The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives

DEAR ST. JOHN FISHER FAMILY,

Hello, we are Catalino and María Guadalupe Sánchez. We were born in Mexico and since we were little we were instructed in the Catholic faith and that is how we raised our children, who when they were little had the opportunity to attend Catholic school in our native country. We emigrated to this country in 1990 and since then we have belonged to the community of St John Fisher. We have been married for 48 years and have 4 children and 6 grandchildren. We have lived many important moments in this church. Our youngest daughter received the sacraments of baptism, communion and confirmation here. Our son received the sacrament of confirmation and the oldest the sacrament of marriage.

Although we are not very involved, we have always been present and supported the construction of our beautiful church. A few years ago I took the ACTS retreat for women, a beautiful experience where I met wonderful women from this community. The following year I had the opportunity to return to the ACTS retreat, but this time helping with the retreat. That experience was even more beautiful as I was able to see the sisterhood and feel that fraternal love of my sisters in Christ while we helped other women have a beautiful experience. I also took the Prayer and Life Workshops that have been given in our community. The workshops helped me deepen my faith and revive that desire to learn more every day.

We thank God for allowing us to belong to this community where we have formed beautiful friendships that make us feel that we are a family of families.

QUERIDA FAMILIA DE SAN JUAN FISHER:

Hola, somos Catalino y María Guadalupe Sánchez. Nacimos en México y desde pequeños fuimos instruidos en la fe católica y así fue como creamos a nuestros hijos, que cuando eran pequeños tuvieron la oportunidad de asistir a escuela católica en nuestro país natal. Emigramos a este país en el año 1990 y desde entonces pertenecemos a la comunidad de St John Fisher. Llevamos 48 años casados y tenemos 4 hijos y 6 nietos. Hemos vivido muchos momentos importantes en esta iglesia. Nuestra hija menor, recibió aquí los sacramentos de bautizo, comunión y confirmación. Nuestro hijo recibió el sacramento de la confirmación y la mayor el sacramento del matrimonio.

Aunque no estamos muy involucrados siempre hemos estado presente y apoyamos para la construcción de nuestra hermosa iglesia. Hace unos años tomé el retiro ACTS para mujeres, una hermosa experiencia donde conocí a maravillosas mujeres de esta comunidad. Al siguiente año tuve la oportunidad de volver al retiro ACTS, pero esta vez como una servidora. Esa experiencia fue aún más hermosa ya que pude ver la hermandad y sentir ese amor fraterno de mis hermanas en Cristo mientras ayudábamos a otras mujeres a que tuvieran una bonita experiencia. También tomé los Talleres de Oración y Vida que se han impartido en nuestra comunidad. Los talleres me ayudaron a profundizar en mi fe y revivir esas ganas de aprender cada vez más.

Le damos gracias a Dios por permitirnos pertenecer a esta comunidad en donde hemos formado lindas amistades que nos hacen sentir que somos una familia de familias.

Familia Sánchez
