Second Collection Sunday, January 27, 2021

[Jesus] journeyed from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. Accompanying him were the Twelve...and many others who provided for them out of their resources. — Lk 8:1, 3

The Peter's Pence Collection is a significant way we all fulfill our obligation to support the ongoing activities of the Holy See and the Church's ministry of solidarity to the poor around the world. By participating in the Peter's Pence Collection, you join the Holy Father's efforts to show mercy to all in two ways: you support the ongoing activities of the Holy See, and you contribute to the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those who are most in need. Our Catholic tradition calls us to provide for the material needs of the Church, and the Peter's Pence Collection is one of the opportunities we have to do so.

The Second Collection box will be in the Narthex.

Inspiration for the week

"Do not be afraid, just have faith." God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in his image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace offered in love. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. Both love and faith can lead us to hope that no matter what we encounter, God will continue to sustain us in being. He will not allow us to perish. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. We are asked to arise and walk proudly with this life-giving faith. Reach out and share this faith with someone this week so that they too can receive God's life changing embrace and heed His call to wholeness. There are many in our world wandering around aimlessly without hope. Bring it to them.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it. (Wis 2:24)

Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30)

Second Reading:

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. (2 Cor 8:13-14)

Gospel:

He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koun," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" (Mk 5:41)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

REFLECT

First Reading:

We learn from the Jewish Wisdom writer that God did not create death; rather, death entered the world because of the envy of the devil. How does this insight shape your understanding of death?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the wealthier believers in Corinth to share their surplus wealth with those in need in the church in Jerusalem. What do you find interesting in Paul's appeal?

Gospel:

In these two separate miracle stories, Jesus heals Jairus' daughter and the hemorrhaging woman because of their faith in Jesus. How does your faith in Jesus bring about healing in your life?

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

O St. Anne,
you are my spiritual grandmother.

Please pray for me!

I come to you today
knowing that you know what it's like to wait on God to answer
your heart's greatest desires.

I come to you today
Asking that you will ask God
to grant my petition
the way that He granted yours.

I ask that you pray, St. Anne,
to ask Our Lord to have mercy and favor on me.

Please pray for our Mass Intentions.

But most of all,
please pray that I may be open to God's will
the way that you were,
and that I will be able to wait
with patience, perseverance in faith and hope,
and with absolute trust
in the Lord's plan for me.

Amen.

MAKE YOUR REQUESTS NOW!

In our Catholic Community we observe many types of years. We celebrate the Liturgical Year. We mark off days on the Calendar Year. We conclude our School Year. We conduct business according to the Fiscal Year. And sometimes, we survive a Pandemic Year, which throws all of the other years into pandemonium and tends to make life much more difficult. Thank God, we seem to be approaching the end of that year (and a half!).

As announced over the last few weeks, we are in the process of scheduling events on the Facilities Management Calendar in order to resume regular meetings and activities in September. Parish and School requests are entered according to the following hierarchy:

The good news is that when one year ends, a new one starts — a new beginning, if you will. This week we close out our Fiscal Year on June 30th. And so, we on the business end are of the mindset of new beginnings. Through all of our types of years, there is one constant—the merciful care of our Loving Father. He has sustained us, and our faith in Him helps us to look toward brighter days ahead. The challenges of our long road to recovery from the effects of the Pandemic are no match for the goodness He has in store for us.

- 1) Liturgical Functions
- 2) Religious Education/Youth Ministry Programs
- 3) Parish and School Social or Service Organizations—regularly scheduled meetings
- 4) Scheduled activities of above groups (dinners, dances, fundraising)

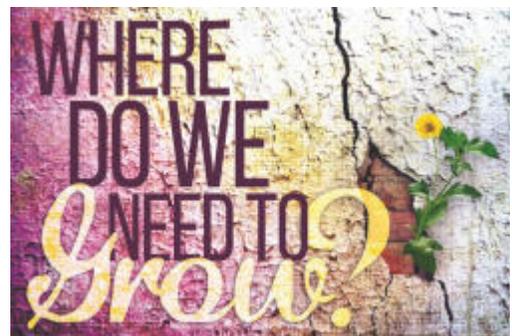

Certainly, it will take all of us working together with faith and trust, with a continued and increased spirit of service and sacrifice. From sacramental to social, there will be plenty of opportunity for all of us to help recover and rebuild our St. Anne Community. I will have to ask you to dig deep into your pockets, but even more importantly, deep into your hearts first and foremost. My brothers and sisters in Christ, that is, after all, what family members do for each other in times of trouble.

All ministries and groups should submit their Facility Use Request Forms, which can be found on our website, as soon as possible. Requests on the same tier will be entered according to when they are received.

In Mark’s Gospel this week, we hear two accounts of Jesus’ miraculous healing of those whose situations seemed hopeless, and yet they were delivered from their trials by clinging to simple faith and a determination to seek the help of Jesus. By this example, we can be emboldened by the power of God through His son Jesus and persevere through whatever challenges we face.

All requests are subject to approval by the Pastor.

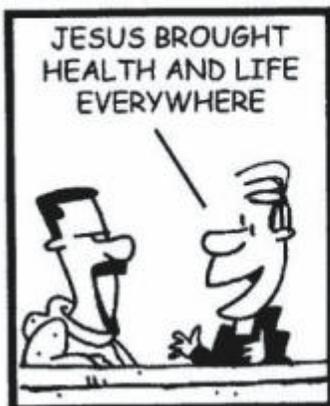

You won’t want to miss next week’s bulletin for information on some new beginnings and creative plans being made to realize the Goodness that God no doubt has in store for us. As His hands here on Earth, we all have a part to play. What will your role be? Please prayerfully consider how are you being called to contribute from your God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure.

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.” Mark 5:36

Let us put our faith into action!
