Holy Love, Holy Families

Dearest Pietro, I hope you don't mind if I begin this letter by calling you by your first name and using such familiar language. After sharing our thoughts so openly yesterday, I think we can assume this level of intimacy, which will help us to understand and to love each other more and more. I really want to make you happy and be what you desire: good, understanding, and ready for the sacrifices that life will require of us. I haven't told you yet that I have always been very sensitive and eager for affection. While I had my parents, their love was enough for me. Then, although remaining very united to the Lord and working for him, I felt the need for a mother and I found her in the dear nun whom I told you about yesterday. Now there is you whom I already love and to whom I intend to give myself to form a truly Christian family. Ciao, dear Pietro. Pardon my familiarity, but that's how I am. Arrivederci. With affection, Gianna.

My dearest Gianna, I've read your letter over and over and kissed it. A new life is beginning for me: the life of your great (and greatly desired) affection and of your radiant goodness. We are starting the journey of our love. I love you, my dearest Gianna. I could not have received a greater or more ardently desired grace from our heavenly Mother, Our Lady of Good Counsel, as she is invoked in my little church in Ponte Nuovo. I so wanted and needed love and a family of my own. Now I have you, your love and affection, and I am happy. My love is yours, and I want to raise a family with you. I too want to make you happy and understand you well. Forgive me for not beginning a closer confidence sooner than I did. Thank you for your help and trust. With all my love, Pietro

Saint Gianna Beretta and Pietro Molla

Saint Gianna († 1962) was an Italian medical doctor who died at the age of thirty-nine after refusing a procedure that would have taken the life of her child in utero. Pietro, an engineer, died in 2010. The above text is an exchange of letters shortly after their engagement. Their fourth and last child, Gianna Emanuela, is an internationally known speaker. / From The Journey of Our Love: The Letters of Saint Gianna Beretta and Pietro Molla. The word "synod" comes from Greek and means "an assembly." There have been quite a few synods in the Catholic Church over the centuries, each with a particular theme. The Synod for a Synodal Church is assembling the entire Church, at the invitation of our Holy Father, to take up the question of what it means to be Church.

We are looking for volunteers to join the Parish Synod Team.
If you are interested, please call the parish office at 505-771-8331.
