Fr. Joseph A. Sebastian SVD, Pastor

From the Pastor's desk – January 9, 2022.

Neither John nor Jesus invented baptism. It had been practiced for centuries among the Jews as a ritual equivalent to our Confession. Until the fall of the Temple in 70 AD, it was common for Jewish people to use a special pool called a Mikveh -- literally a "collection of water" -- as a means of spiritual cleansing, to remove spiritual impurity and sin. Men took this bath weekly on the eve of the Sabbath; women, monthly. Converts were also expected to take this bath before entering Judaism. The Orthodox Jews still retain the rite. John preached that such a bath was a necessary preparation for the cataclysm that would be wrought by the coming Messiah. Jesus transformed this continuing ritual into the one single, definitive act by which we begin our life of Faith. In effect, He fused His Divine Essence with the water and the ceremony.

When leprosy broke out among the people of the Hawaiian Islands in the middle of the 19th century, the government authorities responded by establishing a leper colony on the remote island of Molokai. The victims were snatched by force from their families and sent to this island to perish. However, moved by their terrible plight, a young Belgian priest, Damien De Veuster, asked permission from his superiors to minister to them. Straightaway he realized that there was only one effective way to do this, and that was to go and live among them. Having got permission, he went to Molokai. At first, he tried to minister to the lepers while maintaining a certain distance. But he soon realized that he had to live among them in order to gain their trust. As a result, he contracted leprosy himself. The reaction of the lepers was immediate and wholehearted. They embraced him and took him to their hearts. He was now one of them. There was no need, no point anymore, in keeping his distance. The lepers had someone who could talk with authority about leprosy, about brokenness, about rejection and public shame. Today's Gospel tells us how, by receiving the baptism of repentance, Jesus became identified with the sinners whom he had come to save (Flor McCarthy in Sunday and Holy Day Liturgies).

There is an old Hindu parable about a tiger cub raised by goats. The cub learned to bleat and nibble grass and behave like a goat. One night a tiger attacked the goats, which scattered for safety. But the tiger cub kept grazing and crying like a goat without getting frightened. The old tiger roared, "What are you doing here, living with these cowardly goats?" He grabbed the cub by the scruff, dragged him to a pond and said: "Look how our faces are reflected in water! Now you know who you are and whose you are." The tiger took the cub home, taught him how to catch animals, eat their meat, roar and act like a tiger. The tiger cub thus discovered his true self. Today's Gospel seems to suggest that Jesus received from Heaven a fresh flash of realization of Who, and Whose, He really was (His identity), and of what He was supposed to do (His mission), on the day of his baptism in the river Jordan.

Johnny's Mother looked out the window and noticed him "playing Church" with their cat. He had the cat sitting quietly and he was preaching to it. She smiled and went about her work. A while later she heard loud meowing and hissing and ran back to the open window to see Johnny baptizing the cat in a tub of water. She called out, "Johnny, stop that! The cat is afraid of water!" Johnny looked up at her and said, "He should have thought about that before he joined my church."

Too many people come to Church three times primarily. They're baptized, they get married, and they have their funeral service at the Church. The first time they throw water on you, the second time rice, the third time dirt!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”
— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Parish Registration Question: Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Answer:
Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled. Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Carta de Nuestro Pastor

Del Escritorio de Nuestro Pastor—9 de Enero del 2021.

Fr. Joseph A. Sebastian
SVD, Pastor

Ni Juan ni Jesús inventaron el bautismo. Se había practicado durante siglos entre los judíos como un ritual equivalente a nuestra Confesión. Hasta la caída del Templo en el año 70 d.C., era común que los judíos usaran una piscina especial llamada Mikveh, literalmente una "colección de agua", como un medio de limpieza espiritual, para eliminar la impureza espiritual y el pecado. Los hombres tomaban este baño semanalmente en la víspera del sábado; las mujeres mensualmente. También se esperaba que los conversos tomaran este baño antes de ingresar al judaísmo. Los judíos ortodoxos aún conservan el rito. Juan predicó que ese baño era una preparación necesaria para el cataclismo que produciría la venida del Mesías. Jesús transformó este ritual continuo en el acto único y definitivo mediante el cual comenzamos nuestra vida de fe. En efecto, fusionó Su Divina Esencia con el agua y la ceremonia.

