PRAYERS FOR PEACE UKRAINE

O Prince of Peace once more we hear the war, Once more we see the faces of frightened children. We pray for the people of Ukraine, That they may be granted peace: We pray for the people of Russia, That they may demand peace: We pray for our country, That we may be a positive part of peacemaking in this world. O Prince of Peace, Lead us from this dark time to a deeper understanding of the global human family, So all may break bread together in the secure embrace of peace. Amen

Our Lady of Belen Cemetery—Rules and Regulations

Our Lady of Belen Cemetery is considered sacred ground. And as such, we must do our part to preserve this sacredness and dignity. No type of permanent upright crosses or decorations more than 15 inches tall are allowed on the grass lawn at anytime. Decorations on the grave must be simple and not cluttered. If the family wishes to keep them, they must be removed before mowing days. All decoration on mowing day will be removed and disposed of. Candles are not allowed. They topple over and there is always the danger of a lit candle starting a fire on the dry grass. Melted wax can also ruin the memorial headstone. Candle jars can break and can pose a danger to people walking. No decoration or items of any value must be left on the graves. Such items are at risk for being damaged or stolen. Cemetery employees are not liable for items damaged or stolen. Seasonal decorations placed on graves must be removed immediately after the season is over: Such as Christmas, Valentine's, Easter. No alcoholic beverages or drug paraphernalia are allowed on the graves or any area of the cemetery. When attending a burial or visiting a loved one, please park on the designated parking areas and not on the roadway. Also, when a family pays for a burial plot, they are paying for the "RIGHT TO BE BURIED", not for burial plot ownership. It must be understood that is the responsibility of the family to provide a proper memorial headstone as soon as possible after their loved one's burial.

ALBUQUERQUE – Monday, May 2, 2022—IMMEDIATE RELEASE— The Archdiocese of Santa Fe Catholic Schools and the ACE Scholarship Foundation have made $500,000 in scholarships available for elementary and high school students throughout New Mexico. The deadline to apply is May 31, 2022. All scholarships are for non-public schools and are based solely on the family's income. "Interested parents and guardians should contact their non-public school to see if they have partnered with the ACE Scholarship Foundation," said Donna Illerbrun, Superintendent of Catholic Schools for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. "This is a great opportunity to choose a school that best fits their child's learning needs." All Catholic schools in the ASF are partnering with this scholarship program, and applications can be found on the FACTS Grant and Aid site. Visit the Catholic Schools' website to find a list of Catholic schools. "We at the Archdiocese of Santa Fe Catholic Schools are working hard to help all children in New Mexico receive the very best education they can. Our children are our future and they deserve better," said Illerbrun. Contact Donna Illerbrun for assistance at 505.831.8172. -

GOSPEL MEDIATION AND REFLECTION

5th Sunday of Easter

“It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God.” Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It’s no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God’s wisdom clearly takes us in another direction. Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, “a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships.” What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what’s important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before. This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it’s authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that’s why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

15º Domingo de Pascua

El Tiempo de la Pascua trata de hacer nuevas todas las cosas, de mirar la vida con ojos nuevos. Es decir, con la memoria siempre viva y activa en la mañana de la resurrección, con la esperanza de que Cristo está presente entre nosotros. No fue un fantasma el que resucitó, es Jesús vivo que pide que lo toquemos como él mismo pidió al apóstol santo Tomás. El sufrimiento es cosa del pasado. ¿Crees esto? En la segunda Lectura de la Liturgia de la Palabra, el libro del Apocalipsis nos lo presenta así: “Esta es la morada de Dios entre los hombres; el habitará en medio de ellos; ellos serán su pueblo y él será su Dios – con ellos; él enjugará las lágrimas de sus ojos. Ya no habrá muerte ni lamento, ni llanto ni pena, pues todo lo anterior ha pasado” (Apocalipsis 21:3-4). Pero, para que el sufrimiento pase, necesitamos el amor, la compasión, la empatía de los unos para con los otros. Nada se hace por magia, se debe de poner la entrega, el compromiso a la persona. “Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros. Ustedes deben amarse unos a otros como yo los he amado” (Juan 13:34-35). El Papa Francisco nos dice que “El amor es el único documento válido para ser reconocidos como discípulos de Jesús”. Ahora bien, al ya saber todo esto, ¿cuál será nuestra respuesta? ¿Nos quedaremos impávidos sin hacer nada ante el sufrimiento y la injusticia? O, por el contrario, ¿lucharemos contra viento y marea por hacer el bien? ¡De ti depende todo!

229th Our Lady of Belen Fiestas

“Lord Make me a Channel of your Peace” Fiesta Art Contest

The Our Lady of Belen Fiesta Committee would like to invite Students in Grades K through 8 to submit a drawing to Our Lady of Belen Parish office using the theme for this year’s fiesta.
