*“Después de oír al rey, los magos se pusieron en camino, y de pronto la estrella que habían visto surgir, comenzó a guiarlos, hasta que se detuvo encima de donde estaba el niño. Al ver de nuevo la estrella, se llenaron de inmensa alegría. Entraron en la casa y vieron al niño con María, su madre, y postrándose, lo adoraron. Después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra”

A Message from | Mensaje del Father (Padre) Mike

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Joachim,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. Epiphany means manifestation and commemorates the ways in which Jesus was revealed to us: in the gifts of three Kings (Matthew 2:1-12), his Baptism in the Jordan River (Matthew 3:13-17), and at the Wedding Feast at Cana of Galilee (John 2:1-12).

In many Christian cultures, Epiphany is the day to give gifts. Tradition tells us the Magi's names were Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They opened their treasures and offered the baby Jesus gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Each year they bring children around the world precious gifts as well. We are not sure how many Magi there were, but since there are three gifts there might have been three Magi to present them. I have been in the Neocatechumenate for 34 years and each Epiphany they have a play where men dressed as the Magi present gifts to the children in attendance. The Saint Joachim Neocatechumenate communities in both English and Spanish will hold such a play with the children from their communities.

New Year's Day fell on this weekend, and this is a time when people make resolutions to change in the coming year. People resolve to lose weight, live healthier lives, exercise more, give up bad habits, complete their education – to name a few. We might resolve this year to start each morning with a short prayer: "Good morning, Lord. Thank you for extending my life for one more day. Please grant me a special anointing of your Holy Spirit so that I may do your holy will today and avoid everything evil." Every evening we might resolve to say a short prayer as the last thing we do before going to sleep: "Thank you Lord for helping me to do your will today. Forgive me, Lord, for saying 'no' to your grace several times today. I am sorry for all my sins today. Please forgive me." And, as we close our eyes, we might say: "Good night, Lord. Father, into your hands I commend my spirit."

Gratefully yours in Christ Jesus the Good Steward.

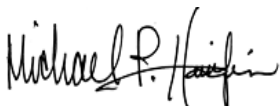

Queridos Parroquianos y Amigos de San Joaquín,

Este fin de semana celebramos la Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor. Epifanía significa manifestación y conmemora las formas en que Jesús se nos reveló: en los dones de los tres reyes (Mateo 2: 1-12), su bautismo en el río Jordán (Mateo 3: 13-17) y en la fiesta de bodas en Caná de Galilea (Juan 2: 1-12).

En muchas culturas Cristianas, la Epifanía es el día para dar regalos. La tradición nos dice que los nombres de los magos eran Gaspar, Melchior y Balthazar. Abrieron sus tesoros y le ofrecieron al niño Jesús regalos de oro, incienso y mirra. Cada año también traen obsequios preciosos a los niños de todo el mundo. No estamos seguros de cuántos magos había, pero dado que hay tres regalos, podría haber sido tres magos para presentarlos. Llevo 34 años en el Neocatecumenado y en cada Epifanía tienen una obra de teatro donde hombres vestidos como los Reyes Magos presentan obsequios a los niños presentes. Las comunidades del Neocatecumenado de San Joaquín, tanto en Inglés como en Español, realizarán un juego de este tipo con los niños de sus comunidades.

