Gospel Meditation

"There is always something very tender and heartwarming about a kiss. When someone who loves us offers us a kiss, it sends a clear message that we are valued and special. We occupy a unique place in their lives and have a distinct purpose. Kissing celebrates the wonder and beauty of human life. In a very powerful way, we are connected, through intimate touch, with another human being. With the incarnation of Christ, God kissed humanity. God, revealed so perfectly in Jesus Christ, showed us that we have value and are made in God's image and likeness. Mortal human beings radiate with the presence of God and are worthy enough to reveal the intimacy of the Divine Mystery. The human race is not simply something God created from a distance but something special within which God dwells.

It is no wonder then, why the poor hold such an honored place in Jesus' ministry. They speak of God's love and they cry out for the compassion that is due them as children of God. Justice is about setting relationships right because we are all filled with God's love and have dignity. The human story is understood as a partnership, a true and new covenant, celebrating a love relationship between all of creation and their Creator. It is a story that does not end with the Cross or even the Resurrection. The story finds its happy ending in the Ascension. Our human narrative is still evolving and moving ever more closely toward that day when all will be one in Christ.

Jesus now sits at the right hand of the Father as the Christ of God. In the ascended state, we see what we are all meant to become and have before us the transformed life that awaits all of creation. The disciples got a glimpse of what this transfiguration would be on the holy mountain and it is an essential part of the Good News we are called to proclaim! Christ, now ascended to the Father, sets our paths straight and gives us a look at what awaits us. The day-to-day challenges of life often find us struggling with our incompleteness. Today's celebration gives us the strength to persevere, knowing that we'll eventually be well. May our hearts be enlightened so that we can know this hope and the surpassing greatness of Christ's power!

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Luke opens his story of the early Church (the Acts of the Apostles) with Jesus' ascension into heaven and Jesus' final command to be witnesses to the faith. In what ways do you pass your faith onto others?

Second Reading

Paul urges the Ephesians to use the gifts that God has given them to "build up the body of Christ" and to attain the "unity of faith." What are the gifts you use to foster unity in your faith community?

Gospel

Mark's account of the ascension of Jesus includes a final commissioning of the disciples to proclaim the Gospel, baptize believers, drive our demons, and heal the sick. How well do you think the Church fulfills this commission today?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Church Outer Doors

As the weather warms up please keep the outside doors of the church closed as you enter and leave the church building. This will help us keep the church cool, keep dust and leaves from blowing in and also keep little critters from entering. Help us conserve energy and keep the electrical bill low.

2021-2022 Religious Education

Contact: Shannon Langer
Director of Religious Education 916-985-7338 or
slanger@folsomcatholic.org

Registration for next year’s Religious Education is open! Please go to the parish website for the packet to register your children! ALL sacraments require two years of preparation meaning 1st and 2nd grade for Reconciliation and Eucharist, and Confirmation 1 and Confirmation 2 for Confirmation. We will start in late August and end on the first weekend of May. Calendar will be coming soon.

Inspiration for the Week

The one who came from heaven now returns to heaven. Today celebrates the completion of the Divine-human story. When God became one like us, humanity was divinely kissed. The message was clear: mortal human beings, once seen as insignificant and expendable, radiated with the presence of God and revealed the intimacy of the Divine Mystery. The poor were raised up and given dignity, the sick healed, and justice proclaimed. The human story is understood as a partnership, a true and new covenant, celebrating a love relationship between all created beings and things and their Creator. Jesus now sits at the right hand of the Father as the Christ of God. In this ascended state, we see what we are all meant to become and have before us the transformed life that awaits all of creation. While we are still moaning and expressing sighs of incompleteness as we continue our journey, we see and know the glory that awaits us and the inheritance that will one day satisfy the longing of our souls. This feast of the Ascension is truly a celebration that can bolster our faith, deepen our love and renew our hope.

"Come and see" (Jn 1:46)

Communicating by Encountering People Where and as They Are

The invitation to "come and see", can serve as an inspiration for all communication that strives to be clear and honest, in the press, on the internet, in the Church's daily preaching and in political or social communication. "Come and see!" This has always been the way that the Christian faith has been communicated, from the time of those first moving encounters of Jesus with the disciples.

Lord, teach us to move beyond ourselves, and to set out in search of truth.

Teach us to go out and see, teach us to listen, not to entertain prejudices or draw hasty conclusions.

Teach us to go where no one else will go, to take the time needed to understand, to pay attention to the essentials, not to be distracted by the superfluous, to distinguish deceptive appearances from the truth.

Grant us the grace to recognize your dwelling places in our world and the honesty needed to tell others what we have seen.

7 Ways to strengthen your relationship with the Virgin Mary

Feel closer to Mary with these simple ideas.

