Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Attending Mass at St. Philip's

Following the requirements of civil and diocesan authorities, we are observing special safety precautions for Masses and events at this time. We continue to offer live-streaming for those who still need to remain at home.

Church Capacity Limitations

At this time, we are permitted to have a congregation of 50% of the seating capacity in our buildings.

Required Precautions

- Wear a face mask or scarf that covers your nose and mouth
- Sanitize hands on entering the buildings (if possible, please bring a personal bottle)
- Maintain distance between yourself and others (please allow ushers to direct you to a seat in the church)

Nursery services are not available at this time.

Am I Obliged to Attend Mass?

The obligation to physically attend Mass is still lifted through the time of this pandemic, especially for those over the age of 60, the immunocompromised, or caretakers of vulnerable individuals. Please join us via live-stream at our parish website or on Facebook.

Patronal Feast of St. Philip

Monday, May 3
Mass at 7 PM

Celebrate the feast of our parish patron, St. Philip the Apostle, with a special evening Mass in his honor. As we recall the past year and its challenges, we also give thanks to St. Philip for his care and intercession for our parish.

Please note: there will be no 9 AM Daily Mass on Monday, May 3.

Pray the Rosary with Our Parish Online

The Holy Rosary is live-streamed 30 minutes before each of our scheduled online Masses at stphilipcc.org/mass

The Rosary is not broadcasted on our Facebook page at this time.

Calling All Prayer Warriors

During this time of uncertainty, let us join together in prayer for one another. In addition to the weekly prayer list published in the bulletin, St. Philip's offers two initiatives for prayer intentions:

Powerhouse Prayer
Receive a monthly list of prayer intentions via email from our parish. Email denisek@stphilipcc.org to sign up for this mission of prayer.

People of Prayer
Join a group of prayer warriors who receive individual intentions for prayer. Contact denisek@stphilipcc.org to be added to this list.

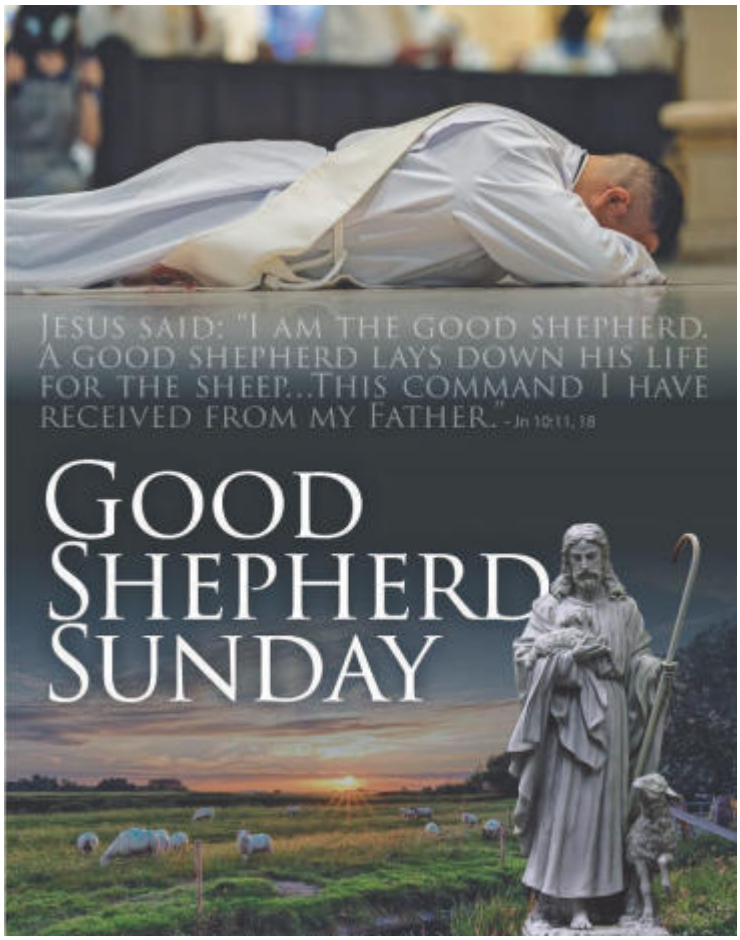
Our monthly Adoration for Life will be next Sunday!
Join us in praying for the dignity of every human life to be upheld and protected.

