INSIDE THE PARISH

FROM THE DESK OF FR. CHAD

Dear Friends,

While I've been away on vacation this past week and this weekend, I'm grateful for my friends and brother priests, Fr. Lyle Konen and Fr. Jan. Larson, who are celebrating Masses here at Mary, Queen of Peace in my place. They have both been regularly and faithfully providing ministry at MQP, which is a support for me and a blessing to our whole community. Please join me in thanking them!

+++

Let's keep praying for peace and unity, and let's keep making personal decisions each day with our own thoughts, words, actions, and prayers that contribute to peace and unity in our world!

Mary, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH

THE DOMESTIC CHURCH MINISTRY

10 Things to Have in a Catholic Home

By Zoltan Abraham

Building the Domestic Church requires that our homes be fully equipped with Catholic essentials. Below are ten things that would be good for every Catholic home to have:

- 1) Catholic Bible: Many Bible editions have been published, so make sure you pick a Catholic version. The most popular in English is the New American Bible Revised Edition (NABRE), which also comes in a study edition.
- 2) The Catechism of the Catholic Church: The Catechism elucidates the basic theological and moral framework of our faith. I recommend reading it all the way through at least once, but in any case, keep a copy in your home as the go-to reference book.
- 3) Spiritual Reading: Compile an assortment of Catholic books, both fiction and non-fiction, to read for at least for 15 minutes a day. Better yet, turn off the TV or the streaming services and read out loud from Catholic classics to your spouse, family, friends, and neighbors – anyone who would like to listen.
- 4) Rosary: Among Catholic devotional prayers, the Rosary holds pride of place. Our Holy Mother told us in various apparitions to pray the Rosary daily. Make sure you have several rosaries at home, and say the prayer together whenever possible.
- 5) Home Altar: Set aside at least one special place in your home that is dedicated to prayer. But you don't just need to have one. You could make an altar in the living-room, office, your bedroom, etc. The altar can display your Bible and an assortment of the items discussed below.
- 6) Crucifix: Display a crucifix in a prominent place in your home. Better yet, put one in every room. Put a crucifix in your foyer, so it is the first thing anyone who enters will see.
- 7) Holy Images: Display paintings, icons, statues, and other images of our Holy Mother, the Queen of Peace, as well as of the saints and holy angels, throughout your home. For some modern saints, we even have photographs. Displaying these images is an invocation for protection by the heavenly hosts, so place them in every room.
- 8) Blessed items: Your list should include holy water, blessed candles, and blessed salt, all blessed by a priest. As with other Catholic objects, none of these is a talisman that offers magical protection. However, our intentional choice to make these things present in our homes is an additional invocation for the Holy Spirit to come into our lives.
- 9) Seasonal Religious Décor: Christmas and Easter have been effectively de-Christianized by corporate America. But work against the tide by displaying religious décor during both of these seasons. In fact, go further and display seasonal religious décor for the whole of the liturgical year (which is a separate article in itself).

Read about bonus items on our Domestic Church page!

WELCOME ERICK!

My name is Erick Johns, and I am beginning my second year of seminary at Bishop White Seminary at Gonzaga University. It is my pleasure to be at Mary, Queen of Peace this summer, and I am really looking forward to having the opportunity to get to know you all!

A little bit about myself—I was born in Bogota, Colombia while my dad was stationed at the US Embassy. However, I sadly do not remember anything about Colombia as we moved to Puyallup when I was two. I grew up in Puyallup, attending All Saints Catholic School with my family being parishioners of St. Andrew's in Sumner. When I was nine, my family moved to Germany which was an amazing opportunity, though at the time, my siblings and I were not happy. While in Europe, we went on many incredible pilgrimages and tours— Lourdes, the Holy Shroud of Turin, Jerusalem, and Vatican City to name just a few of the places we visited.

In 2012, we moved back to Puyallup. Shortly after returning, I began altar serving at St. Andrew's. My friends convinced me to attend Quo Vadis Days with them, a discernment retreat at Camp John Don Bosco in Carnation, WA, that I highly recommend to all young men! It was at Quo Vadis Days that I first thought about the priesthood. Prior to the retreat, I had always envisioned priests as incredibly holy people and could not envision myself as such, but at the retreat, I learned that God does not call the qualified but qualifies the called.

However, in high school I no longer felt called to the priesthood and preemptively assumed that God was calling me to be an engineer. You know what they say, if you want to make God laugh tell Him your plans! So, I went to Purdue University to study Aerospace Engineering for two years. While I was at Purdue in my first semester, the false image of myself that I had constructed started to crumble and realized my fundamental identity as an adopted beloved son of God. With the help of the Dominicans at the Newman Center I realized that God was calling me to discern the priesthood and decided to enter seminary. It has been an amazing first year and I very much look forward to sharing my experience with you. Please pray for me and know that I will be praying for you!
