Dear Parishioners:

On this Fifth Sunday of Lent we hear the story of a woman who was caught in the act of committing adultery and the scribes and Pharisees brought her to Jesus since Moses commanded that such women should be stoned. What do you say?" Naturally they were trying to trap Jesus so they could bring a charge against him. However, Jesus did not reply to their question. Rather, he bent down and began to write in the dirt with his finger. The scribes and Pharisees continued to ask him questions. Finally Jesus straightened up and said to them: "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Then he once again bent over and wrote in the dirt.

Slowly all of the scribes and Pharisees slithered away from Jesus and the woman. Were they angry with Jesus for humiliating them? Were some of them embarrassed or ashamed of what they had done to this woman? After they all had left, Jesus turned to the woman and said: "Where are your accusers? Has no one accused you?" The woman replied, "No one, sir." Jesus looked at her lovingly and said: "Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more."

What a great gift Jesus gave to this woman. While Jesus protected her from being stoned and from possible death, the greatest gift that Jesus gave her was respect. In that moment, I suspect, the woman's life was forever changed. Perhaps she left Jesus knowing that her life would never be the same. She was forever changed and she had a chance her life. What a great gift!

Today Jesus gives us the same chance to change our lives! Jesus will not condemn us for our failings and our sins. Rather, Jesus will invite us to begin anew. The gift is that we have the opportunity to begin anew each morning and each moment. All he asks of us if that we strive to "sin no more."

Blessings,

Fr. Prasanna Mesa, Pastor

Hermanas Josefinas

We are pleased to inform you that the Apostolic Penitentiary has granted the Josephine Missionaries, Hermanas Josefinas and Laity to gain plenary indulgences and a Papal Blessing from January 1 to December 31, 2022 for two reasons:

For the 150 years of the Proclamation of Saint Joseph Protector of the Universal Church and for the Jubilee year of 150 years that as the Josefina Family we have served the church in the style of Nazareth.

The parish that was granted and chosen was: St. Paul Catholic Church, San Antonio, Texas.

Requirements to obtain indulgences:

- Sacramental confession
- Attend the Eucharist
- Prayer for the intentions of the Pope
- Conclude with an Our Father, the Creed and invoking Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Indulgences can be earned for:

- For yourself
- For the faithful departed
- For the family

Sick or elderly people who are unable to attend, may offer their sufferings invoking the intercession of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. It can be done individually, or on a pilgrimage in small groups or by families.

Let us not let this special grace pass before us, it is time, as synodality says, we have to start working and walking together, united as the Trinitarian family Father, Son and Holy Spirit and as Jesus, Mary and Joseph always did.

We extend an invitation to all the people of God to attend personally or in groups to the following masses celebrated at St. Paul Catholic Church during this year and receive these indulgences.

- May 1st at 9:45 am (Regular Spanish mass)
- Sept. 22nd (time to be determined) – This is the closing of the 150 Year of Jubilee

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER
UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

5th Sunday of Lent

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another?

Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love.

When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy.

There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow.

Queridos feligreses:

En este Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma escuchamos la historia de una mujer que fue sorprendida en el acto de cometer adulterio y los escribas y fariseos la trajeron a Jesús ya que Moisés ordenó que tales mujeres fueran apedreadas. ¿Qué dices?" Naturalmente, estaban tratando de atrapar a Jesús para poder acusarlo. Sin embargo, Jesús no respondió a su pregunta. Más bien, se inclinó y comenzó a escribir en la tierra con el dedo. Los escribas y fariseos continuaron haciéndole preguntas. Finalmente Jesús se enderezó y les dijo: "El que de vosotros esté sin pecado sea el primero en arrojarle la piedra". Luego, una vez más se inclinó y escribió en la tierra.

Lentamente, todos los escribas y fariseos se apartaron de Jesús y de la mujer. ¿Estaban enojados con Jesús por humillarlos? ¿Algunos de ellos estaban avergonzados o avergonzados de lo que le habían hecho a esta mujer? Cuando todos se fueron, Jesús se volvió hacia la mujer y le dijo: "¿Dónde están tus acusadores? ¿Nadie te ha acusado? La mujer respondió: "Nadie, señor". Jesús la miró con amor y le dijo: "Tampoco yo te condeno. Vete y no peques más."