Craft Night: Women of St. Philip

Monday, April 26
7 PM in the CLC
The Women of St. Philip invite all women 18 and older to attend our April "Craft Night". We'll be assembling special "Welcome Spring!" gifts to deliver to our homebound parishioners in local assisted living facilities. Also, the Nominating Committee will present the proposed slate of officers for the upcoming 2021-2022 year. We extend a warm welcome to everyone: regular attendees, interested first-timers, and especially new members. Please join us as we share light refreshments and knit friendships! Please also remember that face masks and distancing are still required at meetings, as well as the use of sanitizer. For more information, contact Gerry Jackson at Gerry.d.jackson@gmail.com or Anita Thomas at athomas81948@gmail.com.



Good Shepherd Sunday Collection for Seminarian Formation Fund

Weekend of April 24/25
On the Fourth Sunday of Easter, Good Shepherd Sunday, in the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep."

The Diocese of Fort Worth is blessed to have 29 seminarians in various stages of the thorough discernment and formation journey. In imitation of Jesus Christ, they will lay down their lives for their sheep. For these men, the Diocese of Fort Worth is committed to paying for all of the costs associated with their formation and education. In this way, they can commit to prayer and formation during their time in seminary, a period which can span seven and nine years and cost $50,000 annually for each of the men.

Please be generous to the special collection for our Diocesan Seminarian Education Fund on April 24-25, either in person or online at bit.ly/DioceseSpecialCollections

