SPIRITUAL ADOPTION MONTH 7

"I LOOKED AROUND TODAY."

Beginning this month, the baby uses all four senses. Its eyelids open and close, and the eyes look around. The baby can taste, touch, cough, yawn and hiccup. He now recognizes his mother's voice. His grip is even stronger now than it will be after birth. The hair on his head is growing longer and the downy covering on the rest of his body is disappearing. During this time, the baby will receive antibodies from his mother providing him immunity to a wide variety of diseases.

Please stop by the Parish Office during the week to fill out a registration form and pick up your welcome gift, or register online at mfp.org

He is completely formed, and has been since 8 weeks. All he is doing now is gaining weight. In a short time, the baby will be born. Mother has planned to bring her baby home or to place her baby for adoption.

Either way, she knows she can receive the assistance she needs from the Catholic Church and from the crisis pregnancy centers. Your baby's mother appreciates the prayers you have said for her and her baby throughout the pregnancy. Your prayers have given her grace to seek the help she needs.

Pray the Spiritual Adoption Prayer Daily

*Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who may be in danger of abortion.*

If you are pregnant, go to the Respect Life Kiosk and place your name and due date on a heart so we can keep you and your baby in our prayers.

INSIDE THE PARISH

FROM THE DESK OF FR. CHAD

Dear Friends,

While I'm away this weekend, I'm grateful for my friends and brother priests, Fr. Lyle Konen and Fr. Jan. Larson, who are celebrating Masses here at Mary, Queen of Peace in my place. They have both been regularly and faithfully providing ministry at MQP, which is a support for me and a blessing to our whole community. Please join me in thanking them!

There are a couple of great opportunities in our area coming up for men to grow in faith. Both conferences feature nationally-known speakers, as well as offer both in-person and remote options.

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH

PASTORAL CARE

Taking Communion to the Homebound

Written by Ron Long

Receiving the Body of Christ in the Eucharist is to me receiving an awesome gift from Jesus, Himself. Recognizing the very significant importance this gift is to fellow Catholics has never been so apparent to me as it was when I was invited to take Jesus to a few Mary, Queen of Peace parishioners. They understood that receiving the Body of Christ was special; bringing graces and food for our journey to salvation. Their desire to receive communion, even at home, has reinforced my belief that Jesus is truly present to us in the Eucharist. I am humbled by their faith and thankful for the opportunity to take Jesus into their homes. This ministry has opened the door to new friendships and confirmed how blessed we are to receive the Body of Christ, a gift from Jesus!

The Wings of Love

Written by Julie Lawrence

I was drawn to Pastoral Care after suffering from a rare medical condition. During my illness, attending Mass renewed my faith and diminished my despair. "Faith and hope are like the wings of love; they give love the power to launch out ever further, to take flight unceasingly, without getting exhausted or discouraged," -Fr. Jacques Philippe. With faith and hope renewed, I wanted to share the Body of Christ with the homebound. Visiting the residents of Spiritwood and sharing the Eucharist with them is a blessing. Though we wear face masks, our smiles are reflected in our eyes, and the connection that we feel is real. God's love washes over us, reminding us that we are not alone, renewing our spirit to launch unceasingly upon a horizon of hope and healing, with the wind of his love in our wings.

If you are interested in getting involved as a Pastoral Care minister, please contact Karen Hauser by emailing: Karen.hauser@mqp.org

If you are currently homebound, or not comfortable being amongst large groups for an extended time, you can make your "Easter Communion" by getting in touch with Karen Hauser from our parish staff (karen.hauser@mqp.org or 425-391-1178 ext. 113). She will make arrangements to have a minister from the parish bring Communion to you at your home, or meet you outdoors in the Plaza.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

The disciples in today's Gospel came to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread. When we share what we have with those who are in need, we, too, will discover Jesus in our midst.
