PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

St. Austin Catholic Parish, guided and served by the Paulist Fathers, is a dynamic, urban, Roman Catholic faith community of the Diocese of Austin.

Empowered by the Word of God, formed and nourished by the Eucharist and made bold by the Holy Spirit, we strive, through prayer, education and service to others, to manifest God's transforming love in the world and to deepen our relationship with God, one another and the universal Church. Inspired by our patrons, St. Paul the Apostle and St. Augustine of Canterbury, we dedicate ourselves to Jesus Christ, and to His continuing mission to sanctify, teach, heal, reconcile and serve.

THE PAULIST FATHERS

The Missionary Society of St. Paul the Apostle was founded in 1858 as the first community of priests established in North America. They came to Austin in 1908 to establish St. Austin Catholic Parish, named to honor St. Augustine of Canterbury. The Paulist Fathers also staff St. Paul the Apostle Parish in nearby Horseshoe Bay.

FROM FR. CHUCK

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Happy Feast Day! This year the feast has added significance, because for so many Catholics the last year was an extended fast from receiving Holy Communion due to the restrictions brought on by the corona virus epidemic. Thankfully, due to the effective vaccines, many are now able to attend Mass in person and receive the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion. Of course, because of the doctrine of Concomitance, when you receive either the consecrated host, or the consecrated wine, you receive the whole Body of Christ, entire and complete.

While we are very grateful that the long fast from Holy Communion is now ending, as people are able to return to Mass in person, let us continue to remember the many Catholics all over the world who are not able to receive Holy Communion on a regular basis due to the lack of priests. In many parts of the developing world people are only able to attend Mass a few times a year when a missionary visits them. Please continue to pray for more priests to serve God's people.

Next week we will be back fully into Ordinary Time. We will be "ordinary" all the way up till next Advent in next November. That is a long stretch of ordinary. I often think of "ordinary" as meaning it is just common, usual, the same old thing, kind of boring, dull, commonplace, nothing exceptional, quotidian, ordinary. But we can also think of "ordinary" as what sustains us, in the way that sunlight is ordinary, and oxygen is ordinary, and family, friends, parish, community are ordinary. Ordinary is what is the basis of life. So as we enter now into "Ordinary Time", let us give thanks for all the "ordinary" things that sustain and nourish us.

God bless!

Fr. Chuck

Paulist Prayer for Vocations

Almighty and ever faithful God, you spoke your Word to the world in your Son, Jesus Christ, and commissioned St. Paul to bring your word to all nations and to the ends of the earth.

Your Spirit led Servant of God Isaac Hecker to proclaim your word in North America using tools of the modern age.

We ask you to call new missionaries in the line of St. Paul and Father Hecker.

May they burn with passion to give the Gospel a voice so that all may know the mystery of your love. May they follow the Lord Jesus with the zeal of St. Paul and Father Hecker as they carry on the mission of the Paulist Community.

In the power of your Holy Spirit, we ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

A REFLECTION

Christ has no body now on earth but yours;
no hands but yours; no feet but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ
must look out on the world.
Yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good.
Yours are the hands with which He is to bless His people.

~attributed to St. Teresa of Avila

Since 1908, the people of St. Austin's have worked to bring God's Word, His Love, to life through our prayers, in what we teach and learn, and with our service to others. We live out our mission inspired by the charisms of the Paulist Fathers who established our parish and have served it ever since. We reach out, bring peace, and seek unity in all we do. This Corpus Christi Sunday, we celebrate the Body and Blood of Christ and we remember that we are called to be the body of Christ in our time and place.

As we give thanks and look forward, consider the many opportunities for engagement traditionally available in our community. Take a moment for reflection. In Austin we don't have to go too far before we see a bumper sticker or a t-shirt with Gandhi's call to "Be the change you wish to see in the world."

Use this season to rest, relax, and renew. Ask the Holy Spirit to journey with you through this list of possibilities to serve as Christ's hands, feet, eyes, and heart. Aware that perhaps you've not had time to explore StAustin.org, we welcome you to linger with us there. At Summer's end, as we begin building to bring our mission to life in a new space, we'll ask you to engage your time and talent in support of these traditional, and a few new, invitations to mission and service.

As we move out into the world again, no longer together apart, we begin a new pilgrimage, a journey to bring our mission forward into the future. Over the transition we will encounter challenges, we will learn and grow, adapt and change, while staying true to our commitment to reach out, bring peace, and seek unity as we pray, learn, teach and serve. As we emerge from "apart," together let us remind one another...

PRAYER FROM A PAULIST PATRON

Let nothing trouble you.
Let nothing frighten you.
All things pass.
God does not change.
Patience achieves everything.
Whoever has God lacks nothing.
God alone suffices.

~ St. Teresa of Avila, 1515 - 1582

We give thanks for our community that makes and keeps St. Austin's true to our commitment to "Bring God's Word to Life."

GIVE

Your generosity is the primary source of the revenue that funds our mission of prayer, education, and service. Your pledge of stewardship - in simple terms, your offertory giving - enabled us to offer you meaningful liturgies and worship experiences; virtual programming in spiritual, social justice, as well community activities; and gave us the capacity to support people in great need over the course of the pandemic. As our new budget year begins, we pray that your kindness continues. Your gifts truly make a difference in what we're able to do. Thank you for your faithful Stewardship.
