

“After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”
~ Luke 3: 21-22

“Sucedió que entre la gente que se bautizaba, también Jesús fue bautizado. Mientras éste oraba, se abrió el cielo y el Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él en forma sensible, como de una paloma, y del cielo llegó una voz que decía: “Tú eres mi Hijo, el predilecto; en ti me complazco.”

A Message from | Mensaje del Father (Padre) Mike

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Joachim,

With this Sunday, we come to the end of the Christmas Season and begin the Season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday is the Baptism of the Lord. In the Gospel according to Saint Luke, the narrative tells us that there were those who thought that John the Baptist might be the anticipated Messiah. John reprimanded them, saying that he was not the Christ and in fact he was not worthy to untie the sandal straps from his feet – the responsibility of a servant or a slave. John said that he baptized with water, but the Messiah would baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire. Then after all were baptized and Jesus himself was baptized and praying, the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descended in the form of a dove with a voice that came from heaven, “This is my beloved Son; with whom I am well pleased.” This Sunday, we will sprinkle parishioners with Holy Water at the beginning of Mass, reminding ourselves of Jesus’ baptism as well as our own.

On Thursday, December 30th, Fr. Miguel Ángel Cárabez started feeling sick. He immediately quarantined and was tested on Friday. On Sunday, the test came back positive. Father is feeling better but will continue to follow Center for Disease Control protocols. Moreover, he is on an already planned two-week vacation. Anyone who may have been in close contact with Fr. Cárabez in the early days of last week and is experiencing symptoms related to Covid-19 may wish to be tested. While he is away, Father Steve and I will be holding down the proverbial fort.

The news has reported record infections of the Covid-19 Omicron variant. This variant is reported to be very infectious but not as terrible as the Delta and the previous variants. Some of the staff, as well as parishioners, have reported to be sick, and some have tested positive for Covid-19. The Diocese of Orange has informed us to communicate to parishioners the following: “With more people testing positive for COVID-19 in these days, it is strongly recommended that— to help prevent the spread of COVID-19—all who enter this church to please wear a mask while inside, whether one is fully vaccinated or not.” Let us also remember in our prayers who have become ill as well as those who have died from Covid-19.

Gratefully yours in Christ the Good Steward,

Queridos Parroquianos y Amigos de San Joaquín,

Con este Domingo llegamos al final de la temporada navideña y comenzamos la temporada del tiempo ordinario. Este Domingo es el Bautismo del Señor. En el Evangelio según San Lucas, la narración nos dice que hubo quienes pensaron que Juan el Bautista podría ser el Mesías anticipado. Juan los reprendió, diciendo que él no era el Cristo y que, de hecho, no era digno de desatar las correas de las sandalias de sus pies, la responsabilidad de un sirviente o un esclavo. Juan dijo que bautizaba con agua, pero que el Mesías bautizaría con el Espíritu Santo y con fuego. Luego, después de que todos fueron bautizados y Jesús mismo fue bautizado y orando, los cielos se abrieron y el Espíritu Santo descendió en forma de paloma con una voz que vino del cielo: “Este es mi Hijo amado; con quien estoy muy complacido”. Este Domingo, rociaremos a los feligreses con agua bendita al comienzo de la misa, recordándonos tanto el bautismo de Jesús como el nuestro.

