Dear Parishioners:

Today on the eve of the Solemnity of All Saints Day, let us remember that as baptized Christians, we are saints in the making. In baptism, we are sealed with the Holy Spirit and become children of God. Therefore, we belong to God and are called to live accordingly. Being a child of God means living contrary to the ways of this world. In Scripture, the "world" represents everything contrary to God. It refers to the sinfulness and dysfunction found all around us. As Christians, we are called to look different from the secular society around us. We are called to be "pure." This is a process that is called sanctification (literally, becoming holy). This journey of sanctification begins at baptism when we are cleansed of original sin and join God's family. But that is just the beginning. The whole Christian life is about turning from sin and giving ourselves completely to God. This is not an easy process, but God gives us everything we need to succeed. And the reward is well worth all the effort, for "we shall see [God] as he is." The reward is eternal life with God in heaven. As we celebrate all the saints who have gone before us we are reminded that we can be part of the communion of saints too if we allow God to make us pure.

On Tuesday, November 2nd we also celebrate All Souls – the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. We remember those – especially in our own families – who have died this past year. Join us as we remember and celebrate their lives with a special mass at 6:30 pm.

In Peace,

Fr. Prasanna Mesa,
Pastor

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Centuries of God's devoted people have found this prayer on their lips: "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!" The fundamental prayer has been laid as the cornerstone of many spiritual lives. Where did you learn how to pray or did you? Maybe there is a wisdom figure in your life who inspired and guided you by the genuine, holy simplicity of their lives. His or her example may have led you to God and taught you how to pray. Or perhaps you discovered this art on your own after stumbling over yourself enough times and finally realizing it was time to reach out to Someone greater than yourself. There is a timeless truth that we not only tend to forget, but may have never learned. There is only one God, the Lord alone! As a result, we often worship other gods rather than the One true God. Everything in our life gets distorted and we find ourselves lost and off center.

If we haven't learned it yet, there is a life lesson at the top of all of the possible lessons to be learned. There is One True and Eternal God who alone has a solitary claim on us and must be loved with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. Until we learn this primary lesson, we run the risk of getting distracted and sidetracked. We will also never really figure out what is at the heart of the relationships we share with the other human beings on this planet with whom we share life. That one primary lesson will teach us the second most valuable lesson: that we must love our neighbor as ourselves. You cannot have one without the other. The presence of God in the core soul of each one of us requires that all of our relationships work together. This truth is at the heart of the Gospel.

If every human being, each in their own way, could stumble upon and genuinely embrace this truth, look how different life would be! Our priorities will immediately shift from "I and me" to "us and we" and we will develop a more inclusive vision for our brothers and sisters. Concerned

The Daily Examen of Stewardship

"Stewardship" can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term "stewardship" from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over. "Here's Father asking for more money," they groan inwardly, "Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards."

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments — instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said — and he didn't say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship — living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other — is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the "Daily Examen" — a pious devotion wherein, at day's end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God's will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him?

What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?

To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me? Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, fourth?

not only about my own wellbeing and happiness but also that of our brothers and sisters, humanity stands a chance at succeeding in the struggle with injustice, abuse, inequity, violence, war, entitlement, and privilege. It seems that getting to this point has been at the heart of the Gospel and the kingdom of God from the moment Jesus first started to preach. It's a wonder why, then, why so many centuries later, we have still failed to achieve his vision. Maybe we just haven't learned our primary lessons yet

Estimados feligreses:

Hoy, en vísperas de la solemnidad de Todos los Santos, recordemos que, como cristianos bautizados, somos santos en formación. En el bautismo, somos sellados con el Espíritu Santo y nos convertimos en hijos de Dios. Por lo tanto, pertenecemos a Dios y estamos llamados a vivir en consecuencia. Ser hijo de Dios significa vivir en contra de los caminos de este mundo. En las Escrituras, el "mundo" representa todo lo contrario a Dios. Se refiere a la pecaminosidad y disfunción que se encuentran a nuestro alrededor. Como cristianos, estamos llamados a lucir diferentes a la sociedad secular que nos rodea. Estamos llamados a ser "puros". Este es un proceso que se llama santificación (literalmente, volverse santo). Este viaje de santificación comienza en el bautismo cuando somos limpiados del pecado original y nos unimos a la familia de Dios. Pero eso es solo el comienzo. Toda la vida cristiana se trata de dejar el pecado y entregarnos completamente a Dios. Este no es un proceso fácil, pero Dios nos da todo lo que necesitamos para tener éxito. Y la recompensa bien vale todo el esfuerzo, porque "veremos [a Dios] como es". La recompensa es la vida eterna con Dios en el cielo. Al celebrar a todos los santos que nos han precedido, se nos recuerda que también podemos ser parte de la comunión de los santos si permitimos que Dios nos purifique.

