SUNDAY REFLECTION

To speak of the Body and Blood of Christ is to speak of the Eucharist. By receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, we unite ourselves to Christ himself and to his life of generous self-giving. The Eucharist unites us in the unity of the Church because we all receive the same bread. The Second Vatican Council says: "The unity of the faithful who constitute a single body in Christ is represented and realized by the sacrament of the Eucharistic bread" (Lumen Gentium 3). And the Holy Pope Saint John Paul II said: "A truly Eucharistic spirituality is always a spirituality of communion (Novo Milenio Ineunte 43). The whole community of believers gathered in the Liturgical Assembly communicates the same Bread.

"During the meal Jesus took bread, and after pronouncing the blessing, he broke it and gave it to her saying. Here, this is my body. He then took a cup, and after giving thanks, he handed it to her; and they all drank from it "(Mark 14: 22-23). By receiving Holy Communion, we are called to become bread for others. We are another Christ for the one who suffers. For this reason, the Eucharist forms the Church and makes her holy. Every time we receive the Holy Eucharist, we must open ourselves to serve our brothers and sisters, especially those who suffer and those in need. After receiving communion, we cannot remain the same. Blessed Carlo Acutis, called the cyber apostle of the Eucharist, said with conviction: "The Eucharist is my highway to heaven." Live in Jesus, for Jesus. That is, to be the Eucharist!

REFLEXION BIBLICA

Hablar del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo es hablar de la Eucaristía. Al recibir el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo nos unimos al mismo Cristo y a su vida de entrega generosa. La Eucaristía nos une en la unidad de la Iglesia porque, todos recibimos el mismo pan. Dice el Concilio Vaticano II: "La unidad de los fieles que constituyen un solo cuerpo en Cristo, está representada y se realiza por el sacramento del pan eucarístico" (Lumen Gentium 3). Y el Santo Papa San Juan Pablo II dijo: "Una espiritualidad verdaderamente eucarística es siempre una espiritualidad de la comunión" (Novo Milenio Ineunte 43). Toda la comunidad de creyentes reunida en la Asamblea Litúrgica comulga el mismo Pan. "Durante la comida Jesús tomó pan, y después de pronunciar la bendición, lo partió y se lo dio diciendo. "Tomen, esto es mi cuerpo. Tomó luego una copa, y después de dar gracias, se la entregó; y todos bebieron de ella" (Marcos 14:22-23). Al recibir la Santa Comunión, estamos llamados a convertirnos en pan para los demás. Somos otro Cristo para el que sufre. Por esa razón, la Eucaristía forma a la Iglesia y la hace santa. Cada vez que recibimos la Santa Eucaristía, debemos de abrirnos a servir a los hermanos y hermanas, especialmente los que sufren y los necesitados. Después de comulgar, no podemos seguir siendo iguales. El Beato Carlo Acutis, llamado el ciber apóstol de la Eucaristía, decía convencido: "La Eucaristía es mi autopista hacia el cielo". Vivir en Jesús, para Jesús. ¡Es decir, ser Eucaristía!