Cerith Gardiner, aleteia.org

May is a month devoted to the Blessed Virgin, so you might want to consider all the different ways you can invite Mary into your life.

Celebrate her in song

While there are prayers we can say to Mary, why not try your hand at singing? There are a number of songs and hymns that honor the Blessed Mother, and you could sing along with your kids as you attack the spring cleaning, drive to the shops, or sing lullabies as they go to sleep.

Consider her many titles

You might want to learn about the different titles given to the Blessed Virgin. While you may be familiar with a handful, learn the different ways people call on her from around the world. The varied meanings will help you understand your own faith even more.

Name a newborn after her

If you're about to welcome a newborn into your family, you could honor Mary by choosing her name for your own little bambina. Whether a first or middle name, there are so many pretty combinations to choose from.

Discover her beauty through a literary great

The English writer J.R.R. Tolkien is known for his impressive way of putting pen to paper. However, the devout Catholic made many references to his faith — as well as to the Virgin Mary — in his writings. Take some time to marvel in her beauty courtesy of someone who had no qualms in showing his love and admiration for her.

Get your children involved in this charming tradition

It's important that children feel close to Mary, too, during this month in particular. So why not get them involved in an old tradition of crowning the Blessed Mother? If you have a statue of her at home you could easily make a floral crown (it doesn't have to be perfect) and place it on her head. Kids could sing a song and say a Hail Mary to honor her.

Create a prayer corner in her honor

More and more Catholics have introduced prayer corners in their homes. While you can create your own corner dedicated to those religious figures who are close to your heart, you can use this month to dedicate one to Mary.

Approach friendships in her manner

Forming friendships can be tricky at the best of times, but in COVID times even the closest of friendships have come under strain. You could use this month to re-think these friendships and approach them the way Mary would have.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

Why Are We Looking at the Sky?

Men of Galilee — why are you looking at the sky? It seems like a pretty foolish question for the angels to be asking the disciples. Their best friend just flew away in a cloud. I think in that situation, my first reaction would probably be to stop and stare, too.

But let's not forget, the disciples had a lot of work to do. A world full of souls to evangelize. I've always been a little amused at the thought of the angels shooing them down from Mount Olivet. Get to work! The kingdom isn't going to build itself!

In our own faith lives, we often find ourselves looking at the sky, don't we? We're the faithful, after all. We have seen Christ. We have accepted him. We have given ourselves to him. What more do we need to do? Perhaps we excessively dwell on the past, or anxiously anticipate the future. Perhaps we can't move on from a mistake we have made, or we are shying away from a challenge in front of us. We all have our own cloud that has bewitched us.

But let's remember, our faith compels action. Once again, the kingdom isn't going to build itself.

Why are you looking at the sky? The work is here. The hour is at hand. A good steward is to be mindful of the gift of time. What's the mountain you need to climb down? What is the task God is handing you? For what purpose has God placed you here, at this very moment in history?

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sharing the Gospel

It was time for Jesus to go back up to heaven. Before he left, Jesus asked his friends to tell the whole world the good news. God wanted all people to be saved from their sins through Jesus. If people believed in Jesus, God would forgive them, and they could do great things to help others. If people refused to believe in Jesus, God would not forgive them, and they would not be saved. God was with Jesus' friends as they shared the good news. It is your turn now. God wants you to tell the world the good news about Jesus. God will be with you, too.

Mission for the Week

List the names of your family and friends on a piece of paper. Has anyone refused to believe in Jesus? Put a star by their names. Pray for them, and ask God to help you share the good news with them.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Ascension of the Lord

Couldn't Jesus have done more good if he stayed on earth, rather than ascended into heaven?

This is an interesting question! During his earthly life, Jesus gave sight to the blind, healed paralytics, drove out demons, and fed thousands with only a few loaves of bread. Imagine what he could have done if he'd never ascended into heaven! Imagine what our world could be! It's an interesting thought to consider, especially as the world faces challenges that only seem to deepen and expand. Yet at the Last Supper, Jesus says, "It is better for you if I go." Why? His response must have seemed strange to the Apostles at the time. In his place, Jesus says, he will send the Paraclete, the Comforter, the Advocate. He promises to send the Holy Spirit.

Jesus' departure allows the Apostles to become the leaders he has formed them to be. Jesus is no longer situated in only one geographical location, and his Church will never be a political kingdom. Soon after the Ascension, we celebrate Pentecost — the descent of the Holy Spirit and the radical empowerment of the followers of Jesus. We share in that empowerment and in that mission. Jesus is present in the sacraments, and he is present in us. Through our faith, hope, and love, we are called to be the good he does here on earth!