Cuando la lepra estalló entre la gente de las islas hawaianas a mediados del siglo XIX, las autoridades gubernamentales respondieron estableciendo una colonia de leprosos en la remota isla de Molokai. Las víctimas fueron arrebatadas por la fuerza a sus familias y enviadas a esta isla para morir. Sin embargo, movido por su terrible situación, un joven sacerdote belga, Damien De Veuster, pidió permiso a sus superiores para atenderlos. De inmediato se dio cuenta de que solo había una forma eficaz de hacer esto, y era ir a vivir entre ellos. Habiendo obtenido permiso, fue a Molokai. Al principio, trató de catequizar a los leprosos manteniendo cierta distancia. Pero pronto se dio cuenta de que tenía que vivir entre ellos para ganarse su confianza. Como resultado, él mismo contrajo lepra. La reacción de los leprosos fue inmediata y sincera. Lo abrazaron y lo llevaron al corazón. Ahora era uno de ellos. No había necesidad, ya no tenía sentido, mantener las distancias. Los leprosos tenían alguien que podía hablar con autoridad sobre la lepra, sobre el quebrantamiento, sobre el rechazo y la vergüenza pública. El evangelio de hoy nos cuenta cómo, al recibir el bautismo de arrepentimiento, Jesús se identificó con los pecadores a quienes había venido a salvar (Flor McCarthy en las liturgias dominicales y de los días santos).

Hay una vieja parábola hindú sobre un cachorro de tigre criado por cabras. El cachorro aprendió a balar y morder hierba y a comportarse como una cabra. Una noche, un tigre atacó a las cabras, que se dispersaron por seguridad. Pero el cachorro de tigre siguió pastando y llorando como una cabra sin asustarse. El viejo tigre rugió: "¿Qué haces aquí, viviendo con estas cabras cobardes?" Agarró al cachorro por el pescuezo, lo arrastró hasta un estanque y le dijo: "¡Mira cómo se reflejan nuestros rostros en el agua! Ahora ya sabes quién eres y de quién eres". El tigre se llevó al cachorro a casa, le enseñó a atrapar animales, comer su carne, rugir y actuar como un tigre. El cachorro de tigre descubrió así su verdadero yo. El evangelio de hoy parece sugerir que Jesús recibió del cielo un nuevo destello de comprensión de quién y de quién era realmente (su identidad), y de lo que se suponía que debía hacer (su misión), el día de su bautismo en el río Jordán.

La madre de Johnny miró por la ventana y lo vio "jugando a la iglesia" con su gato. Tenía al gato sentado en silencio y le estaba predicando. Ella sonrió y siguió con su trabajo. Un rato después escuchó fuertes maullidos y silbidos y corrió hacia la ventana abierta para ver a Johnny bautizando al gato en una tina de agua. Ella gritó: "¡Johnny, detén eso! ¡El gato le tiene miedo al agua!" Johnny la miró y dijo: "Debería haberlo pensado antes de unirse a mi iglesia".

Muchas personas vienen a la Iglesia principalmente tres veces. Se bautizan, se casan y tienen su funeral en la Iglesia. La primera vez que te arrojan agua, la segunda vez te arrojan arroz, la tercera vez te arrojan tierra.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

El Bautismo del Señor

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor se da por terminado el tiempo de Navidad. El Bautismo de Jesús es como una nueva epifanía, es decir, una nueva manifestación de Dios por medio de Jesús ahora en el Jordán. “El Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él y se manifestó exteriormente en forma de paloma, y del cielo vino una voz: Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida” (Lucas 3,22). La revelación del Padre se manifiesta proclamando a Jesús como su Hijo.

El Papa Francisco en una de sus catequesis lo muestra en tres puntos muy importantes para todos los que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo Jesús: “Jesús quiso recibir el bautismo predicado y administrado por Juan el Bautista en el Jordán. ¡Cuánta humildad tiene Jesús! Y al hacerlo, manifestó lo que hemos celebrado en Navidad: sumergirse en el río de la humanidad”. Jesús, va con todo a lo que refiere la cuestión humana, menos en el pecado. “El Evangelio subraya que Jesús, apenas salió del agua vio rasgarse los cielos y el Espíritu que bajaba hacia él como una paloma. El Espíritu Santo desciende en plenitud sobre Jesús para darle la fortaleza de cumplir su misión”. Por medio de nuestra vocación es que tenemos nuestra misión en la vida. ¿Cómo la estamos cumpliendo? “La fiesta del bautismo de Jesús invita a cada cristiano a recordar su bautismo”. ¿Sabes, o recuerdas la fecha de tu bautismo? Hay que preguntar sobre ese día y de cómo se celebró la fiesta de hacernos hijos e hijas de Dios. (Papa Francisco 1/7/2018).

¿Confías en tu conocimiento de la fe católica? ¿Desearías tener una manera fácil de compartir tu fe con su familia, amigos o compañeros de trabajo? Echa un vistazo a los folletos gratuitos disponibles en el estante en la parte posterior de la iglesia. Estos folletos cubren una amplia gama de temas y se agregan nuevos títulos cada mes, ¡Así que visite a menudo!