El martes 2 de noviembre también celebramos All Souls, la conmemoración de todos los fieles difuntos. Recordamos a aquellos, especialmente en nuestras propias familias, que murieron el año pasado. Únase a nosotros mientras recordamos y celebramos sus vidas con una misa especial a las 6:30 pm.

En Paz,
Padre Prasanna Mesa,
Pastor

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

La palabra amor está bien trillada en la sociedad, muchas veces llamamos amor a lo trivial y fácilmente se confunde con el amor verdadero. Como aquel amor, por ejemplo, de nuestros padres, quienes al contraer matrimonio se juraron amor eterno el uno para el otro y dieron ejemplo de su compromiso en las buenas y en las no tan buenas. Ellos no tiraron la toalla a las primeras señales de cambio como algunas parejas modernas, que al surgir los primeros problemas en la familia se separan.

El papa Francisco, nos explica que el enfoque central del Evangelio de este domingo está en el mandamiento del amor: amor a Dios y amor al prójimo. Un amor muy diferente al que estamos acostumbrados a ver en la sociedad. Dios nos pide sinceridad de corazón y espera que el amor y nuestras energías sean dados en colaboración al servicio de los más necesitados. Jesús lo explica muy bien al maestro de la ley: "Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con toda tu inteligencia y con todas tus fuerzas. Y después viene este otro: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. No hay ningún mandamiento más importante que estos" (Marcos 12:30-31). Con esto se indica que la vida debe ser un ejercicio de amor siempre alegre y duradero. ¿Cómo es tu amor al prójimo y a ti mismo? ¿Tienes alguna práctica de misericordia con los que te rodean? Tengámonos claro, o no, toda nuestra vida está implicada en el amor de Dios y a los demás. ¡Actuemos ya!

Examen diario de mayordomía

La "mayordomía" puede tener una mala reputación en estos días. Cuando la gente escucha el término "mayordomía" desde el púlpito, sus ojos tienden a ponerse vidriosos. "Aquí está el padre pidiendo más dinero", se quejan para sus adentros, "Prepárense para la entrega de las tarjetas de compromiso".

Cristo refuta esta idea cuando nos da lo que él llama los mayores mandamientos: instruyéndonos a amar a Dios y a nuestro prójimo. Ahora, Cristo es un hombre que eligió cuidadosamente sus palabras. Quería decir exactamente lo que dijo, y no dijo que los mayores mandamientos eran diezmar y dar dinero a la caridad. Si hubiera querido que la mayordomía se tratara solo de dinero, lo habría dicho.

A veces, de hecho, estamos llamados a mostrar nuestro amor a Dios y al prójimo en forma de donación económica. Pero el concepto de Mayordomía Cotidiana - vivir conscientemente en oración, agradecido por nuestras bendiciones y ser amable con nuestro prójimo, comprometido con Dios y rendir cuentas unos a otros - tiene mucho más que ver.

Propongo un giro en la práctica del "Examen diario", una devoción piadosa en la que, al final del día, repasamos los eventos de las últimas 24 horas y discernimos la voluntad de Dios. Un Examen diario de mayordomía puede contener preguntas como esta:

¿Cómo amé a Dios hoy? ¿En quién lo amaba?

¿Qué me dio Dios hoy? ¿Con quién lo compartí? ¿Qué le di?

¿A quién me acerqué hoy? ¿Quién me contactó? ¿Dónde estaba Dios en mi lista de prioridades hoy? ¿Primero? ¿Segundo? ¿Tercero cuarto?