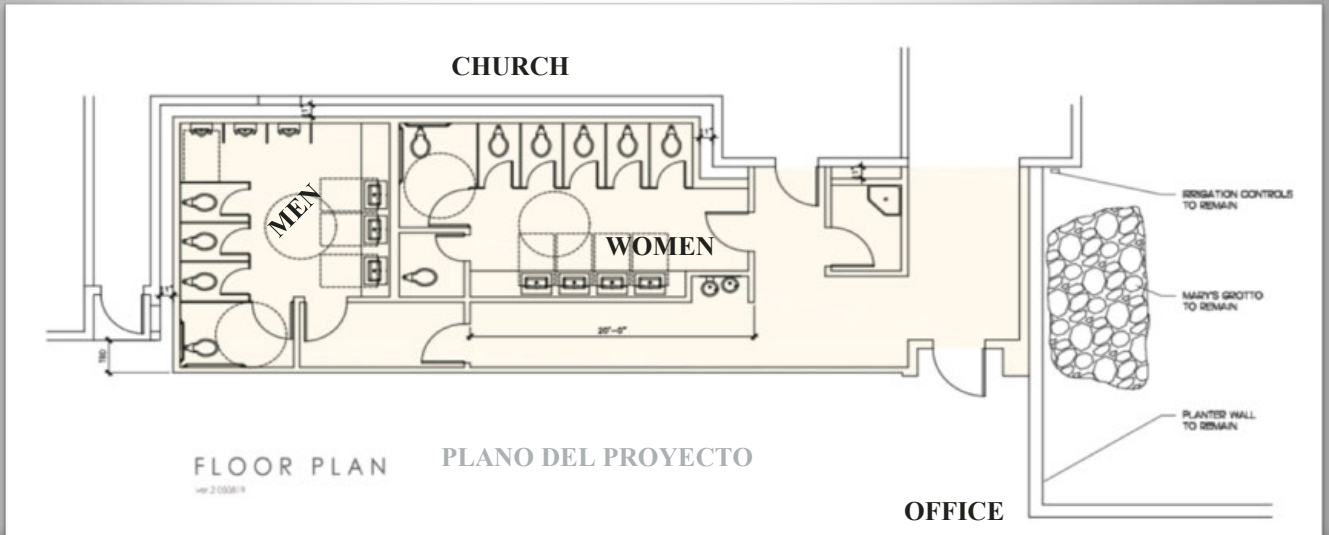

El día de Año Nuevo cayó en este fin de semana, y este es un momento en el que la gente hace resoluciones para cambiar el próximo año. Las personas deciden perder peso, vivir vidas más saludables, hacer más ejercicio, dejar los malos hábitos, completar su educación, por nombrar algunos. Podríamos resolver este año para comenzar cada mañana con una breve oración: "Buenos días, Señor. Gracias por extender mi vida un día más. Por favor, concédeme una unción especial de tu Espíritu Santo para que pueda hacer tu santa voluntad hoy y evitar todo mal ". Cada noche podríamos decidir hacer una breve oración como lo último que hacemos antes de irnos a dormir: "Gracias Señor por ayudarme a hacer tu voluntad hoy. Perdóname, Señor, por decir "no" a tu gracia varias veces hoy. Lamento todos mis pecados hoy. Por favor perdóname." Y, al cerrar los ojos, podríamos decir: "Buenas noches, Señor. Padre, en tus manos encomiendo mi espíritu".

Con agradecimiento en Cristo, el Buen Pastor,

Father (Padre) Michael P. Hanifin

Beginning in January, we will be featuring St. Joachim's Heroes with articles about people who impacted us with such wonderful love and care. It's only fitting that we begin at the beginning with Msgr. Thomas J. Nevin, St. Joachim's first pastor. Keep an eye on the bulletin and social media to see how we honor these "heroes" who helped form the face of St. Joachim Church throughout the decades.

A partir de enero, presentaremos a los héroes de San Joaquín con artículos sobre personas que nos impactaron con un amor y un cuidado tan maravillosos. Es lógico que comencemos por el principio con Mons. Thomas J. Nevin, primer pastor de San Joaquín. Esté atento al boletín y las redes sociales para ver cómo honramos a estos "héroes" que ayudaron a formar el rostro de la Iglesia San Joaquín a lo largo de las décadas.

What our community of Faith can do to minister a person who has a mental illness.

The dignity of the individual is paramount in our belief that we are all created in the image and likeness of God. Our language and our actions should reflect that belief. When talking about mental illness, we should use "people first language." We refer to people as the person they are - not the disease they have. So we say "a person who has a mental illness" or "a man or woman with a mental illness." We avoid referring to people using terms like "the mentally ill" or "the depressed," or even worse terms. We all want to be known for the person we are not the illness we have. We are more than the illness we have! As people of compassion and justice we should never use stigmatizing language or demeaning terms when referring to people with an illness.

Careful use of language is a way of communicating that people with mental illness, as Pope John Paul II said, "have the inalienable right not only to be considered as an image of God and therefore as a person, but also to be treated as such."

We make the dignity of the individual real by following the example Jesus gave us. Jesus calls us to seek out and include people in our faith community who are suffering and isolated. Jesus gave us many examples like story of the Good Samaritan who helped someone when no one else would, and the story of the father of the prodigal son that teaches us about unconditional love. It is when we love in these ways that we experience the love that God has for us.

