29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” - Mk 10:43-45

“Pero no debe ser así entre ustedes. Al contrario: el que quiera ser grande entre ustedes, que sea su servidor, y el que quiera ser el primero, que sea el esclavo de todos, así como el Hijo del hombre, que no ha venido a que lo sirvan, sino a servir y a dar su vida por la redención de todos”. - Mc 10, 43-45

LET'S DO SOMETHING

A friend of mine, I'll call him John because that's his name, decided to leave the consulting firm where he and I worked years ago, and on the day before his departure, an executive of the firm did one of those wonderful "exit interviews" with him. The executive began by asking John the question, "What could we have done to keep you here longer?" After thinking about the question for a few seconds, John smiled and responded, "Anything."

Really. That's what he said, and it was brilliant.

I love telling that story because it's funny and true, and because it reminds me that when it comes to addressing a problem in an organization, one option will never work: nothing. As obvious as that sounds, it is often the default that leaders choose, mostly because taking action can feel risky and inertia can be such a powerful thing.

For pastors and their team members who have attended the Amazing Parish conference (and for those who watch our online training videos which are now available), there is usually an initial and overwhelming desire to improve. They come away from the experience with a list of actions or goals, and with every good intention of following through on them. But once they re-enter the parish and are faced with the realities of preparing for weekend Masses and doing all the other things they do on a regular basis, it becomes easy for them to postpone making changes until they have enough time to do it right.

That is true for leaders and teams in almost every organization, including mine, and it is as natural as it is dangerous. Why? Because people learn from action, even small action, much more than they do from waiting and analyzing. That is not to suggest that pastors should rush back to their parishes and start making random changes carelessly just to make a point. But it is to suggest that one of the most important things that any group of leaders must do to gain momentum is to achieve a victory or two, even if they are minor victories, just to prove to themselves that change is possible.

So, whether it's implementing a new regimen in the office around team prayer, or taking an initial step toward improving homilies or hospitality, or beginning an activity around evangelization, what is most important is that parish leaders do something. And stay with it.

What exactly that something is depends on the situation and the discernment of the parish leadership team. But one thing is certain: something is exponentially better than nothing. May God help all pastors and parish team members to have the courage and discipline to get started, and may He guide your parish to continue improving forever.

Lencioni, Pat. The Amazing Parish. Letters of Inspiration.

HAGAMOS ALGO

Un amigo mío, lo llamaré John porque ese es su nombre, decidió dejar la consultora donde él y yo trabajamos hace años, y el día antes de su partida, un ejecutivo de la firma hizo una de esas maravillosas “entrevistas de salida” con él. El ejecutivo comenzó preguntándole a John: “¿Qué podríamos haber hecho para retenerlo aquí por más tiempo?” Después de pensar en la pregunta durante unos segundos, John sonrió y respondió: “cualquier cosa”.

De verdad. Eso es lo que dijo, y fue brillante.

Me encanta contar esa historia porque es divertida y verdadera, y porque me recuerda que cuando se trata de abordar un problema en una organización, una opción nunca funcionará: nada. Por más obvio que parezca, a menudo es lo que los líderes eligen por defecto, principalmente porque tomar medidas puede parecer arriesgado y la inercia puede ser algo muy poderoso.

Para los pastores y los miembros de su equipo que han asistido a la conferencia Amazing Parish (y para aquellos que ven nuestros videos de capacitación en línea que ahora están disponibles), generalmente existe un deseo inicial y abrumador de mejorar. Parten de la experiencia con una lista de acciones u objetivos, y con la buena intención de cumplirlos. Pero una vez que vuelven a entrar a la parroquia y se enfrentan a la realidad de prepararse para las misas de fin de semana y hacer todas las demás cosas que hacen con regularidad, les resulta fácil posponer los cambios hasta que tengan tiempo suficiente para hacerlo bien.

Eso es cierto para los líderes y equipos de casi todas las organizaciones, incluida la mía, y es tan natural como peligroso. ¿Por qué? Porque la gente aprende de la acción, incluso de la acción pequeña, mucho más que de esperar y analizar. Eso no quiere decir que los pastores deban regresar corriendo a sus parroquias y comenzar a hacer cambios al azar descuidadamente solo para demostrar un punto. Pero es para sugerir que una de las cosas más importantes que debe hacer cualquier grupo de líderes para ganar impulso es lograr una victoria o dos, incluso si son victorias menores, solo para demostrarse a sí mismos que el cambio es posible.

Entonces, ya sea implementando un nuevo régimen en la oficina en torno a la oración en equipo, o dando un paso inicial para mejorar las homilias o la hospitalidad, o comenzando una actividad en torno a la evangelización, lo más importante es que los líderes parroquiales hagan algo. Y se queden con ello.

Qué es exactamente ese algo depende de la situación y el discernimiento del equipo de liderazgo parroquial. Pero una cosa es cierta: algo es exponencialmente mejor que nada. Que Dios ayude a todos los párrocos y miembros del equipo parroquial a tener el coraje y la disciplina para comenzar, y que Él guíe a su parroquia para que continúe mejorando para siempre.

Lencioni, Pat. The Amazing Parish. Cartas de inspiración.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE
SO MUCH MORE THAN A BIBLE STUDY

Come Back to Community This Fall at St. Pius X Studies starting October 12th!

Are you feeling discontent in your faith? Do you leave Sunday Mass wondering what any of it has to do with your day-to-day life?

If you are nodding your head, we have something just for you.

We invite you to join Walking with Purpose, a Bible study program that has transformed the hearts of countless women by introducing them to a personal relationship with Jesus through Scripture while connecting them to community.

This fall at St. Pius we are excited to offer Opening Your Heart, our foundational study that meets women exactly where they are. We will dig into topics like prayer, the role of the Holy Spirit, and what exactly is the point of suffering.

We will also offer a two part series: Beholding His Glory and Beholding Your King, two 9-lesson studies that show us how all Scripture points us to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. We'll learn to recognize and appreciate God's plan for our own lives, His awe-inspiring majesty, and His desire for personal intimacy with each one of us.

For more information, contact Beth Westley (westleybeth@gmail.com, (971) 404-1118) or Maggie Kerger (m.kerge@comcast.net (503) 407-7215) or visit the Walking with Purpose parish program webpage (stpius.org/s/walking-with-purpose) or www.walkingwithpurpose.com. Come and see how Scripture applies to your everyday life! We have an open chair waiting for you!

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

"...when I was sick, you visited me"
— MATTHEW 25:3

Are you or someone you know unable to attend Mass and receive Communion due to an illness, disability, or hardship? Our SPX Homebound Ministry supports parishioners unable to attend Mass by visiting and bringing Holy Communion to them. Homebound Ministers make weekly visits to private homes, care centers and other living accommodations in our SPX area. We invite you to contact the Parish Office (www.stpiusx.org) or (503) 644-5264 to arrange for a visit.

Are you interested in becoming a Homebound Minister? Volunteer ministers make one visit per week on a day of their choosing. We provide training and materials for volunteers prior to their first homebound visit. Our next Homebound Ministry meeting is Monday, November 1st at 9 am in the SPX Church Hall. We welcome you and invite you to attend and learn more about this wonderful ministry.
