CATHOLIC CHURCH

THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. I hope you had an opportunity to connect with your family in the past few days, whether in person, on the phone, or even by Zoom. Family is one of God's greatest gifts. One of the lessons we can learn from the Holy Family is all that is truly required is great and unconditional love, commitment, patience and faith. Family comes in many forms. We may have our friends who are as close as family, our work family, and here at St. Paul we certainly have our parish family. In addition, we are all members of the most important family of all, God's family, the Holy Trinity.

Over the last few weeks I had reached out to our ministry leaders, in anticipation of the Christmas holidays, to asked them to come together and "Light Up" our beautiful church. We came together to celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe beautifully and continued to decorate the entire grounds of our church with lights and artful creative designs along with laughter and a bit of a competitive spirit. We came together as we celebrated the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ and lit up the church with wonderful voices and music of our choirs.

In the past year we have found new definitions and expressions of what it means to be a member of God's family. What remains unchanged is the warm welcome we find in God's embrace, and the community we share as brothers and sisters. As we continue to celebrate the holiday season, with its focus on our families, large and small, I invite you to join me in reflecting on the value of the family we call "Church." My wish for our family in this New Year is that we continue to grow together in faith, in hope, and in love.

I wish you and your loved ones blessings of good health and great happiness in the New Year.

In Peace,

Fr. Prasanna Mesa, Pastor

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER
UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Estimados feligreses:

Este fin de semana celebramos la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José. Espero que haya tenido la oportunidad de conectarse con su familia en los últimos días, ya sea en persona, por teléfono o incluso a través de Zoom. La familia es uno de los mayores dones de Dios. Una de las lecciones que podemos aprender de la Sagrada Familia es que todo lo que realmente se requiere es un gran e incondicional amor, compromiso, paciencia y fe. La familia se presenta de muchas formas. Es posible que tengamos nuestros amigos que son tan cercanos como la familia, nuestra familia de trabajo, y aquí en St. Paul ciertamente tenemos nuestra familia parroquial. Además, todos somos miembros de la familia más importante de todas, la familia de Dios, la Santísima Trinidad.

Durante las últimas semanas, me había acercado a nuestros líderes ministeriales, anticipándome a las vacaciones de Navidad, para pedirles que se reunieran e "Iluminaran" nuestra hermosa iglesia. Nos reunimos para celebrar la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe maravillosamente y continuamos decorando todo el terreno de nuestra iglesia con luces y diseños creativos ingeniosos junto con risas y un poco de espíritu competitivo. Nos reunimos para celebrar el nacimiento de nuestro Señor Jesucristo e iluminamos la iglesia con maravillosas voces y música de nuestros coros.

El año pasado encontramos nuevas definiciones y expresiones de lo que significa ser miembro de la familia de Dios. Lo que permanece sin cambios es la cálida bienvenida que encontramos en el abrazo de Dios y la comunidad que compartimos como hermanos y hermanas. Mientras continuamos celebrando la temporada navideña, con su enfoque en nuestras familias, grandes y pequeñas, los invito a unirse a mí para reflexionar sobre el valor de la familia que llamamos "Iglesia". Mi deseo para nuestra familia en este Año Nuevo es que sigamos creciendo juntos en la fe, la esperanza y el amor.

Les deseo a usted y a sus seres queridos una buena salud y una gran felicidad en el Año Nuevo.

