Find Renewal Within

Word of Life for July 2021

“Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” (Mt 9:22)

Jesus is walking onwards and is surrounded by the crowds. A desperate father has begged him to come to the aid of his daughter who is dying. While he is on his way another encounter takes place. A woman who has been suffering from an issue of blood for many years makes her way through the people... She dares to touch the fringe of his garment... Her faith has attained salvation. Not only does she receive physical healing, but an encounter with God’s love through Jesus’ gaze.

This episode from Matthew’s Gospel opens an unexpected perspective for us too. God is always on his way toward us, but he also awaits our initiative, so that we do not miss an appointment with him.

Our faith journey, although bumpy and marked by mistakes, fragility and disappointments, has immense value. God is the Lord of true life and wants to share this life with all of us, his sons and daughters. In his eyes, we are rich with a dignity that no circumstance can suppress. For this reason, today Jesus says to us too:

“Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” (Mt 9:22)

Letizia Magri from the commentary on the Word of Life

The complete commentary can be found at <https://livingcitymagazine.com/content/wordoflife> or <https://www.focolare.org/en/>

Each month the Focolare chooses a Scripture passage as a guide and inspiration for daily living. The commentary on it was originally written by founder, Chiara Lubich (1920–2008). Today this Word of Life, written by an international commission and translated into 96 different languages, reaches several million people worldwide.