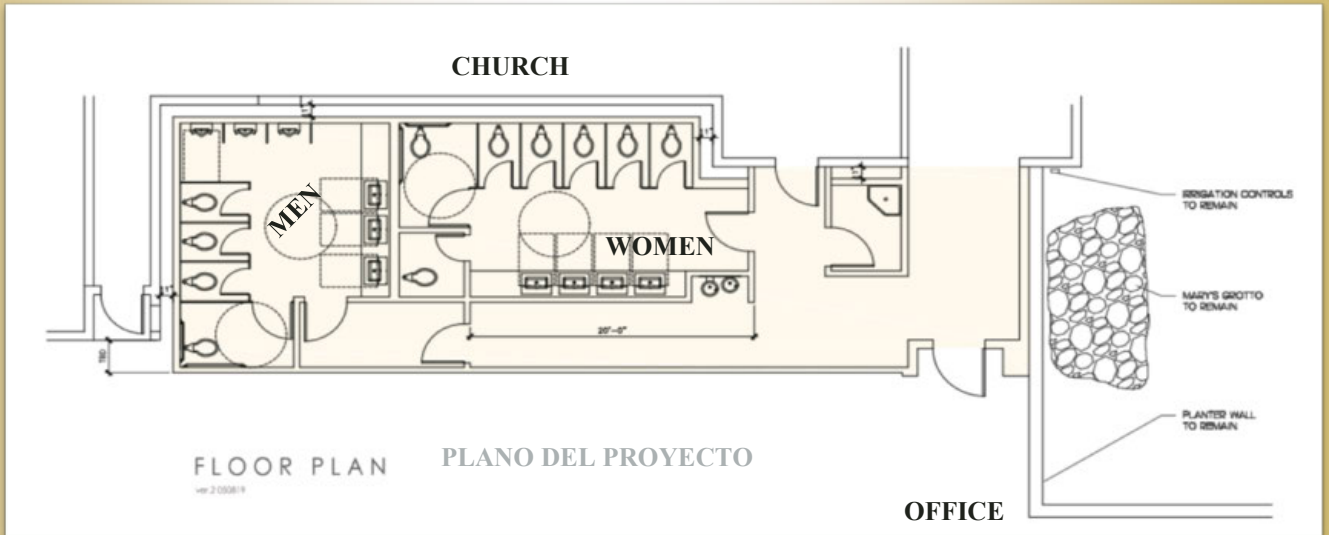

El Jueves 30 de Diciembre, el Padre Miguel Ángel Cárabez empezó a sentirse mal. Inmediatamente se puso en cuarentena e hizo un examen el Viernes. El Domingo, la prueba dio positivo. El Padre se siente mejor, pero seguirá siguiendo los protocolos del Centro para el Control de Enfermedades. Además, está de vacaciones de dos semanas ya planificadas. Cualquiera que haya estado en contacto con el Padre Cárabez en los primeros días de la semana pasada y está experimentando síntomas relacionados con Covid-19, es posible que desee hacerse la prueba. Mientras él esté fuera, el Padre Steve y yo mantendremos el fuerte.

La noticia ha informado de infecciones récord de la variante Covid-19 Omicron. Se informa que esta variante es muy contagiosa pero no tan terrible como el Delta y las variantes anteriores. Algunos miembros del personal, así como los feligreses, han informado estar enfermos y algunos han dado positivo por Covid-19. La Diócesis de Orange nos ha informado que comuniquemos a los feligreses lo siguiente: “Con más personas dando positivo por COVID-19 en estos días, se recomienda encarecidamente que, para ayudar a prevenir la propagación del COVID-19, todos los que ingresen a esta iglesia por favor use una máscara mientras estén adentro, ya sea que uno esté completamente vacunado o no”. Recordemos también en nuestras oraciones a los que se han enfermado y a los que han muerto a causa del Covid-19.

Con agradecimiento en Cristo, el Buen Pastor,

Father (Padre) Michael P. Hanifin

Has COVID made us prioritize mental health?

One in Four Americans Plans a Mental Health New Year's Resolution for 2022. Findings from The American Psychiatric Association (APA) report that about 55% of Americans feel somewhat or very anxious about the state of the COVID-19 pandemic, and 58% of Americans report they are somewhat or very anxious about the state of their personal finances. More than half (54%) report feeling somewhat or very anxious about the uncertainty of 2022.

"For many the new calendar year symbolizes a time for renewal, for trying new things, and, for some, new beginnings," said APA President Vivian Pender, M.D. "To see one in four Americans focusing on their mental health in this moment is important and encouraging.

Practicing self-care is very important for your mental health.

