* Weekday Masses in English unless otherwise noted.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there... When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

This gospel passage has new meaning for me now that I have been to Cana in Galilee. I had the opportunity to see for myself a stone jar. The stone jars that the Lord uses to convert the water into wine are extremely heavy and enormous and they cannot be easily moved. The Jews considered stone purer than pottery; therefore, they were used for important sacred rituals such as Jewish ceremonial washings. That our Lord would use these jars makes perfect sense. That he would use them for a wedding at Cana makes even more sense.

Marriage is a natural institution. It is as natural to man as water is to the earth. It is a universal institution that has been respected at all times and everywhere. Marriage, like water, must be respected, protected, and never taken for granted. It is far too important an institution to be wasted or polluted.

The Lord and his disciples are invited to a wedding ceremony. We should not take this invitation lightly or superficially. If the Lord presents himself at a wedding, then it is for a reason. Marriage is an important natural institution. He takes water and turns it into wine. Now, the Lord takes this very natural institution (like water) and converts it into a sacred institution (like wine). He purifies marriage by filtering it. He tells his disciples that under no circumstances can a man divorce his wife.

It appears as though marriage, over the years, has been altered, polluted, and misused by man. Sound familiar? Don't we do that too? Don't we take what is holy, sacred, and good and throw it to the dogs and then call it "tolerance?" Marriage is under attack with the same ferociousness as the attack on the elderly, the unborn, and the family.

The Lord visits his friends, his neighbors, his enemies, and his people in their most intimate moments and He visits us in our sacred institutions, in our families, and in our Church. Let us not throw out this admirable, honorable, and Holy guest. Let us keep the Lord in our lives now and forever, for the Lord takes delight in his people! Amen.

- Father Alfonse

Hubo una boda en Caná de Galilea, y la madre de Jesús estaba allí... Cuando se acabó el vino, la madre de Jesús le dijo: “No tienen vino.” Jesús le respondió: “Mujer, ¿qué tiene que ver esto conmigo? Aún no ha llegado mi hora.” Su madre dijo a los sirvientes: “Hagan lo que él les diga.”

Este pasaje del Evangelio tiene un nuevo significado para mí ahora que he estado en Caná de Galilea. Tuve la oportunidad de ver por mí mismo un jarro de piedra. Los jarros de piedra que el Señor usó para convertir el agua en vino son extremadamente pesados y enormes, y no pueden moverse fácilmente. Los judíos consideraban la piedra más pura que la cerámica; por lo tanto, se usaban para rituales sagrados importantes, como las abluciones ceremoniales judías. Que nuestro Señor usara estos jarros tiene perfecto sentido. Que los usara para una boda en Caná tiene aún más sentido.

El matrimonio es una institución natural. Es tan natural para el hombre como el agua lo es para la tierra. Es una institución universal que ha sido respetada en todo tiempo y lugar. El matrimonio, como el agua, debe ser respetado, protegido y nunca dado por sentado. Es una institución demasiado importante para ser desperdiciada o contaminada.

El Señor y sus discípulos son invitados a una ceremonia de boda. No debemos tomar esta invitación a la ligera o superficialmente. Si el Señor se presenta en una boda, entonces es por una razón. El matrimonio es una institución natural importante. Él toma agua y la convierte en vino. Ahora, el Señor toma esta institución natural (como el agua) y la convierte en una institución sagrada (como el vino). Él purifica el matrimonio al filtrarlo. Les dice a sus discípulos que bajo ninguna circunstancia un hombre puede divorciarse de su esposa.

Parece que, con los años, el matrimonio ha sido alterado, contaminado y mal utilizado por el hombre. ¿Te suena familiar? ¿No hacemos eso también nosotros? ¿No tomamos lo que es santo, sagrado y bueno y lo arrojamos a los perros, y luego lo llamamos “tolerancia”? El matrimonio está siendo atacado con la misma ferocidad que el ataque a los ancianos, los no nacidos y la familia.

El Señor visita a sus amigos, a sus vecinos, a sus enemigos y a su pueblo en sus momentos más íntimos. Y nos visita en nuestras instituciones sagradas, en nuestras familias y en nuestra Iglesia. No desechemos a este admirable, honorable y Santo huésped. Mantengamos al Señor en nuestras vidas ahora y siempre, ¡porque el Señor se deleita en su pueblo! Amén. - Padre Alfonse

