Dear Parishioners,

The word of God, this weekend, is really a simple story that any parent would recognize and understand, especially the anguish the woman is feeling. The woman cares deeply about her daughter and her story reminds us of what faith and prayer and love looks like when we are faced with real, personal adversity. It is a story that reminds us of the importance of persistence and what it means to trust in Jesus.

The Canaanite woman calls out to Jesus, "Have pity on me." Yes, we all want God's pity and thus divine healing, if not a cure. Like the begging woman, we all want to be heard, understood and have our requests fulfilled immediately.

It is interesting that Jesus does not respond to her request. "He did not say a word in answer to her". The disciples simply want him to send the woman away. But the woman persists, and Jesus applauds her tenacity as an indication of true faith. Will we be like Canaanite woman who persists until our plea is heard?

We wish all students and teachers God's blessings.

Dios te bendiga a ti y a tu familia.

Fr. Raja

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Prayers God Always Answers

When I was a child, my mother bought a book called "The Prayers God Will Always Answer." I remember my anticipation as I cracked the spine and turned to the first page.

I had been spending a lot of time asking God — begging God, actually — over and over again for some specific things that were not materializing. Frankly, it was beginning to feel a lot like that time I asked Santa Claus for a new house, only to wake up on Christmas morning to find ordinary, non-house-shaped presents under the tree — and a growing sense of suspicion that my faith had been ill-placed.

To the great disappointment of my pre-teen heart, my mother's book was not a directory of magical phrases God is compelled to obey. It was a list that included things like "Forgive me" and "Help me." I tossed it aside, disappointed.

I marvel at the wisdom and the confidence of the Canaanite woman who persists in begging Jesus to heal her daughter. She is ignored, and still she will not be deterred. The disciples try to dismiss her — still, she presses on. Christ himself challenges her, and her faith makes her ready with a reply.

Somehow, I am sure that even if Christ had said, "No, it cannot be done for you as you wish," she would have still dropped to her knees and worshiped him, because she knew what I did not: God is not a vending machine, and he's not the genie from "Aladdin." Prayer is not a negotiation, but a relationship.

The story of the Canaanite woman is not a story about how to get God to give you what you want. It is a story about the prayers God always answers.

"Then Jesus said to her in reply, 'O woman, great is your faith!'" — Matthew 15:28

GOSPEL MEDITATION -

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The suffering of a child symbolizes uniquely terrible evil as well as despair about the future. This week's Gospel gives a "limit" case in which Jesus encounters this evil in the form of a mother with a suffering daughter. What he does is stunning and massively helpful for us if we bravely ponder the details.

The Canaanite woman comes to Jesus and begs his mercy. "My daughter is tormented by a demon," she declares to him. Shockingly, he responds first with silence, then with a dismissive comment, and only then finally accedes to her third request. Is this simply a lesson in perseverance in our petitions to God, who is like a genie in a bottle? Does that justify the humiliation and pain this woman suffers? Is the Lord cruel?

I don't think so. Notice how the encounter ends. She compares herself to a dog at the table of a master. Jesus responds by praising her great faith and fulfills her deep desire. Somehow this non-Israelite woman intuits that this harrowing situation is not dumb suffering. She senses that the door of God's family is, in Jesus, being opened to her and her loved ones. She trusts she is at the Lord's table, and her desires will be fulfilled and that all her sufferings — and her daughter's, too — will lead a great banquet. In our sufferings this week, the Lord wants us to treat him less like a genie in a bottle and more like the Master who has taken us — lost little dogs that we are — into his home forever. Trust that and keep praying in the face of evil

— Father John Muir

Queridos feligreses,

La palabra de Dios, este fin de semana, es realmente una historia sencilla que cualquier padre reconocería y comprendería, sobre todo la angustia que está sintiendo la mujer. La mujer se preocupa profundamente por su hija y su historia nos recuerda cómo se ve la fe, la oración y el amor cuando nos enfrentamos a una adversidad personal real. Es una historia que nos recuerda la importancia de la persistencia y lo que significa confiar en Jesús.

La mujer cananea clama a Jesús: "Ten piedad de mí". Sí, todos queremos la piedad de Dios y, por lo tanto, la curación divina, si no una cura. Al igual que la mendiga, todos queremos ser escuchados, comprendidos y que nuestras peticiones se cumplan de inmediato.

Es interesante que Jesús no responde a su pedido. "Él no dijo una palabra en respuesta a ella". Los discípulos simplemente quieren que él despidiera a la mujer. Pero la mujer persiste, y Jesús aplaude su tenacidad como indicación de verdadera fe. ¿Seremos como la mujer cananea que persiste hasta que nuestra súplica es escuchada?

Deseamos a todos los estudiantes y profesores las bendiciones de Dios.

Dios te bendiga a ti y a tu familia.

Padre Raja

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO
MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA
ESCRITURA

20º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Un domingo más que se nos habla de la fe. Ahora, mostrada en una mujer cananea que suplicaba para que su hija fuera curada. Recordemos que el pueblo cananeo, en tiempos de Jesús, era idólatra y primitivo. De ahí surge la mujer que, con gran insistencia, suplicaba a Jesús por su hija. Esta mujer era valiente, con una fe segura, y fue así que decidida se postra ante Jesús para seguir pidiendo: "¡Señor, ayúdame! Jesús le dijo: No se debe echar a los perros el pan de los hijos. La mujer contestó: Es verdad Señor, pero también los perritos comen las migajas que caen de la mesa de sus amos. Entonces Jesús le dijo: Mujer, ¡qué grande es tu fe! Que se cumpla tu deseo" (Mateo 15:25-28).

La mujer fue felicitada por Jesús, y es puesta como ejemplo para sus discípulos entonces, y para nosotros actualmente. "Cristo se mostraba indiferente hacia ella, no por rechazarle la misericordia, sino para inflamar su deseo" (San Agustín). ¿Qué haces tú cuándo estás en una necesidad? Gritas, suplicas de rodillas al Señor para que te escuche. Acuérdate que la oración viene según la fe. ¿Cómo mides tu fe? ¿Es débil, es fuerte, es constante? Buscas a Jesús en todo momento o solo en tiempos difíciles. El domingo pasado, Pedro al hundirse en el agua exclamó: "Señor, sálvame". Hoy, la mujer cananea grita: "Señor, ayúdame". El Señor, escucha y atiende al que persevera constantemente con fe y esperanza en la oración. Qué hermoso es escuchar: "Que se cumpla tu deseo".

ST. PAUL LEARNING CENTER

Welcome to a new school year, we will be starting our curriculum on September 1st, 2023. Our main goal is to address the needs of each child in a way that makes learning fun, meaningful. Some activities will be hands on learning. This approach includes a balance of child directed activities each day. This program is based on the philosophy that children learn best by doing hands on activities.

We wish a very Happy Birthday to Nicholas R 8/8

The Sanctuary Lamp: The Roman Missal in the Catholic Church states (in 316): "In accordance with traditional custom, near the tabernacle a special lamp, fueled by oil or wax, should be kept alight to indicate and honor the presence of Christ." The red-globed lamp stands to the left of the tabernacle in our St. Paul altar space. Mary Ortensie, (210 385-4817) cares for the annual Sanctuary Lamp calendar and indicates there are still openings for sponsorship this year. The sanctuary light will burn for seven days in honor of a loved one or a special occasion/intention. Parishioners, to reserve your week, ($10.00 donation), please give Mary a call.

The previously planned summer Morning of Reflection has been cancelled. Our next Morning of Reflection will take place during the Advent season. We hope to see all of you, members and men and women parishioners, at that time.