- Address your Spiritual needs: go to church, pray, or read spiritual books
- Go outside: whether it's for a leisurely stroll or a jog, sunlight and the winter air might help you "chill out"
- Keep a gratitude journal: gratitude can improve your mood, self-esteem, and your all-around positivity
- Hydrate: make sure to drink enough water and moisturize your skin to combat the effects of the drying winter air
- Treat yourself: give yourself a break and indulge in a sweet treat
- Let there be light: try light therapy or taking a vitamin D supplement if you suffer from Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD), a condition that mimics the symptoms of depression due to lack of sunlight and vitamin D
- Move your body: did you know that exercising in colder temperatures burns more calories than normal? Exercising indoors is also an option if you're not a fan of the cold, and still good for you
- Slow down: wrap yourself in a warm blanket for 15 minutes a few times a week to simply be in the moment if the hustle and bustle of the new year gets your mind racing
- Surround yourself with good people: prioritize quality time with those who bring joy to your life, whether that's friends or family
- Pursue your passion: explore new things and invest time in them

¿COVID nos ha hecho priorizar la salud mental?

Uno de cada cuatro estadounidenses planea una resolución de año nuevo de salud mental para el 2022. De acuerdo con las investigaciones de la Asociación Estadounidense de Psiquiatría (APA.), alrededor del 55% de los estadounidenses informan sentirse algo o muy ansiosos por el estado de la pandemia de COVID-19, y el 58% de los estadounidenses informan que están algo o muy ansiosos por el estado de sus finanzas personales. Más de la mitad (54%) informa sentirse algo o muy ansiosos por la incertidumbre de 2022.

"Para muchos, el nuevo año simboliza un momento de renovación, de probar cosas nuevas y, para algunos, de nuevos comienzos", dijo la presidenta de la APA, Vivian Pender, MD "Ver a uno de cada cuatro estadounidenses centrarse en su salud mental en este momento es importante y alentador.

Practicar el cuidado personal es muy importante para su salud mental.

- Aborda tus necesidades espirituales: ir a la iglesia, orar o leer libros espirituales
- Sal fuera: ya sea para dar un paseo o ir a correr, la luz del sol y el aire del invierno pueden ayudarte a "relajar".
- Lleva un diario de gratitud: la gratitud puede mejorar tu estado de ánimo y tu positividad general.
- Hidratar: asegúrate de beber suficiente agua e hidratar tu piel para combatir los efectos del aire seco del invierno.
- Date un gusto: deléitate con una golosina.
- Deja que haya luz: prueba la terapia de luz o toma un suplemento de vitamina D si padeces de un trastorno afectivo estacional (TAE), una afección que imita los síntomas de la depresión debido a la falta de luz solar y vitamina D.
- Mueve tu cuerpo: ¿sabías que hacer ejercicio en temperaturas más frías quema más calorías de lo normal? Hacer ejercicio en el interior también es una opción si no eres fanático del frío y aun así es bueno para ti.
- Relájate: envuélvete en una manta caliente durante 15 minutos varias veces a la semana para simplemente estar en el momento si el ajetreo y el bullicio hace que tu mente se acelere.
- Rodéate de gente buena: prioriza el tiempo de calidad con aquellos que te brindan alegría a tu vida, ya sean amigos o familiares.
- Persigue tu pasión: explora cosas nuevas e invierte tiempo en ellas.

Please leave a message and I will call you as soon as possible. | Por favor dejen un mensaje y les llamare en cuando sea posible.

MONSIGNOR THOMAS NEVIN – OUR FIRST ST. JOACHIM HERO

We need to begin at the beginning. When St. Joachim was founded, we were part of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

On March 8, 1947, Msgr. Thomas J. Nevin found out that he was to be named our first pastor, thus becoming our founding father.