En Paz,
Padre Prasanna Mesa,
Pastor

MAYORDOMÍA DIARIA - RECONOZCA A DIOS EN SUS
MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Todos en la familia

A primera vista, a menudo podemos encontrar intimidante la imagen de la Santísima Madre, San José y el Niño Jesús: ¿quiénes somos para aspirar a ese nivel de discipulado? ¿Cómo podríamos esperar conformarnos a ese molde? A veces, incluso puede ser doloroso, tal vez provenimos de una familia rota o luchamos con una relación rota dentro de nuestra familia, o tal vez anhelamos ser madre o padre nosotros mismos y ese estado en la vida se nos ha eludido. Pero la imagen de la Sagrada Familia es, en realidad, una hermosa invitación para todos nosotros, sin importar nuestra vocación o nuestro estado de vida, y el ejemplo de María, José y Jesús es rico en el simbolismo de la corresponsabilidad. No necesitas ser una madre biológica que ha llevado a un niño en su vientre para ser una madre en espíritu. ¿Quién en tu mundo necesita que los ames con el corazón de una madre? Lo mismo ocurre con la paternidad. La Iglesia y el mundo claman por el valiente testimonio de cristianos como San José. ¿A quién puedes amar con la protección inquebrantable y desinteresada de un padre? ¿Quién en tu vida necesita que lo ames con el amor fiel e incondicional de un hijo? ¿Quién necesita tu amor suave y constante como hija? Somos el Cuerpo de Cristo, amigos. Los que nos regocijamos en el cielo, los que sufrimos en el purgatorio y los que luchamos aquí en la tierra. Somos la gran familia. Amémonos bien.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO
MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA
ESCRITURA

Hoy es un día para celebrar a la familia - a la nuestra y a las familias de todo el mundo, de celebrar y gozar a los hijos, nietos y parientes cercanos y lejanos. Dios quiso nacer en una familia y por medio de ella, se nos ofrece una oportunidad para conocerle mejor y amarle más. Recordemos que es en la familia donde se forjan los santos y santas de Dios. Y es también en ella donde están los vicios y malas acciones. ¡Cuidado padres de familia! Aprender de la familia de Nazaret es importante.

Cada día del año es una oportunidad para continuar la búsqueda de Dios, de Jesús, en nuestro hogar. Podemos vislumbrar, en la Liturgia de hoy, a tres figuras importantes del hogar de Nazaret: una mujer con su pequeño y su esposo, listos para hacer la voluntad de Dios, para orar y platicar en familia. El papa Francisco nos dice que: "Realmente, hoy es un día hermoso... hoy celebramos la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia de Nazaret. El término sagrada coloca a esta familia en el ámbito de la santidad, que es un don de Dios, pero, al mismo tiempo, es una adhesión libre y responsable al plan de Dios" (12-29-2019). Sé, y busco cuál es el plan de Dios para mi hogar o ¿ni siquiera me importa ese diálogo entre esposa, esposo e hijos? El tiempo de confinamiento debió ser una oportunidad para crecer en gracia y sabiduría en la familia. ¿Lo ve usted así? Padres de familia, la mejor herencia para sus hijos y nietos es fomentar la fe, la educación, el amor y la unidad en el hogar.

ST. PAUL CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Thank you to all the vendors and parishioners who supported our annual St. Nicholas' Village. It was a great success.

Thank you to the parents and students who put in so much effort in their Christmas decorations around the school. We appreciate all the support you provide. May your holidays be filled with the spirit of Christ's love this season. Merry Christmas!

Fr. Mesa has asked each student in the school to mark on their calendars a good deed of the day during Advent. When our students return, they will display their calendars in their classroom as a reminder of loving others to prepare during Advent for the coming of Jesus. Please consider doing the same at home with your family.

The school will be closed for the holidays from December 18-January 3. School resumes on Tuesday, January 4th. The school sends blessings to our parish during this holiday season. We appreciate all the gifts and support you have given the school. We look forward to the second half of the school year and the many new blessings headed our way.

The school will be selling Catholic Life Raffle tickets until after Christmas break. Every $5 ticket sold goes directly to the school! Prizes include a $20,000 Visa gift card or a 2022 Ford Focus or Ford F 150 along with each participating school drawing a winner of a $1,000 Visa gift card.

Throughout the year, we will continue with open enrollment for PK 3-8th grades. We also offer multi-student discounts at the school. Please call Rosie Young at the school office for more information at 210-732-2741 or rosie.young@stpaulroyals.org
