Prayer for Christian Unity

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity spans an octave, or eight-day observance, a time frame that lends significance to the week. It is a great sorrow to be separated from our brothers and sisters in Christ, unable to join around the Eucharistic table together to "do this in memory of me."

We wait in hope in a special way during this week for the day when all divisions among Christians will cease.

HYMNS

OPENING Songs of Thankfulness and Praise (# 333)

PRESENTATION Gift of Finest Wheat (# 791)

CLOSING There's a Wideness In God's Mercy (# 712)

FIRST READING

Is 62:1-5 For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.
Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands. Sing to the LORD; bless his name.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.
Announce his salvation, day after day. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.
Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name!

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.
Worship the LORD in holy attire. Tremble before him, all the earth; Say among the nations: The LORD is king. He governs the peoples with equity.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 12:4-11. Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

GOSPEL

Jn 2:1-11. There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew — the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

VOCATIONS NEWS

Jan. 16 is 'Adopt a Seminarian' Sunday here at St. John's. This weekend, sealed envelopes will be available in a basket in the vestibule and/or at the church entrance. Each envelope has a biography and picture of one of our Diocesan seminarians. Parishioners and families take an envelope and then pray for that particular seminarian. In addition to prayers, our seminarians welcome cards and letters. 'Adopt a Seminarian' is a way that Cathedral parishioners and families can prayerfully support and encourage our Idaho seminarians."
 >Feb. 6—Cathedral Clergy Appreciation Sunday.

LAST CALL: Catholic Marriage Preparation. Our annual marriage preparation class will begin on Tuesday, January 19, and run six weeks, culminating with a half-day retreat on February 26. To register, please contact the parish office at 208-342-3511. For more information, contact Deacon Bill Burns

Feb. 12th Rosary Blue Hat @ 11:30 in the chapel. This is a gathering of prayer and fellowship. There are no formal meetings or dues, just a gathering that serves as a mini-retreat. Following fellowship is held at the Cottonwood Grille. The "Blue Hat" is encouraged but not required: it's done in honor of the Mary.

Catholic Religious Orders Feature. This week we feature the Dominican order of the Catholic Church. Known also as the "order of preachers" it was founded by the Spanish priest St. Dominic and approved in 1216A.D. One of best known quotes was "a man who governs his passions is master of his world." Founded to preach the Gospel and oppose heresy, the order is famed for its intellectual tradition. They too are one of four great mendicant (requesting alms or charity) orders of the church (Franciscans, Dominicans, Augustinian & the Carmelites). Their distinctive habit is white with a black cloak. There has never been a strong presence here locally—but maybe soon?

LIFELONG FAITH FORMATION

METANOIA is the Greek word meaning a journey of changing one's mind, heart and soul. This is not secured in an instant, but represents a lifelong quest to remain engaged with matters of the spirit. This entails various dimensions that we've listed as the seven stations of LIFELONG FAITH FORMATION, based on a pastoral plan as developed by the US Catholic Bishops. We are presently in the station of Community.

Q: The communities that we find ourselves in—what can they tell us about ourselves?

A: Lots, including how committed we might be to sustain our lifelong conversion journey.

"Show me your friends and I'll show you your future" is cited in print from at least 1828 and is said to be a Spanish proverb. There is a lot of wisdom in this statement. We generally don't get to choose our family; instead the choice there is usually deciding how much—or how little—we want to get along with family. In contrast, we do choose our friends, and they become our metaphorical mirror for life. If you want to literally see what you look like physically, you look in the mirror. If you want to see what you think like, then the metaphorical mirror for this is your writing; i.e., we write ourselves to clarity. But to see our character—who we are at our core—the mirror for this is who we have chosen as our friends.

What attributes do you look for in a friend; i.e., do you include if this person can be of help to you (and you to them) in a shared spiritual journey to Christ? We are all in need of a "Faith Buddy." If you don't have a faith buddy in your life, consider where you might be able to find one including the numerous ministries listed in the middle pages of this bulletin—there too you can find faith buddies.

MARRIAGE & FAMILY

Feb 5: The Messy Family Project. Parenting Talks at Boise Centre - East.