Bien aimés frères et sœurs,

Après les festivités du Temps de Noël, nous célébrons aujourd'hui le 2e Dimanche du Temps Ordinaire Année Liturgique C. Et l'Évangile de ce jour nous rapporte le premier miracle de Jésus, opéré à Cana de Galilée ; la transformation de l'eau en vin. Autour de ce miracle se greffe une série de leçons qui nous interpellent et nous invitent à plus de charité et de générosité. Le mariage est un évènement heureux, c'est un bonheur qui met à contribution non seulement les mariés eux-mêmes, les amis, que les deux familles. On dit en Afrique d'une fête qu'elle est réussie lorsque les gens ont suffisamment bu. La nourriture peut être peu, mais ce qui retient les gens à la fête jusqu'au matin, c'est la bonne musique et surtout le vin, tant que ça coule à flot, les invités seront là. Or, nous dit le texte, le vin manqua. Quel échec lamentable, quel fiasco si cela arrive surtout après deux heures du démarrage de la cérémonie. Et la première leçon de ce jour, c'est l'attention. Marie le remarque, elle est attentive aux détails de cette fête. Toi aussi, es-tu de celui ou de celle qui sait faire attention aux besoins des autres ? Ou alors es-tu du genre « je m'en fou ». Je ne m'occupe que de moi, un point c'est tout. Faire attention des autres, ce n'est pas s'occuper de leur vie du matin au soir en devenant leur espion ; ce n'est pas de ça qu'il s'agit. Ce dont il s'agit, c'est par exemple être ensemble et remarquer que tel ne se sent pas bien, qu'il semble avoir des soucis etc. Il nous arrive souvent d'observer quelque chose d'anormal chez les autres et de nous taire. Mais non ! Marie le constate et en parle, pour que la situation soit résolue et parce qu'elle ne le peut pas elle-même, elle se tourne vers son Fils et lui dit : « ils n'ont plus de vin ». Et c'est encore Marie qui nous donne la seconde leçon de ce dimanche ; le texte nous dit : sa mère dit à ceux qui servaient, « tout ce qu'il vous dira faites-le ». Si dernièrement au baptême du Christ la voix du Père depuis la nuée nous disait : « c'est mon Fils bien-aimé en qui j'ai mis toute ma joie, écoutez-le ». Aujourd'hui, c'est Marie qui nous montre vers qui nous devons nous tourner quand nous avons des soucis, elle nous indique que c'est vers Jésus-Christ que nous devons aller s'il nous manque quelque chose : es-tu à la recherche d'un emploi ? D'un enfant ? Veux-tu toi-aussi te marier ? Souhaites-tu voyager ? Que manque-t-il à ton bonheur pour que ta joie soit complète ? Un bébé ? Ton examen ? T'acheter une voiture ? Construire une maison ? Avoir une augmentation de salaire ou de grade au bureau ? Ce qui te manque c'est la présence de Dieu en toi ? Marie te montre que c'est lui Jésus-Christ qui est le Chemin, la Vérité et la Vie. C'est vers lui que tu dois aller pour implorer sa miséricorde. La troisième leçon de ce dimanche, c'est que chacun de nous à son rôle dans la vie et en fait personne ne fait ombre à l'autre. Selon le principe de subsidiarité, chacun devrait être à sa place et faire ce qu'il a à faire sans être une entorse à l'épanouissement de l'autre ; Marie constate le manque, le dit à Jésus, et Jésus dit aux servants de remplir d'eau les jarres. C'est ainsi que la société est organisée. Cela nous permet de constater qu'on a besoin les uns des autres. C'est le cas avec les membres du corps : les pieds portent le corps, et la main lave le pied, l'œil nous permet de voir, la langue de goûter les aliments, le nez de sentir. Ce qui nous amène à la réalité décrite par la deuxième lecture quand Saint Paul dit que les dons de la grâce sont variés. Comme dons de l'Esprit Saint, nous avons : la Sagesse, la Force, l'Intelligence, la Science, la Piété, la Crainte de Dieu, Conseil mais c'est le même Esprit. A chacun est donné la manifestation de l'Esprit en vue du bien de tous. Un don reçu de Dieu et pas mis au service de la communauté, c'est de l'égoïsme. La dernière leçon de ce dimanche, c'est que Jésus donne toujours ce qu'il y a de bon et de meilleur pour nous. Comme dit le maître de cérémonie dans l'évangile : « toi tu as gardé le bon vin jusqu'à maintenant ». Jésus nous donne en tout temps ce qui est bon, parce que nous sommes ses préférés, il a fait de chacun de nous sa préférence. Sachons, nous aussi donner toujours le meilleur de ce que nous sommes et de ce que nous avons aux autres qui sont dans le besoin. Jésus donne de la joie à ce couple et rehausse l'éclat de la fête. Partout où l'on se trouve, soyons des artisans de paix et de joie. Laissons-nous habiter par l'Esprit Saint pour faire le bien en tout temps, pour notre Salut et la gloire de Dieu. Agréable et sanctifiant dimanche à toutes et à tous.

Merci à tous et à toutes de votre contribution à l'avancée de l'œuvre du Seigneur. Pour continuer de soutenir notre Aumônerie, vous pouvez faire vos dons en scannant le QR code ci-dessous.
