Candles

Stop by the office to purchase and receive your chosen candles for the upcoming week. Candles are $5 each and they burn for 1 week. Candles are also available at the church before and after each Mass through one of the deacons. Be sure to bring exact change as they will not be able to make change.

Quinceañera

Families who plan to celebrate Quinceañeras must go to the parish office to request information and register your daughter in the Diocesan Program for Quinceañeras, 2 yrs before the event (when your daughter is 13 years old). Note that in the two most important celebrations of the liturgical year, which are Lent/ Easter & Advent/Christmas, there are no Quinceañera celebrations in the Church.

Are you receiving the weekly emails from the church? If not, send Sherri an email to sherri.haverkamp@stmaryscatholic.com with your name and email address and she will see to it that you are added to her weekly reminder/updates from the parish.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ten lepers were cured. Only one returned to give thanks. When we fall victim to entitlement, we diminish our capacity to love. Never satisfied, we walk around with outstretched arms, eagerly searching for the next thing we want so that we can acquire it ourselves. Very rarely do entitled hands hold anything to freely give away to others. Entitled hands also find it challenging to reach toward heaven in a gesture of gratitude and praise. We are often more obsessed with celebrating our victories, securing our assets, safeguarding our futures, and stacking the deck of life in our favor rather than relishing and absorbing the gift of the moment and blessings received.

Entitled people find it difficult to pray properly. When the subject of our prayer is mostly about our needs and wants, we are falling into the trap of deception. We foolishly try to convince God that our tiny worlds are of greater importance than His. In ancient times, people would offer sacrifices to “the gods” to secure protection and favors. Our God desires mercy, not sacrifice, because He is about love and justice, not simply meeting our agendas. Every breath is a gift. Prayer, which is a celebration of that gift, acknowledges the Giver. Prayer strengthens the bond between Giver and receiver, creating a deepening awareness that nothing I am or anything I have can exist apart from His Divine Will. It also reminds us that we have done nothing to merit the unconditional love and mercy God showers upon us. Prayer is not just about getting what I need but celebrating who I am.

For St. Therese of Lisieux prayer is “a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.” When our hearts “surge” toward God, we rush to the Source of our restoration and wholeness, knowing our longing for God’s Divine embrace. Prayer is a response to God’s graciousness with an act of gratitude returned by us. In prayer, we gaze upon each other in that sacred space where I give myself to God as He is, and God gives Himself to me as I am. We cannot take another step without saying thank you.

“Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” Luke 17:18

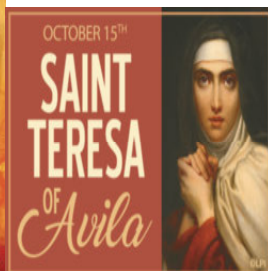

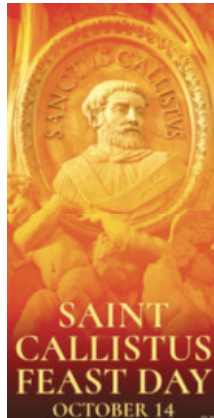

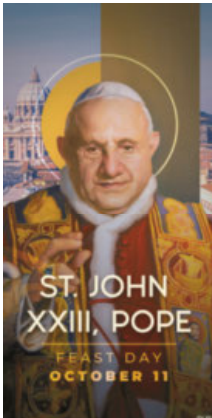

Most of us live relatively “easy” lives. We have food, shelter, clothing and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to share your gifts.

The Zeal of the Convert

When you work in the Church, professionally or on a volunteer basis, you become familiar with the phenomenon known as "the zeal of the recent convert."

Sometimes, it really seems that the newly baptized are just stronger Catholics than the cradle Catholics. They smile more at Mass. They are awestruck by the Eucharist. They come out of the confessional beaming.

It's not that they are naive. It's not that they are in some honeymoon phase of religion, living outside of reality. It's simply that they remember. They remember what it felt like before the Eucharist or before Confession. They recall before the sacraments and the oil and the grace and the relief. It was more recent for them than for some of us older Catholics — especially those of us who were baptized as infants.

Let's ask ourselves: Have we become too comfortable? Do we receive God's grace with expectation instead of surprise? Have we ceased to marvel and wonder at the goodness of God? If the answer is a resounding yes, don't despair. Look at the Gospel — a literal nine times out of ten, God goes un-thanked and un-noticed.

So many of us have forgotten, or never understood, what it meant when the leprosy was washed from our souls. But when we remind ourselves, we become more keenly aware of the extraordinariness of the gift we have received.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

28° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El ser agradecido trae nuevos beneficios, el saber dar gracias es una gracia de un corazón que sabe que necesita de Dios y de los demás. Hay personas que saben agradecer cuando les haces un favor, de alguna manera dan las gracias. ¡Qué gran satisfacción! Sin embargo, hoy al final del relato del Evangelio, Jesús se sorprende que solamente uno, de los diez leproso que sanó, regresa para darle las gracias. “¿No han sido sanados los diez? ¿Dónde están los otros nueve? ¿Así que ninguno volvió a glorificar a Dios fuera de este extranjero? Y Jesús le dijo: Levántate y vete; tu fe te ha salvado” (Lucas 17,17-19).

En su catequesis de este domingo, el Papa Francisco nos exhorta a saber agradecer con la siguiente reflexión: “Qué importante es saber agradecer al Señor, saber alabarlo por todo lo que hace por nosotros. Y así, nos podemos preguntar: ¿Somos capaces de saber dar gracias? ¿Cuántas veces nos decimos gracias en familia, en la comunidad, en la Iglesia? ¿Cuántas veces damos gracias a quien nos ayuda, a quien está cerca de nosotros, a quien nos acompaña en la vida? Con frecuencia damos todo por descontado”. Y a Dios, ¿sabemos agradecerle por la vida, la salud, el trabajo y por tanto amor que nos brinda día a día? “Es fácil ir al Señor para pedirle algo, pero regresar a darle gracias... Por eso Jesús remarca con fuerza la negligencia de los nueve leproso desagradecidos”. Y ese era un extranjero. ¿Qué te parece? ©LPi

La Corresponsabilidad

“¿No hubo ninguno que regresara a dar gloria a Dios, excepto este extranjero?”
Lucas 17:18.

La mayoría de nosotros ha tenido vidas relativamente <fáciles>. Tenemos comida, un techo, vestidos y dinero. Vamos de vacaciones una vez al año y tenemos uno o dos automóviles. La mayoría de nosotros da todo eso por sentado. ¿alguna vez ha notado que las personas con menos posesiones son usualmente las más agradecidas? ¿No debería ser lo contrario? Tome tiempo cada día para darle gracias a Dios por todo lo que Él le ha dado y discierna como Dios lo llama a compartir sus dones.