The Office of Marriage and Family Life for the Diocese of Boise is sponsoring The Messy Family Project by Mike and Alicia Heron. They are on a mission to empower parents to embrace their sacred calling which they believe is the key to the renewal of the Church and our society. Their ministry, The Messy Family Project, began as a podcast and has grown into a multi-media platform that provides free resources to couples to help them nurture their marriage as well as build a Catholic culture within their home. Although the podcast reaches over 25,000 families every month, the Hernons also travel throughout the United States inspiring husbands and wives to have deeper conversations and giving them the insight, inspiration, and practical tools to do so. They reside in Steubenville, OH, and are parents to ten children and grandparents to five. Registration is FREE but required. For more information or if you have questions, contact our office via email: sboicourt2@rcdb.org or call 208-350-7551. To register, go to: <https://messyfamilyproject.eventbrite.com>

Feb 7: Dynamic Marriage Zoom Course

The Marriage & Family Life Office is sponsoring a DYNAMIC MARRIAGE course. This 9-week course will help couples discover how their marriage can thrive and be more fulfilling than ever thought possible. Based on the work of Dr. Willard Harley, couples learn how communication and behavior styles affect the way they act and react to each other. It's on Mondays through April 4th via Zoom. Cost is $125 (plus Eventbrite fees) per couple. Registration Deadline: Feb. 1, 2022 - Register early as this event is limited to 5 couples. Go to: <https://dynamicmarriageboise2022.eventbrite.com> If you need additional information, contact Shannon or Shelly Batman call 208-863-8568 or via email at shelly.batman63@gmail.com

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION. Our Diocese, joining with the other Catholic Dioceses in the United States, is in a three-year Eucharistic Renewal that includes a focus on Eucharistic Adoration, offering us the opportunity to pray in the company of our Lord. This can be when the church is open and entering into prayer in front of the tabernacle ("Dwelling"), or else during special times of exposition when the Blessed Sacrament is placed in a monstrance ("To Show").

Jesus knew that his Father was always near to him. God is always near to you and even more so here in the Blessed Sacrament. His loving heart is seeking you—calling out to you over the responsibilities, the noise and the distractions of daily life. Bishop Peter Christianson stated that "it's time that we come back to a deep encounter with our Lord. It's time we listen to what He speaks to our hearts. It is time we discern what is being asked of us. The time is now, and the time is right."

Come align yourself with Jesus and with each other. Come and pray. Come & listen.

"Could you not watch one hour with Me?"
~Mark 14:37

Our Eucharistic Adoration days & times:

- Cathedral Mon-Fri 9:15AM to noon (except for funerals)
- Chapel Holy Hour every Thursday 7-8PM;
- Chapel First Thursdays 8AM-8PM;
- Cathedral First Fridays 9:15-12, 1-3PM.

AVAILABLE NOW! PRINT & DIGITAL AD SPACES

The Support of Your Business is Greatly Appreciated

Shannon Miller from LPI our bulletin printer, will be securing new ads for our church the month of January. It is the support of the business community that helps to make our church thrive. Please consider purchasing a print and/or digital ad as your participation makes our bulletin successful, and you attract customers!

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for your local community; in turn, parishioners will support you!

Digital advertising allows your business to be front and center to anyone who visits a church profile page on ParishesOnline.com — that's approximately 500,000 page views per month!

EUCHARIST

BY BISHOP BARRON

MONDAYS
JANUARY 24, 2022
THRU
APRIL 4, 2022

Risen Christ
7PM Room 1

"According to a 2019 Pew Research Center survey, only 31% Catholics actually believe in transubstantiation and the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist." In other compelling words, 7 of 10 Catholics either do not believe in or question the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus' words were most prophetic: "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will not believe." (John 4:48).

Many Catholics believe this adverse trend is not so much a failure of faith as it is a failure of catechesis to teach and explain the doctrine of the Real Presence. In response to the United States Bishops' call to engage in a three-year process of Eucharist renewal, largely in answer to the growing awareness that many Catholics are not well catechized in the meaning of the Eucharist and proper disposition for receiving the Eucharist, Risen Christ will be offering Bishop Robert Barron's Word On Fire "Eucharist" program.
