FIRST READING

ACTS 10:34A, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said:
 “You know what has happened all over Judea,
 beginning in Galilee after the baptism
 that John preached,
 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power.
 He went about doing good
 and healing all those oppressed by the devil,
 for God was with him.

We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.

They put him to death by hanging him on a tree.

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible,
 not to all the people, but to us,
 the witnesses chosen by God in advance,
 who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.

To him all the prophets bear witness,
 that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

SECOND READING

COL 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters:
 If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above,
 where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.
 Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.
 For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

When Christ your life appears,
 then you too will appear with him in glory.

SECOND READING

OR:

I COR 5:6B-8

Brothers and sisters:

Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough?
 Clear out the old yeast,

so that you may become a fresh batch of dough,
 inasmuch as you are unleavened.

For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.

Therefore, let us celebrate the feast,

not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness,

but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

GOSPEL

JN 20:1-9

On the first day of the week,

Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,
 while it was still dark,

and saw the stone removed from the tomb.

So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them,

“They have taken the Lord from the tomb,
 and we don’t know where they put him.”

So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb.

They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first;

he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in.

When Simon Peter arrived after him,

he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there,
 and the cloth that had covered his head,

not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.

Then the other disciple also went in,

the one who had arrived at the tomb first,

and he saw and believed.

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

CREATE A CLEAN HEART IN ME

A Pastoral response to pornography: USCCB

“Given how widespread and easily accessible pornography is in today’s society, everyone is vulnerable. Many people struggle with pornography use, including faithful Catholics, people of faith, people of no faith, married and single people, fathers and mothers, the young and the old, clergy and those in consecrated life. Some people have only seen pornography a handful of times, perhaps unintentionally; some view it occasionally; while others find themselves compulsively viewing pornography, perhaps despite their best intentions to resist. While more men than women use pornography, the number of women users is growing. Pornography use is especially high among young adults, and it has been reported that the average age of first exposure to pornography is as early as eight, with boys being more likely than girls to be exposed at an earlier age and to view more extreme content before the age of eighteen.

The Church as a field hospital is called to proclaim the truth of the human person in love, to protect people—especially children—from pornography, and to provide the Lord’s mercy and healing for those wounded by pornography. Many means of support are available for those who have been harmed by pornography and who desire to be free from it and its effects.”

The Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist wants to help our parishioners who struggle with viewing pornography. Your parish has teamed up with Covenant Eyes (covenanteyes.com) to help you break free from pornography. We invite any parishioner suffering from this epidemic to take advantage of 4 months free of Covenant Eyes. You have our promise of complete discretion and privacy when signing up for your safe and secure new beginning. Break the chains of pornography addiction once and for all.

To start your 4-month new beginning, please contact Deacon Daniel Gamboa, danielg@boisecathedral.org, to receive the needed program code. You may also contact Deacon Daniel if you have any questions or need ideas on how to protect your family from this epidemic.

Lent is almost over and Easter is here. Take the 21 day challenge with Strive 21 (strive21.com). It’s free and anonymous. Remember you are stronger than your weaknesses! Sign up for the 21 day challenge today and be ready to welcome the risen Lord in your heart this Easter Sunday.

CATHEDRAL BOOK SALE

Construction of the Cathedral began in 1906, but the

Join in the celebration of your Cathedral, and learn about its centennial story by getting your own copy of John O’Hagan’s book: Stone Wondrously Hewn. PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

LIFELONG CONVERSION

Every three months we rotate through a series of “stations” of faith formation based on the US Catholic Bishop’s Pastoral Plan. The elements of our present station of Sacraments/Liturgical Life defined by the pastoral plan for your consideration include:

- + Understand, live, and bear witness to the paschal mystery, celebrated and communicated through the sacramental life of the Church.
- + Learn and embrace in one's life church doctrine on the Eucharist and the other sacraments.
- + Acquire the spirituality, skills, and habits of full, conscious, and active participation in the liturgy, especially the eucharistic liturgy.
- + Value the dignity of the baptismal priesthood and of the ordained priesthood and their respective roles in liturgical celebration and Christian mission.
- + Appreciate and appropriately participate in the Church's daily prayer, the Liturgy of the Hours, and learn to pray the psalms, "an essential and permanent element of the prayer of the Church."

(See the Catechism, nos. 1066-1690; General Directory for Catechesis, nos. 84-85, 87.)

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

EASTER SUNDAY

ALLELUIA! HE IS RISEN!

Father, you make all things new,
beginning with your work in creation,
making us in your image and likeness,
giving us all good gifts.
And now, you give more.
Jesus is risen. You have raised him!
We receive this life!
Help us to respond.
Help us to offer our lives as pure gift
in imitation of the one who first loved us.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

April 4, 2021

HE IS NOT HERE! HE IS RISEN!

Today's readings: Acts of the Apostles 10:34a, 37–43; Psalm 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23; Colossians 3:1–4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b–8; Sequence: Victimae Paschali Laudes; John 20:1–9 or Mark 16:1–7 or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13–35. Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome went to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus. We can picture them, walking, carrying their spices, wondering about how they would move the stone. Perhaps these grieving women were thinking about Jesus' life and telling stories about him. They were probably raw with the emotions of the past few days.

In an instant, everything has changed. The stone is rolled back. The man in white tells them Jesus is not there, that he is risen. They are the first witnesses, the first ones to see the completely new thing God was doing. What must it have been like to see this? The Gospel of Mark says that they were amazed. They did not understand that this was good news. News that would change all of history.

Imagine that you are with the women. What do you see, smell, and hear? Write a first-person account, recording your reaction as the meaning of what you have seen comes over you, as your mind comes to the realization that Jesus is risen. Does it seem like a light has been turned on? Reread the Gospel account aloud, and invite those you are with to illustrate the story. Discuss how it feels to have this good news proclaimed. How will your life reflect the joy of this good news to all you encounter?

STUDIO 33 A.D.

This week, we featured a video with Cathedral historian John O'Hagan, author of Stone Wondrously Hewn. John shared the history of the Catholic faith in Idaho in the early days of our statehood.