¡Qué gran regalo le dio Jesús a esta mujer! Si bien Jesús la protegió de ser apedreada y de una posible muerte, el mayor regalo que Jesús le dio fue el respeto. En ese momento, sospecho, la vida de la mujer cambió para siempre. Quizás ella dejó a Jesús sabiendo que su vida nunca sería la misma. Ella había cambiado para siempre y tenía una oportunidad en su vida. ¡Que gran regalo!

¡Hoy Jesús nos da la misma oportunidad de cambiar nuestras vidas! Jesús no nos condenará por nuestras fallas y nuestros pecados. Más bien, Jesús nos invitará a comenzar de nuevo. El regalo es que tenemos la oportunidad de empezar de nuevo cada mañana y cada momento. Todo lo que nos pide es que nos esforcemos por "no pecar más".

En Paz,
Padre Prasanna Mesa
Pastor

Hermanas Josefinas

Nos complace informarles que la Penitenciaría Apostólica ha concedido a las Misioneras Josefinas, Hermanas Josefinas y Laicos obtener indulgencias plenarias y Bendición Papal del 1 de enero al 31 de diciembre de 2022 por dos motivos:

Por los 150 años de la Proclamación de San José Protector de la Iglesia Universal y por el año Jubilar de 150 años que como Familia Josefina hemos servido a la iglesia al estilo de Nazaret.

La parroquia que se otorgó y se eligió fue: St. Paul Catholic Church, San Antonio, Texas.

Requisitos para obtener indulgencias:

- Confesión sacramental
- Asistir a la Eucaristía
- Oración por las intenciones del Papa
- Concluir con un Padre Nuestro, el Credo e invocando a Jesús, María y José

Las indulgencias se pueden ganar por:

- Para si mismo
- Por los fieles difuntos
- Por la familia

Los enfermos o ancianos que no puedan asistir, pueden ofrecer sus sufrimientos invocando la intercesión de Jesús, María y José. Se puede hacer de forma individual, o en peregrinación en pequeños grupos o en familia.

No dejemos pasar frente a nosotros esta gracia especial, es hora, como dice la sinodalidad, de empezar a trabajar y a caminar juntos, unidos como la familia trinitaria Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo y como siempre lo hicieron Jesús, María y José.

Extendemos una invitación a todo el pueblo de Dios a asistir personalmente o en grupos a las siguientes misas celebradas en la Iglesia Católica St. Paul durante este año y recibir estas indulgencias.

- 1 de mayo a las 9:45 am (Misa regular en español)
- 22 de septiembre (hora por determinar) – Este es el cierre del 150 Año de Jubileo

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

5^{er} Domingo de la Cuaresma

Como sociedad, estamos muy acostumbrados a juzgar y condenar a la ligera. En cualquier circunstancia, opinamos sin saber los hechos y fácilmente condenamos a las personas, sin conocer las circunstancias que estas gentes viven. Hoy, el Evangelio nos invita a corregir esa parte de nuestra persona que nos mete en serios aprietos por juzgar a la ligera. El Papa Francisco también nos hace enfocar en la parte importante que Jesús muestra a la mujer que fue encontrada en adulterio. "En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús salva de la condena de muerte a la mujer adúltera. Las palabras que Jesús utiliza son palabras de amor y misericordia, son palabras que invitan a la conversión". "Tampoco yo te condeno. Vete y en adelante no vuelvas a pecar" (Juan 8:11).

Por envidia o por coraje, los enemigos de Jesús pretendían ponerle una trampa para, de una vez por todas, tomarlo por sorpresa y poder acusarlo de no cumplir la ley. Jesús era pura bondad y misericordia, sus actos eran solo para hacer el bien a las personas. Sus milagros ayudaban a superar la pobreza y la injusticia. Ahora, después de escuchar el Evangelio, y a una semana del Domingo de Ramos, cabe que nos preguntemos lo siguiente: ¿Cuántas cosas hacemos en contra de los otros por envidia o por venganza? ¿Hemos enmendado nuestra conducta en esta Cuaresma que está por terminar? ¡Jesús, te lo pido, desde el fondo de mi corazón, enséname a ser misericordioso con los demás! "Todavía es tiempo, dice el Señor, conviértanse a mí de todo corazón, porque soy compasivo y misericordioso" (Joel 2:12-13).
