A Christmas gift from STFOA to you!

We would like to give you a small Christmas gift for all your efforts, collaboration, unconditional support and, above all, your loyalty during this past year. To show our appreciation, we have a special gift for each family that will be available after all the Christmas masses in the Narthex. This year we have "Life is Messy" by Matthew Kelly! On behalf of our Pastor, Fr. Rudy Garcia, Priests, Deacons and all the staff we wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. We pray that each family allows Jesus into their hearts and may grow in faith and joy!

The Gift of Spiritual Direction

Spiritual direction is an ancient tradition of "holy listening", a form of hospitality in which the host (director) welcomes the guest (directee) with friendship for the spiritual journey. It is a process that explores God's grace and occurs on an ongoing, regular basis usually once a month. Grace - what God is up to in one's life - is like that mysterious impulse that gathers geese in a flock to begin heading south for the winter. There are several reasons why people want to commit to naming and claiming God's grace in their lives: to learn how to be attentive to God's grace; to deepen awareness of God's grace; to explore what obstructs our attention to God's grace; to find the grace offered in loss, grief, anger or fear; to make important decisions in the light of God's grace.

Historically Catholics have depended on clergy as spiritual directors. Many parishes/retreat centers have lay spiritual directors that have completed a minimum of three years of training. At Saint Francis of Assisi Frisco, we are fortunate to have five Spiritual Directors who are trained in Ignatian spiritual direction; they are approved by the diocese and our senior pastor.

Are you interested in learning more or do you know someone who might benefit from this ancient and holy experience?

Spiritual Direction Ministry co-sponsors Amy Yoste and Cathy Gonzalez PhD welcome all inquiries at sfoasministry@gmail.com. Bi-lingual Spanish directors are available.

¡Un regalo de Navidad de STFOA para usted!

Como ya es costumbre en nuestra Parroquia de San Francisco de Asís, obsequiarles un pequeño regalo de Navidad, por todos sus esfuerzos, colaboración, apoyo incondicional y, sobre todo, por su lealtad en este año 2021 tan convulsionado por la pandemia.

Para mostrar nuestro agradecimiento, tenemos un regalo especial para cada familia disponible en la mesa del Nártex. Este año contamos con un libro de Mathew Kelly, "La Vida es Complicada". En nombre de nuestro Pastor, P. Rudy García, sacerdotes, diáconos y todo el personal de nuestra querida parroquia de San Francisco, deseamos a todos una "Feliz Navidad y un Prospero Año Nuevo", orando para que cada familia nazca Jesús en sus corazones, pueda crecer en su fe y tener un encuentro más profundo con Cristo.

"Que Dios bendiga a sus familias y a nuestra querida comunidad de San Francisco de Asís".

El don de la dirección espiritual

La dirección espiritual es una antigua tradición de "escucha santa", una forma de hospitalidad en la que el anfitrión (director) recibe al invitado (dirigido) con amistad para el camino espiritual. Es un proceso que explora la gracia de Dios y ocurre de manera continua y regular, generalmente una vez al mes. La gracia, lo que Dios está haciendo en la vida de uno, es como ese misterioso impulso que reúne a los gansos en una bandada para comenzar a dirigirse hacia el sur para pasar el invierno. Hay varias razones por las que las personas quieren comprometerse a nombrar y pedir la gracia de Dios en sus vidas: aprender a estar atentos a la gracia de Dios; profundizar la conciencia de la gracia de Dios; explorar qué obstruye nuestra atención a la gracia de Dios; para encontrar la gracia ofrecida en la pérdida, el dolor, la ira o el miedo; para tomar decisiones importantes a la luz de la gracia de Dios.

Históricamente, los católicos han dependido del clero como directores espirituales. Muchas parroquias / centros de retiro tienen directores espirituales laicos que han completado un mínimo de tres años de capacitación. En San Francisco de Asís Frisco, tenemos la bendición de tener cinco Directores Espirituales formados en la dirección espiritual ignaciana; son aprobados por la diócesis y nuestro pastor principal.

¿Está interesado en aprender más o conoce a alguien que podría beneficiarse de esta antigua y santa experiencia? Los copatrocinadores del Ministerio de Dirección Espiritual Amy Yoste y Cathy Gonzalez PhD dan la bienvenida a todas las consultas en sfoasadministry@gmail.com. Hay directores bilingües en español disponibles.
