CORRESPONSABILIDAD STEWARDSHIP

"Les ordenó que no llevaran nada para el camino, ni pan, ni bolsa, ni dinero en el cinturón, sino solo un bastón." Marcos 6:8

Imagínese no llevar nada sino un bastón cuando sale de viaje. Los Apóstoles deben realmente haber confiado en el cuidado Providencial de Dios. Pienso en todas las cosas materiales "sin las cuales no podemos vivir" en el mundo de hoy. Hacemos el viaje de nuestra vida más difícil por causa de todo el equipaje material que arrastramos. Poner a Dios en primer lugar en todo y poner nuestro dinero y nuestras posesiones en segundo lugar nos da la libertad, ya que no nos haremos "esclavos" siempre queriendo adquirir más cosas.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting Stewardship first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

15º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo, la Palabra de Dios nos invita a tener en cuenta dos características: "Hoy narra el momento en el que Jesús envía a los doce en misión: Se detiene en el estilo del enviado, que podemos resumir en dos puntos: la misión tiene un centro; la misión tiene un rostro. El discípulo misionero tiene antes que nada su centro de referencia, que es la persona de Jesús. Y la segunda característica del estilo misionero es, por así decir, un rostro que consiste en la pobreza de los medios. Su equipamiento responde a un criterio de sobriedad" (Papa Francisco (7/15/2018). ¿Quién es el responsable de responder al mensaje de Jesús y del Papa Francisco actualmente? Sencillamente, todos los bautizados somos enviados a llevar a cabo el mensaje de Jesús. Teniendo en cuenta que es su mensaje, no mi mensaje. Todos los bautizados somos llamados a dar testimonio del amor liberador del Reino anunciado por Jesús. Y en este tiempo de pandemia, de descontrol, de sufrimiento y de muerte, ¿qué anunciamos, qué misión y mensaje tenemos a cargo? Siempre, es la misma misión y mensaje, un anuncio de conversión, de volver nuestra mirada y corazón al Señor. Existe, tanto por hacer, mucho que sanar, mucho que curar en la familia, y en la sociedad. En resumen, reflexionemos en las últimas palabras del Evangelio de hoy: "Fueron, pues, a predicar, invitando a la conversión. Expulsaban a muchos espíritus malos y sanaban a numerosos enfermos, ungiéndoles con aceite" (Marcos 6:12). Seamos, pues, discípulos misioneros fieles y comprometidos a su Palabra. En cualquiera que sea nuestra vocación, siempre de dos en dos. ¡Misión y mensaje!

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

SALUDO DEL PASTOR
PASTOR'S GREETING

Reciban mi saludo fraterno en nuestro Señor Jesucristo, quien nos llama a ser mensajeros de Paz. Para poder cumplir con el encargo del Señor necesitamos identificar que El es quien hace la obra a través nuestro, como lo dice la carta a lo Efesios: "Bendito sea Dios, Padre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que nos ha bendecido en él con toda clase de bienes espirituales y celestiales. Él nos eligió en Cristo, antes de crear el mundo, para que fuéramos santos e irreprochables a sus ojos, por el amor, y determinó, porque así lo quiso, que, por medio de Jesucristo, fuéramos sus hijos, para que alabemos y glorifiquemos la gracia con que nos ha favorecido por medio de su Hijo Amado". Ef 1,3-6. Estemos atentos a las recomendaciones que Jesús hace cuando envió a los doce: En aquel tiempo, llamó Jesús a los Doce, los envió de dos en dos y les dio poder sobre los espíritus inmundos. Les mandó que no llevaran nada para el camino: ni pan, ni mochila, ni dinero en el cinto, sino únicamente un bastón, sandalias y una sola túnica. Y les dijo: "Cuando entren en una casa, quédense en ella hasta que se vayan de ese lugar. Si en alguna parte no los reciben ni los escuchan, al abandonar ese lugar, sacúdanse el polvo de los pies, como una advertencia para ellos". Mt6,7-12. Con estas recomendaciones El Maestro nos enseña que el seguimiento es en libertad y sin estar apegados a las cosas materiales. Feliz y bendecida semana para todos.

Receive my warmest Greetings in our Lord Jesus Christ, who calls us to be messengers of Peace. In order to fulfill the Lord's command we must identify that He is the one who does the work through us, as the letter to the Ephesians says: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved". Eph 1:3-6. Let us be attentive to the recommendations that Jesus makes when he sent the twelve: "Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." Mt 6:7-12 With these recommendations, the Teacher teaches us that following is freely and without being attached to material things. Happy and blessed week to all.
