Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Holy Week and Easter Office Schedule

The Parish Office will be closed April 1-5 for Holy Week and Easter, reopening on Tuesday, April 6.

Attending Mass at St. Philip's

Following the requirements of civil and diocesan authorities, we are observing special safety precautions for Masses and events at this time. We continue to offer live-streaming for those who still need to remain at home.

Church Capacity Limitations

At this time, we are permitted to have a congregation of 50% of the seating capacity in our buildings.

Required Precautions

- Wear a face mask or scarf that covers your nose and mouth
- Sanitize hands on entering the buildings (if possible, please bring a personal bottle)
- Maintain distance between yourself and others (please allow ushers to direct you to a seat in the church)

Nursery services are not available at this time.

Am I Obliged to Attend Mass?

The obligation to physically attend Mass is still lifted through the time of this pandemic, especially for those over the age of 60, the immunocompromised, or caretakers of vulnerable individuals. Please join us via live-stream at our parish website or on Facebook.

Adoration for Life

Sunday, March 28
12:45-5 PM in the Chapel

Our monthly Adoration for Life falls on Palm Sunday this year. As we enter the solemn week commemorating the events of our salvation, join us in prayer for the protection of the unborn. Our Lord suffered and died for each one of us, and every life is valued and precious in His sight.

For Those with Gluten Sensitivity: Receiving the Holy Eucharist

If you or a family member suffer from a sensitivity to gluten, options are available for you to receive the Holy Eucharist under the species of bread. Low gluten-hosts are available by request; please check in with a sacristan or usher before Mass for assistance.

"From the Organ Bench:" A Musical Journey through the Sacred Paschal Triduum

By Dr. Katie Schmitz

The Sacred Paschal Triduum refers to the three days leading up to Easter Sunday: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. For each day, there is a prescribed liturgy that continues from one to the next, culminating in the Easter Vigil. On Holy Thursday we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper and commemorate the Institution of the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper. Mass ends with a Eucharistic Procession and all are invited to adore our Lord; there is no dismissal from the Mass as the liturgy is continued on Good Friday. This year, due to COVID restrictions, we will not have a formal procession outside the church; rather, the Eucharist will be transferred to an altar of repose inside the church for us to adore.

To the transfer of the Blessed Sacrament the Church assigns the Eucharistic hymn Pange lingua written by Saint Thomas Aquinas. In this hymn, we sing of Christ's glorious Body and recall the night of the Last Supper in which bread and wine become His true Body and Blood. The last two stanzas of the hymn comprise the Tantum ergo, which is sung before every Benediction, at the end of Adoration. In these last verses, we offer praise to the Holy Sacrament, God the Father, and His Begotten Son. We also ask that Faith will supplement our defective senses, that faith will provide for what we cannot see in the transubstantiation of bread and wine: praestet fides supplementum sensuum defectui.

On Good Friday, we commemorate the Passion of the Lord; it is simply a liturgy, not a Mass, because the Eucharist is not consecrated on Good Friday. Extra hosts that were consecrated on Holy Thursday or before are reserved to distribute Communion on Good Friday. The second part of the Good Friday liturgy begins with the Adoration of the Holy Cross. In normal years, all would come up to venerate, or kiss, the cross. This year, the diocese has instructed us to come forward and bow to the cross as a sign of reverence in place of a kiss.

One of my favorite texts of the liturgical year is assigned in the Roman Missal to this moment: The Reproaches. The text is told from the point of view of Christ and reflects on several key moments in salvation history juxtaposed with the Crucifixion. What is so striking in the text is the very intimate way we become associated with Christ's Crucifixion. It begins: "My people, what I have done to you? Or how have I grieved you? Answer me!" This personal nature of the text reminds us how Christ suffered and died for our own personal sins. The choir will be singing a polyphonic setting of the Reproaches by the Renaissance composer Tomás Luis de Victoria. The full text can be found in the liturgy guide for Good Friday. I encourage all to meditate and reflect on this text during the Adoration of the Cross.

The Roman Missal says that on Holy Saturday "the Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting...awaiting his Resurrection." Finally in the evening we celebrate the Easter Vigil! One of the first things to be sung is the Easter Proclamation, or Exultet. In this proclamation, the priest exults Christ's triumph over death specifically on this night. All are invited to follow along with this glorious text in the liturgy guide.