- ⇒ We were known in the Diocese as heaven on earth. Much of that was due to the leadership Msgr. Nevin.
- ⇒ He is a miracle in himself – he had such bad health that his Diocese in Ireland (where he was born and raised and ordained) sent him to the USA so that he might get a few more years of life. Instead of getting sicker, he thrived in the California’s weather despite only having one lung.
- ⇒ Msgr. Nevin organized the first Mass held in a borrowed chapel on March 16, 1947. The first Mass at our current location was celebrated on Christmas day, 1947.
- ⇒ Msgr. Nevin asked the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange to come to St. Joachim and begin a school, which they did in 1949. The school is still thriving and using one of the original buildings.
- ⇒ Msgr. Nevin led the fundraising for the church we now worship in, which was dedicated in 1966.
- ⇒ Msgr. Nevin always had a twinkle in his eye and a love for our Lord and his mother, Mary. Those around him were happy to volunteer so it was no surprise that others showed up for Mass to support the beginning of the parish.
- ⇒ After his retirement on July 1, 1982, Msgr. Nevin stayed in residence as our Pastor Emeritus until his passing on December 15, 1989.
- ⇒ People from all over – Catholic, Jewish and Protestant leaders and faithful – came to pay their respects for someone who was a true follower and servant of Christ and His people.
- ⇒ In 2005, the new multi-purpose hall at St. Joachim Church was named Nevin Hall. Its use for school and church ministries is a tribute to our founding pastor and hero, Msgr. Thomas J. Nevin.

MONSEÑOR THOMAS NEVIN –

NUESTRO PRIMER HÉROE DE SAN JOAQUIN

Tenemos que empezar por el principio. Cuando se fundó San Joaquín, formábamos parte de la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles.

El 8 de Marzo de 1947, Monseñor Thomas J. Nevin se enteró de que iba a ser nombrado nuestro primer párroco, convirtiéndose así en nuestro padre fundador.

- ⇒ Se nos conocía en la diócesis como el cielo en la tierra. Gran parte de ello se debía al liderazgo de Monseñor Nevin.
- ⇒ Él es un milagro en sí mismo: tenía tan mala salud que su diócesis en Irlanda (donde nació, creció y se ordenó) lo envió a los Estados Unidos para que pudiera tener algunos años más de vida. En lugar de enfermarse mas, Monseñor Nevin prosperó en el clima de California a pesar de tener sólo un pulmón.
- ⇒ Monseñor Nevin organizó la primera misa el 16 de Marzo de 1947 en una capilla prestada. La primera misa en nuestra ubicación actual se celebró el día de Navidad de 1947.
- ⇒ Monseñor Nevin pidió a las Hermanas de San José de Orange que vinieran a San Joaquín y comenzaran una escuela, lo que hicieron en 1949. La escuela todavía prospera y utiliza uno de los edificios originales.
- ⇒ Monseñor Nevin dirigió la recaudación de fondos para la iglesia en la que ahora estamos celebrando, que fue dedicada en 1966.
- ⇒ Monseñor Nevin siempre tenía un brillo en los ojos y un amor por nuestro Señor y su madre, María. Los que le rodeaban estaban contentos de ser voluntarios, por lo que no era de extrañar que otros acudieran a la misa para apoyar el inicio de la parroquia.
- ⇒ Después de su jubilación el 1 de Julio de 1982, Monseñor Nevin permaneció en la residencia como nuestro Párroco Emérito hasta su fallecimiento el 15 de Diciembre de 1989.
- ⇒ Gente de todas partes -líderes y fieles católicos, judíos y protestantes- vinieron a presentar sus respetos por alguien que fue un verdadero seguidor y servidor de Cristo y de su pueblo.
- ⇒ En 2005, el nuevo salon multiuso de la iglesia de San Joaquín recibió el nombre de Nevin Hall. Su uso para los ministerios escolares y eclesiásticos es un homenaje a nuestro párroco fundador y héroe, monseñor Thomas J. Nevin.

Message from our priests:

With the increase of retiring priests and the decrease of ordinations, we ask that you pray for young men to answer God's call to the priesthood! Please make these prayers part of your daily time with God. Thank you.

Mensaje de nuestros sacerdotes:

Con el aumento de sacerdotes que se jubilan y la disminución de ordenaciones, les pedimos que recen por los jóvenes para que respondan al llamado de Dios al sacerdocio. Por favor, haz que estas oraciones formen parte de tu tiempo diario con Dios. Gracias.

