"He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up"

The hidden years at Nazareth remind us that God has in view always our needs and our trials. Christ came on earth to save us. His was the tremendous task of converting a hard-hearted world to a way of life that would upset all man's notions of self-indulgent living. Yet, with this great work to be fulfilled, he spent but three years in public life. The first thirty years were passed in a town so small and so thoroughly unimportant that people were to say to him, doubtingly, can anything good come out of Nazareth? Probably this was in the decrees of God because so many of us live what the world considers very unimportant lives. Armies do not march at our command; people do not go halfway around the world to see us; history will have nothing to say of us. No one, in fact, pays very much attention to us. If we take for ourselves no other models than those who are world-famous, this will hurt us a great deal and result in a lifetime of striving to be somebody. But if we follow the model of a Redeemer who for thirty years lived in obscurity, it should not distress us to be ignored. There are very few people of worldly importance; far in the majority are the multitudes of ordinary people whose path to heaven is unexciting and unromantic. How very kind of God to show us by his long, hidden life that his plan of redemption includes everyone, even those whose lives are so unremarkable that the world does not notice at all!

To Mary the hidden life brought its peculiar joys and sorrows: the joy of being always with Jesus, the sorrow of knowing that this beautiful Child must grow to be the Man of Sorrows. He began to teach there, in the obscurity of Nazareth. The proud, and those who are concerned with social position, would be uncomfortable in the poor home of a village carpenter. But the poor in spirit, whom our Lord was to call blessed in his Sermon on the Mount, are never embarrassed to be found suppliant at the feet of the Holy Family. Christ preached many times against wealth, because it so often blinds men's hearts to the important things of God. The Scriptures are filled with references to God's care of his creatures and the futility of our worrying about worldly goods. In Psalm 40:18 is sweetly stated, the Lord is careful for me. The idea is even more developed in Psalm 91: He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty... he will conceal you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge. Loving confidence in God is the keynote of these and many other Psalm verses: they breathe the spirit of the Holy Family

The word "synod" comes from Greek and means "an assembly." There have been quite a few synods in the Catholic Church over the centuries, each with a particular theme. The Synod for a Synodal Church is assembling the entire Church, at the invitation of our Holy Father, to take up the question of what it means to be Church.

We are looking for volunteers to join the Parish Synod Team.
If you are interested, please call the parish office at 505-771-8331.

Adoration is Every Friday 9AM - 1PM IN THE CHURCH.

All are invited to visit our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament,
Even if only for a few minutes.

If you would like to commit to one hour with Our Lord, please sign up with the office at 505-771-8331.