In the Liturgy of the Word for the Vigil, there are seven Old Testament readings each followed by a Responsorial Psalm and a Prayer. After the seventh prayer, the Gloria is sung once again! While the return of the Gloria is certainly triumphant, we also sing the Gloria at various times in Lent such as on the Feast of St. Joseph and Mass on Holy Thursday. The text we really have been waiting for all through Lent is "Alleluia!" The "Alleluia" returns in a special format at the Easter Vigil. After the Epistle is read, the priest "intones the Alleluia three times, raising his voice by a step each time, with all repeating it." (Roman Missal, p. 368). Then, as if six times were not enough, Psalm 118 is sung in three verses with all responding "Alleluia!" What a wonderful way to celebrate Christ's victory in the liturgy!

Will you be joining us for Easter Mass?

Good Friday is a Day of Fasting and Abstinence

On Good Friday, Catholics are obliged to:

1. Abstain from meat
If you are 14 and older and in good health

2. Fast
If you are age 18-59 and in good health; On a day of fasting you may eat one full meal and two smaller meals that together do not equal a full meal.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land

Good Friday, April 2

Each year on Good Friday we have an opportunity to stand in solidarity with our Christian brethren in the Holy Land by making a donation to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection. This collection provides many types of support in the region such as humanitarian, pastoral, liturgical, charitable and archaeological.

In 2020 the Diocese of Fort Worth collected more than $90,000 for the Pontifical Good Friday Collection. These vital funds were joined with others from around the world to support parishes, homes for orphans and academic institutions. It aided the formation of more than 120 men preparing to be priests or brothers, created 1,500 jobs for Christians and preserved 54 shrines connected with the life of Jesus and the prophets. Your support this year will continue the good work of preserving the past and shaping the future in the Holy Land.

Please give generously this Good Friday, either in person or online at stphilipcc.weshareonline.org

A Rosary Made for Our Parish

Order by Easter 2021 to receive in time for the opening of our church!

As we look forward to the approaching day when our new church opens, a custom Rosary has been commissioned for this historic occasion, designed and crafted in Italy by Ghirelli Rosaries. The Rosary has been designed around several images and devotions with special significance; the beautiful facade of our new church is the central medal, and the new crucifix being carved for our sanctuary is also represented. The Rosary is now available to pre-order online.

Scan this QR code or go to stphilipcc.org/rosary to pre-order.

Consecration to St. Joseph

Our parish will begin the 33-day Consecration to St. Joseph on April 11, using Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father by Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC. We will conclude with the special consecration on May 13, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima.

What does Consecration to St. Joseph mean?
It means that "you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely to his paternal care so that he can lovingly help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God." (Fr. Donald Calloway, Consecration to St. Joseph)

Parishioners may do the Consecration as an individual, a couple, in their existing small community of faith, or a discipleship group.

In addition, the parish will offer three group discussion sessions, including one online option, which will all take place on Wednesday, a day traditionally set aside to honor St. Joseph.

"Devotion to St. Joseph is one of the choicest graces that God can give to a soul, for it is tantamount to revealing the entire treasury of our Lord's graces. When God wishes to raise a soul to greater heights, he unites it to St. Joseph by giving it a strong love for the good saint."

– St. Peter Julian Eymard

Glorious St. Joseph

Several years ago, a Priest was giving a retreat and spoke lovingly about St. Joseph with such tenderness and affection, always referring to him as "Glorious St. Joseph." This Priest was a graceful example of a soul united to St. Joseph who had a "strong love for the good saint," as St. Peter Julian Eymard wrote. The Priest's words evoked a wonderful image of St. Joseph, a quiet and strong man dressed in brown and green garbs with a kind face and gentle smile, gazing lovingly upon his foster Son, Jesus. The man who raised Jesus, protected, and taught him, makes us wonder what daily life was like with Jesus and Mary from Joseph's perspective. Take time to consider life with Jesus through the eyes of St. Joseph. Pray and ask for the grace to love Glorious St. Joseph. Watch how love for him grows in your heart and soul each time you recite the Litany of St. Joseph. Devotion to St. Joseph grows in a person's heart so seemingly small, gentle and silently.