Prayer for Vocations

Oración por las vocaciones

Lord, You told us that "The harvest indeed is great but the laborers are few. Pray, therefore, the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His harvest." We ask You to strengthen us as we follow the vocation to which You have called us.

We pray particularly for those called to serve as priests, sisters, brothers and deacons: those whom You have called, those You are calling now, those You will call in the future.

May they be open and responsive to the call of serving Your people. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen

SJS GRADE 1A SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Megan Fry

Ending 2021 - First Grade 1A students dove straight into all the Festive Holiday fun! We completed our Advent Goal Calendar, working to meet each day's goal - challenging ourselves to make room in our hearts for Jesus. Along with our advent goals, we have begun a new class campaign: Lighting Up our Classroom with Kindness. Each day, students are on the hunt to catch others, or their own selves, in the act of kindness. Once the kindness act has been noticed, students grab a paper ornament to write down the kind act and hang it as an ornament on our wall to "light" up our room! Along with our Holiday fun, students have been practicing their reading fluency. Each week, students evaluate a reading passage and practice reading with their reading buddies all week, along with several reading games and strategy practice! Last week, we read all about Reindeer as mammals. Through their reading, students discovered what makes a reindeer a mammal, discovered all the nouns in the passage, and created a writing and art piece to represent what they have learned!

SJS GRADE 1B SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Katherine Kinan

First Grade students have embraced the importance of learning and have become uber-motivated to try new things! Our students work very hard in the classroom and it shows through writing samples and assessments. First Grade has adopted a new concept for reading comprehension that gives us an opportunity to display our more complex thinking. The students have learned new phrases and deeper insights as to why an author writes a book. Not only are the students succeeding academically, but spiritually as well. Throughout the past months we have been reflecting on thankfulness, reverence, and kindness. 1B loves to show kindness in every way. We have created kindness stockings in the classroom and the students are able to write notes to their friends. These notes exemplify Christ's love. It is a blessing to watch! 1B never misses an opportunity to support and cheer on their fellow classmates during independent play time and P.E. Our classroom community continually reminds us every day how important it is to love thy neighbor and rely on each other to make the world a more loving place!

100 Things Every Catholic Teen Should Know Why can't non-Catholics receive the Eucharist?

Catholics believe that the Eucharist is truly the divine flesh of Jesus, not a piece of bread representing Him, not a symbol of Him, but truly Him. Non-Catholics do not believe this fact. On the most fundamental level, that is why non-Catholics who attend a Catholic Mass cannot receive. It is less about their "worthiness" and more about not putting them in a position to denounce their own beliefs.

Other faiths have "bread and wine" at their services; we do not. We have the actual body and blood of Jesus present in the Eucharist, under the form of bread and wine. Most of the other faiths believe that the bread and wine are simply reenactments or remembrances of the actions of the Last Supper, but the Church's teaching goes so much deeper in our belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Read Luke 22:19; it is that part about "This is my body" that I would like you to notice. We believe that He whom we receive is truly Jesus. In asking a non-Catholic to receive the Eucharist, you are asking them to deny their own religion and become Catholic or you are saying that you do not really believe in the real presence of Christ. Either way, it is not too good.

There is nothing wrong with wanting your friends to feel welcome at Mass, but this can be done without compromising our beliefs. Most Dioceses have guidelines for what non-Catholics can do during Communion and at almost all of the LifeTeen masses I have been to, the priest gives those instructions at the beginning of Communion. We want people to feel welcome in our parishes, but we also have to remain true to the fact that there are differences in our religious practices. We are not like "other churches," we are the Catholic Church and proud of it.

I often invite my friends from other religious backgrounds to Mass. I always take the time to explain to them that they can receive a blessing or Put simply, non-Catholics cannot receive the Eucharist out of mutual respect. In addition, most Christians might be surprised to learn that the Bible says it is a no-no too. Saint Paul warned people about people going to receive the true flesh and blood of Christ if they did not believe it to be so. (1 Corinthians 11:23-29)
