Approaching the Unapproachable One

"In my mercy, I was overcome by my compassion and came to my creature, stretching out my hands to embrace you. So do not be ashamed in front of me; for your sake, naked as you are, I am stripped naked and baptized. Already the Jordan opens for me, and John prepares my ways in the waters and in minds." The Savior spoke thus to humankind, not in words but in deeds, and came, as he said, drawing near to the river on foot and to the Forerunner as the unapproachable Light.

When John saw the river in the desert and Christ in the Jordan, he was troubled by fear, as his father had trembled at Gabriel (Lk 1:12), for at that moment something happened, greater than any moment; for at that moment the Master of the angels had come to a slave wishing to be baptized.... "I am not asking, Baptist, that you overstep your bounds. Simply baptize me in silence and expectation of what will follow the baptism. Because in this way you will gain a dignity which does not belong to angels, for I will also make you greater than all the prophets. Not one of them saw me clearly, but only in types and shadows and dreams. But as he stands before you by his own will, you see, you grasp the unapproachable Light."...

Heaven rejoice and earth be glad, springs of water be hallowed, for by appearing he has filled all things with blessing, he enlightens all mankind, the unapproachable Light.

At the divine command, Zechariah's offspring raises his mind on high, and stretching out his palm places it on the King, washes in the streams, then leads back to land the Lord of land and sky, whom the One who cried this is my beloved Son pointed out from heaven by a voice. To the Father himself then and to the Son who was baptized and to his Spirit I cry, "Crush those who afflict my soul; end my errors, my Redeemer, the Saint Romanos the Melodist

Saint Romanos the Melodist († c. 565) was a deacon in Constantinople who composed several chanted sermons. / From On the Life of Christ, Archimandrite Ephrem Lash, Tr. © 1995, Yale University Press. Published by HarperCollins Publishers, New York, NY.

The word "synod" comes from Greek and means "an assembly." There have been quite a few synods in the Catholic Church over the centuries, each with a particular theme. The Synod for a Synodal Church is assembling the entire Church, at the invitation of our Holy Father, to take up the question of what it means to be Church.

We are looking for volunteers to join the Parish Synod Team.
If you are interested, please call the parish office at 505-771-8331.
