27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

El les respondió: "¿Qué les prescribió Moisés?" Ellos contestaron: "Moisés nos permitió el divorcio mediante la entrega de un acta de divorcio a la esposa". Jesús les dijo: "Moisés prescribió esto, debido a la dureza del corazón de ustedes. Pero desde el principio, al crearlos, Dios los hizo hombre y mujer". - Mc 10, 3-6

Buena Nueva

Amor Sobrenatural en el Matrimonio

¿Amas a alguien que no retribuye tu amor? ¿Has experimentado el amor sobrenatural de Dios, ayudándote a amar a aquellos que es difícil amar?

Para aquellos de nosotros que estamos casados, esperamos ser amados por nuestros cónyuges, según nuestra necesidad de ser amados. Y asumimos que siempre va a ser mutuo: siempre seremos amados por nuestro cónyuge con la misma pasión con que nosotros le amamos.

Sin embargo, muchos matrimonios encuentran dificultades que requieren un amor sobrenatural, así como una resistencia sobrenatural. Por eso es que necesitamos el Sacramento del Matrimonio en vez de una ceremonia civil en el juzgado o en la playa. Los matrimonios necesitan la gracia divina que Dios provee para perseverar.

En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús nos explica que la ley de Moisés permitía el divorcio (Deut 24, 1) por la dureza de los corazones de las personas. Esto no es un aval para divorciarse. Él quiere que nuestros corazones sean igual al suyo, que nunca deja de amar a nadie.

En los tiempos de Moisés, cuando el matrimonio se complicaba o era insatisfactorio, muchos hombres abandonaban a sus esposas. A pesar que el matrimonio desde el principio (Génesis Capítulo 1) se suponía que era un convenio permanente que unía a un hombre con una mujer, un acta de divorcio le permitía a una mujer abandonada o repudiada volver a casarse para su protección. La intención nunca fue una aprobación del divorcio.

El matrimonio es un reflejo de la fidelidad de la unión que Dios tiene con nosotros. La perdurabilidad del matrimonio es un don divino de Dios, que nos permite reflejarlo a Él. Si nosotros no creemos en la perdurabilidad del amor dentro del matrimonio, ¿cómo pretendemos creer que Dios nos va a amar siempre - aun cuando no lo merezcamos? ¿Y cómo lo creerán nuestros hijos y las demás personas que nos observan?

Recuerden, a veces el amante va a la Cruz por el amado. La vocación del matrimonio ordena a los esposos que sean un reflejo de la pasión de Cristo por nosotros.

Dios nunca nos obliga a permanecer "casados" con Él. Él nos ama, aunque nos alejemos de Él. Igualmente, un cónyuge no amado es llamado por Dios para continuar amando al que abandona el matrimonio, aunque solo sea de lejos. Esto también es válido para cualquier amistad ordenada según Dios, entre sacerdotes y los laicos a los que ellos sirven, así como los padres con sus hijos.

Preguntas para Reflexión Personal:
¿Has renunciado alguna vez a una relación, porque era muy difícil? ¿Dejaste de amar realmente a esa persona? ¿De qué manera manejaste tú esa relación, como lo haría, o como no lo haría, el corazón de Cristo?

Good News Reflection

Supernatural Love in Marriage

Do you love someone who isn't loving you back? Have you experienced God's supernatural love helping you love those who are difficult to love?

For those of us who are married, we expect to be loved by our spouses as much as we need to be loved. And we assume that it's always going to be mutual: We will always be loved by our spouse with the same passion as we love them.

However, most marriages enter difficulties that require supernatural love as well as supernatural persistence. That's why we need the Sacrament of Matrimony instead of just a civil ceremony at the courthouse or beach. Marriages need divine grace to endure with the permanence that God rovides.

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus explains that the law of Moses permitted divorce (Deut. 24:1) because of the hardness of people's hearts. This is not an approval of divorce. He wants us to have hearts like his own, which never stops loving anyone.

In the days of Moses, when a marriage became difficult or unsatisfying, many men abandoned their wives. Although marriage was, from the beginning (Genesis Chapter 1) supposed to be a permanent covenant that united one man with one woman, a bill of divorce would allow an abandoned or rejected woman to remarry for her protection. It was never intended to be an approval of divorce.

Marriage is a reflection of God's faithful union with us. Permanence in marriage is a divine gift from God so that we can reflect him well. If we don't believe in the permanence of love within marriage, how can we believe that God is always in love with us -- including when we don't deserve it? And how can the children and others who watch us believe?

Remember, sometimes the lover goes to the Cross for the beloved. The vocation of marriage ordains the spouses to be a reflection of Christ's passion for all.

God never forces us to stay "married" to him. He loves us even when we turn away from him. Likewise, an unloved spouse is called by God to continue loving the one who abandons the marriage, even if only from afar. This is also true in any God-ordained friendships, and between priests and the laity they serve, and parents with their children.

Questions for Personal Reflection:
Have you ever quit a relationship because it was too hard? Did you really stop loving that person? How is the way you handled it like or unlike the heart of Christ?

Stewardship Reflection

"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (GENESIS 2:19)

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

Reflexiones

"Entonces el Señor Dios formó de la tierra a todos los animales del campo y las aves del cielo, y se los llevó al hombre para que pudiera nombrarlos; y el hombre les puso nombre a todas las criaturas vivientes, y ese fue su nombre." (GÉNESIS 2:19)

La historia de la creación nos recuerda dos puntos importantes. Primero, desde el inicio, Dios puso el mundo entero bajo nuestro cuidado. Segundo, la corresponsabilidad ha existido desde el inicio de la humanidad, no es algo que ha sido recientemente inventado por la Iglesia. Así como las generaciones pasadas construyeron nuestra Iglesia, nuestra responsabilidad ahora es continuar cuidándola y desarrollando estos dones para las generaciones futuras.
