Seeking to Make Each Soul His "Native Place"

The Gospel tells us that his very own did not believe in him. Every single one of us belongs to Jesus. We are his. With regard to each one of us, Jesus felt our personal struggle in his heart: that of the love which urged him on toward us and that of our sins, which caused him to suffer.

How did Jesus begin his apostolate? He began it by leaving Mary behind. What a tremendous farewell! He had to tear himself from the sum and substance of his love because his hour had come—the hour for him to sacrifice himself and save us. He was going to cast himself into the sea of persecution and hatred—a road of suffering—knowing that it would end in his being nailed to the cross, his infinite tenderness not having been understood.

To show us how we should prepare for our own apostolate, Jesus began with a humbling experience that moved heaven itself. He went to the Jordan River to be baptized as though he were a sinner: he who was innocence without blemish—the Incarnate Word—the God-Man! He fasted for forty days in the desert and began his apostolic life like this, with humility and penance, giving us an example to be imitated.

Jesus diffuses love because he is Infinite Goodness: if we love him, we can't keep it stored away in the inner recesses of our soul. Wonder of wonders! The more we give of Jesus, the more we actually possess him. It is enough to know him and love him in order to give him. Divinity is fullness—and all fullness overflows. Just as God by giving himself not only makes his creatures happy but at the same time glorifies himself, when the soul of the apostle gives Jesus to others he makes souls happy and he is giving Jesus souls who will glorify him.

We draw near to souls through the written word, through advice, through serving one another, and through teachings. If we have a true love for souls, Jesus will put us in contact with them. Then our duty is to never refuse any sacrifice, either of body or soul, no matter what it might cost us. Are we suffering? Happy the trial that achieves grace! We should accept with a smile those circumstances that evoke sacrifice. Should we not reproduce the mystery of Christ in his apostolate? Goodness is the vengeance of great souls. Let us go forward, for faith and love shall overcome all failings and acts of ingratitude.

The word "synod" comes from Greek and means "an assembly." There have been quite a few synods in the Catholic Church over the centuries, each with a particular theme. The Synod for a Synodal Church is assembling the entire Church, at the invitation of our Holy Father, to take up the question of what it means to be Church.

We are looking for volunteers to join the Parish Synod Team.
If you are interested, please call the parish office at 505-771-8331.