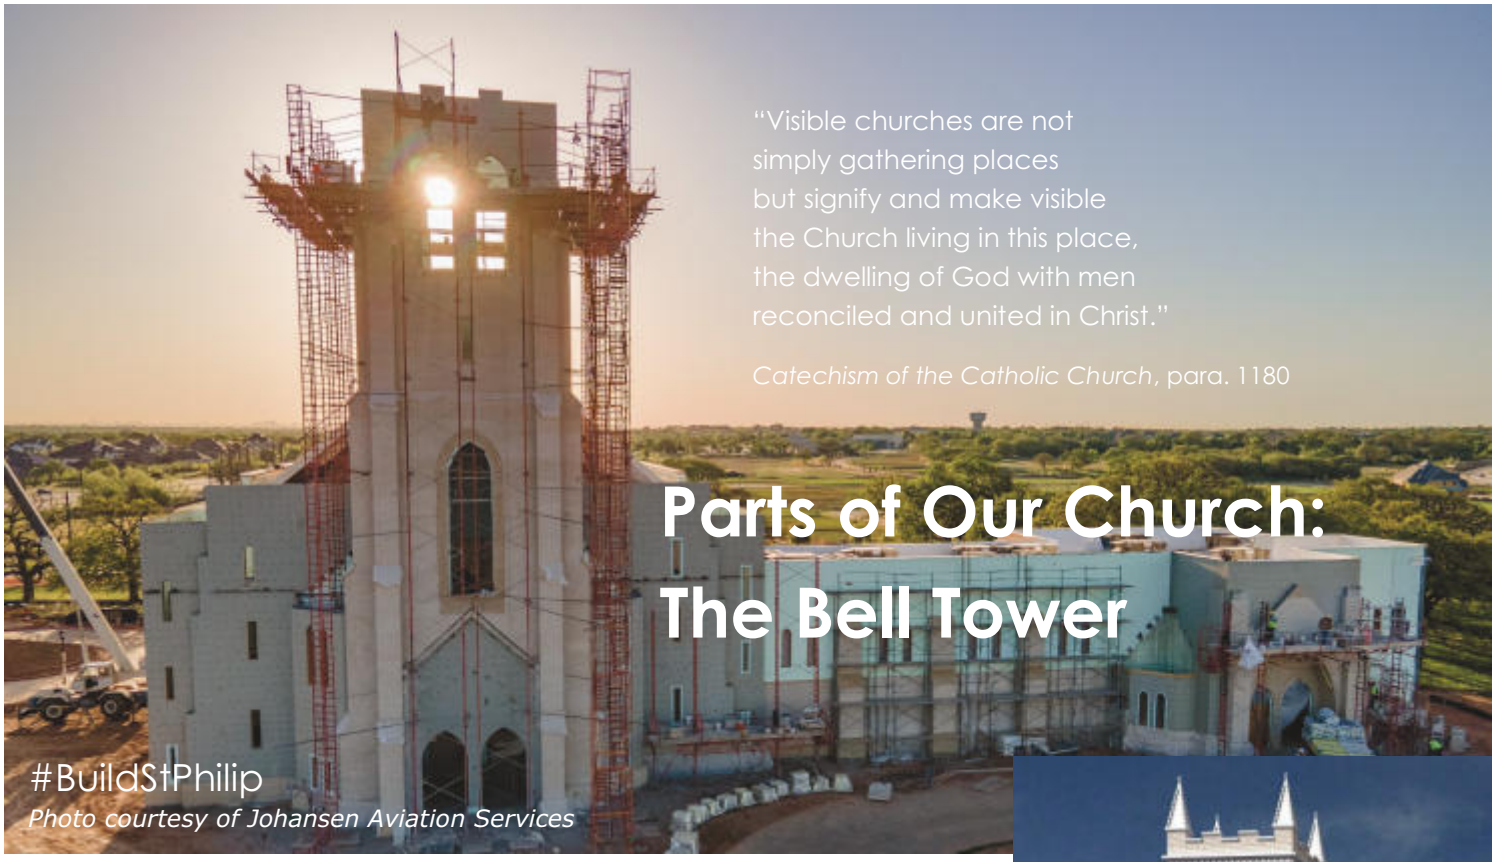
Safe Environment Program

The Virtus Safe Environment training sessions are offered as Zoom meetings online OR a live class format, in keeping with health & safety protocols required by the Diocese.

Protecting God's Children for Adults sessions are for NEW volunteers/employees.

Keeping the Promise Alive for Adults sessions are for employees and volunteers who took the above VIRTUS class two years ago. Renewal notices are sent from VIRTUS and St Philip, with the registrations instructions.

Contact Carolyn Ditsworth for assistance at carolynd@stphilipcc.org or 214-222-6701.



"Visible churches are not simply gathering places but signify and make visible the Church living in this place, the dwelling of God with men reconciled and united in Christ."

Parts of Our Church: The Bell Tower

#BuildStPhilip

The most prominent exterior feature of our new church is its tower, a square gothic structure which will rise to almost 120 feet when completed. Along with the nave and sanctuary, the bell tower has its own role as an important component of our church, that goes beyond the rooms it contains.

Though the exterior fabric of a church can have many expressions, bell towers and steeples are often the key features that identify a building devoted to sacred use. One reason is that towers have been an integral part of church architecture for over a thousand years. High places have also been associated with heavenly purposes for the whole of human history (think of Moses going up Mount Sinai to converse with God). The tower points to heaven and to heavenly realities in this very basic way. Its beauty and monumental appearance are also signals that this building is dedicated to something that is more exalted than the day-to-day functions of life that take place in our homes, schools, or businesses: the Mass, the perfect sacrifice, where Christ makes Himself truly present. Because of this, our bell tower is itself an evangelist by reminding the surrounding community of the presence of God in our midst. Like our patron St. Philip, it invites the world to "come and see." It announces the Gospel even before we pass through the church doors.

Our parish gave special consideration to this fact as construction progressed. The four corners of the tower have been dedicated to the four Evangelists or Gospel writers: Sts. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Their names are inscribed on the four columns supporting the tower.

In a future phase, the tower will house bells in its top level, which will announce the Gospel in an audible way. The sweet sound of bells will one day call worshipers to Mass and celebrate the feasts of our Faith with joyful solemnity.

Fr. McDaniel writes the name of St. Mark (feast day April 25) on the southwest corner of the bell tower

Prayer for the Week

May the Most Blessed Sacrament be forever praised and adored.

"There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us."

Saint John Vianney

God's Great Goodness and Love is Shown to Man in This Sacrament

"Rejoice, my soul, and give thanks to God for having left you so noble a gift and so special a consolation in this valley of tears. As often as you renew this Mystery and receive the Body of Christ, so often do you enact the work of redemption and become a sharer in all the merits of Christ, for the love of Christ never grows less and the wealth of His mercy is never exhausted. Therefore, you should prepare yourself for it by constantly renewing your heart and pondering deeply the great mystery of salvation. As often as you celebrate or hear Mass, it should seem as great, as new, as sweet to you as if on that very day Christ became man in the womb of the Virgin, or, hanging on the Cross, suffered and died for the salvation of man"

Thomas à Kempis, The Imitation of Christ

The Communicant Should Prepare Himself for Christ with Great Care

"Receive the Body of the Lord, your beloved God Who deigns to come to you, not out of habit or necessity, but with fear, with reverence, and with love. I am He that called you. I ordered it done. I will supply what you lack. Come and receive Me….You have need of Me. I do not need you. You do not come to sanctify Me but I come to sanctify you and make you better. You come to be sanctified and united with Me, to receive new grace and to be aroused anew to amend. Do not neglect this grace, but prepare your heart with all care, and bring into it your Beloved. Not only should you prepare devoutly before Communion, but you should also carefully keep yourself in devotion after receiving the Sacrament. The careful custody of yourself afterward is no less necessary than the devout preparation before, for a careful afterwatch is the best preparation for obtaining greater grace."

Thomas à Kempis, The Imitation of Christ
