real y sustancialmente contenido en el sacramento de la santísima Eucaristía, sino que dice que Cristo está presente en el Sacramento sólo como signo o figura, o por su poder: sea anatema (no con la Iglesia)".

Entonces, ¿qué debemos hacer si tenemos dudas? Como cualquier otra cosa de fe, sugiero la oración. Se debe considerar la oración antes de la Santísima Eucaristía o Adoración. Como uno de los primeros conversos, también tuve que enfrentarme con mis propias dudas sobre la Eucaristía. Después del primer par de veces frente a la Eucaristía, todavía no me había quitado las dudas, pero seguí adelante cada semana. Eventualmente, tuve una experiencia que me cambió la fe. Pude superar mis dudas y creer que Cristo estaba verdaderamente presente de una manera muy real en la Eucaristía. A través de la Adoración, finalmente solidifiqué mi fe y solidifiqué mi llamado a la vocación del diaconado. Cambió el curso de mi vida, y sugiero que también puede hacer lo mismo por ti. Llévale a Cristo tus dudas, llévale a Él tus debilidades y con Su gracia, tú también puedes llegar a creer.