Lo que nuestra Comunidad de Fe puede hacer para ministrar a las personas con enfermedades mentales y a sus familias.

La dignidad del individuo es primordial en nuestra creencia de que todos somos creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Nuestro lenguaje y nuestras acciones deben reflejar esa creencia. Cuando hablamos de enfermedades mentales, deberíamos usar un lenguaje que pone en primer lugar el individuo. Nos referimos a las personas tal como son, no como la enfermedad que tienen. Por eso decimos, "una persona que tiene una enfermedad mental" o "un hombre o una mujer con una enfermedad mental." Evitamos refiriéndonos a las personas utilizando términos como "enfermos mentales" o "la depresión," o incluso peores términos. Todos queremos ser conocidos por la persona que somos no por la enfermedad que tenemos. ¡Somos más que la enfermedad que tenemos! Como personas de compasión y justicia, nunca debemos usar lenguaje estigmatizador o términos degradantes cuando nos referimos a personas con una enfermedad.

El uso cuidadoso del lenguaje es una forma de comunicar que las personas con enfermedades mentales, como dijo el Papa Juan Pablo II, "tienen el derecho inalienable no solo de ser consideradas como una imagen de Dios y, por lo tanto, como personas, sino también de ser tratadas como tales."

Hacemos real la dignidad del individuo siguiendo el ejemplo que Jesús nos dio. Jesús nos llama a buscar e incluir a personas en nuestra comunidad de fe que sufren y están aisladas. Jesús nos dio muchos ejemplos, como la historia del buen samaritano que ayudó a alguien cuando nadie más lo haría, y la historia del padre del hijo pródigo que nos enseña sobre el amor incondicional. Cuando amamos de esta manera, experimentamos el amor que Dios tiene por nosotros.

Please leave a message and I will call you as soon as possible. | Por favor dejen un mensaje y les llamare en cuando sea posible.

The Visit of the Magi

The magi (wise men) asked about the birth of Jesus.

Circle and count how many:  3 or 4?  4 or 5?

Teachers of the law told King Herod what the prophet had said long ago.

Which prophet told of the birthplace of the Messiah?
Cross out the letters that appear 2 times in each row to reveal the prophet's name.

The prophet had said,
"For out of Bethlehem will come a ruler."

100 Things Every Catholic Teen Should Know Transubstantiation Explained

We Catholics love big words: epiclesis, doxology, catechesis, Magisterium. Perhaps no word is more important and more misunderstood than transubstantiation.

Transubstantiation is the term used to describe what literally happens at every Catholic Mass, through the power of the Holy Spirit working through the sacramental priesthood of Christ. Transubstantiation is when the gifts of the bread and wine are substantially changes (transubstantiated not transformed) into the real flesh and blood of Jesus. The Catholic Church at the Council of Trent summarized transubstantiation quite nicely. To read more about it, check out your Catechism (CCC 1376-1377).

Many Christians (and some Catholics, unfortunately) have a difficult time with this teaching because it does not “appear” that the bread and wine change. So, how do we explain our belief in the real presence, if the bread and wine still look like simple bread and wine? Think about it, it would be a lot easier if all of a the sudden the bread oozed blood or id we used clear glasses and white wine turned into red wine, right?

Well, it is complicated to do in a small of space, but let us give it a try.

There are two “levels” that make up an object: the accidents and the substance. The accidents are the appearances, taste, look, and feel of an object, but the substance is what it really is. Take a chair; it has accidents and substance. Say that you saw the chair in several pieces and then take those pieces of wood and reconfigure them with nails to make a coffee table. You have changed the accidents of the chair into a table, but the substance of the chair has not been changed, it is still made up of wood molecules. Makes sense? So, at the Mass the accidents of the bread and wine do not change, but through the power of the Holy Spirit, the substance of the bread and wine are altered into Christ’s body and blood on the altar.

The Eucharist is not a mystery to be solved but a mystery to behold. The gifts are not transformed but transubstantiated. This miracle turns you into a walking tabernacle, literally changing you from the inside out. This uniquely intimate expression of God’s grace, through Communion, has a power to transform and “transubstantiate” us like nothing else of Earth.
