The Baptism of Our Lord

"John answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...' " Luke 3:16

The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.

El Bautismo de Nuestro Se1or

"Juan les respondi3, 'Yo bautizo con agua; pero ya viene el que es m1s poderoso ...1l los bautizar1 con el Esp1ritu Santo...' " Lucas 3:16

El Catecismo Cat3lico establece que "la inmersi3n de Jes3s en el agua es una se1al para todos los seres humanos de la necesidad de morir para cumplir la voluntad de Dios". En otras palabras, como Cat3licos bautizados solo necesitamos darle un don a Jes3s - el don de nosotros mismos. R1ndete ante Dios, coloca tu confianza en 1l y permite al Esp1ritu Santo trabajar a trav1s de ti para la mayor gloria de Dios.

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”
-Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor se da por terminado el tiempo de Navidad. El Bautismo de Jesús es como una nueva epifanía, es decir, una nueva manifestación de Dios por medio de Jesús ahora en el Jordán. “El Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él y se manifestó exteriormente en forma de paloma, y del cielo vino una voz: Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida” (Lucas 3,22). La revelación del Padre se manifiesta proclamando a Jesús como su Hijo.

El Papa Francisco en una de sus catequesis lo muestra en tres puntos muy importantes para todos los que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo Jesús: “Jesús quiso recibir el bautismo predicado y administrado por Juan el Bautista en el Jordán. ¡Cuánta humildad tiene Jesús! Y al hacerlo, manifestó lo que hemos celebrado en Navidad: sumergirse en el río de la humanidad”. Jesús, va con todo a lo que refiere la cuestión humana, menos en el pecado. “El Evangelio subraya que Jesús, apenas salió del agua vio rasgarse los cielos y el Espíritu que bajaba hacia él como una paloma. El Espíritu Santo desciende en plenitud sobre Jesús para darle la fortaleza de cumplir su misión”. Por medio de nuestra vocación es que tenemos nuestra misión en la vida. ¿Cómo la estamos cumpliendo? “La fiesta del bautismo de Jesús invita a cada cristiano a recordar su bautismo”. ¿Sabes, o recuerdas la fecha de tu bautismo? Hay que preguntar sobre ese día y de cómo se celebró la fiesta de hacernos hijos e hijas de Dios. (Papa Francisco 1/7/2018).

Employment Opportunities at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Community

Director of Liturgy & Music

The Director of Liturgy & Music is responsible for facilitating the worship life of the parish community by developing, coordinating and providing quality liturgical and musical experiences which celebrate and strengthen the parish's journey of faith especially through the Eucharist. This position requires variable hours and on call response after regular business hours to meet the needs of the parish. It also requires weekend, holiday and evening work for events or the ability to arrange coverage.

Communications Coordinator

The Communications Coordinator is a part-time member of the staff of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Community. The Communications Coordinator will work closely with staff and volunteers to create, organize, plan and implement an effective communications plan both internally and externally to meet the needs of the parish and to convey the parish mission and vision. Cardinal DiNardo calls Catholics back to Mass in the New Year

“We have entered the season of Christmas, the time of the Church year when we focus our meditations and prayers on the great gift of the Incarnation, God taking on human flesh for our redemption. This is a season of hope, a season when we hold fast to the reality that God is faithful.

For nearly two years now, we have lived through the difficulties of the coronavirus pandemic. At the outset of the pandemic, I enacted several protocols for the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy in order to mitigate against the spread of COVID-19 at our parish churches. Over time, I have adjusted some protocols or given discretion for local pastors to use their best judgment.

In the spring of 2020, I decreed a general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. I did so in order to instill peace of mind among all the faithful, especially those who would sincerely desire to fulfill their Mass obligations while also harboring serious concerns for contracting the coronavirus.

Just as I have made changes to other protocols, I now announce a change for the dispensation from the Sunday and Holy Day Mass obligation. Effective Jan. 2, 2022, the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord, this dispensation is removed for all Catholics within the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. The faithful should fulfill their Sunday and Holy Day obligations joyfully and conscientiously.

At the same time, I remind everyone that, from the Church’s law itself, the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday or a Holy Day of Obligation is not morally binding for those who find it impossible to attend Mass, e.g., due to illness, advanced age, caring for a sick person, or being at high-risk for contracting COVID-19 (cf. Canon, 1248). These persons should fulfill their obligations at home through some act of prayer or meditation upon the sacred scriptures for the Mass of the day.

When there was great uncertainty about the manner of transmitting COVID-19, I suspended the use of holy water in our churches. I have recently directed pastors to resume the use of holy water beginning on Sunday, Jan. 2, 2022.

May the peace that comes from the Lord Jesus Christ fill your hearts now and always.”

Daniel Cardinal DiNardo

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF GALVESTON-HOUSTON

El Cardenal DiNardo llama a los católicos de regreso a la misa en el Año Nuevo

“Hemos entrado en la temporada de Navidad, el tiempo del año de la Iglesia cuando enfocamos nuestras meditaciones y oraciones en el gran don de la Encarnación, Dios en carne humana para nuestra redención. Esta es una temporada de esperanza, una temporada en la que nos aferramos a la realidad de que Dios es fiel.

Desde hace casi dos años, hemos vivido las dificultades de la pandemia del coronavirus. Al comienzo de la pandemia, promulgué varios protocolos para la celebración de la Sagrada Liturgia con el fin de mitigar la propagación de COVID- 9 en nuestras iglesias parroquiales. Con el tiempo, he ajustado algunos protocolos o he dado discreción para que los pastores locales usen su mejor juicio.

En la primavera de 2020, decreté una dispensación general de la obligación de asistir a la Misa los domingos y días santos de obligación. Lo hice para inculcar la paz mental entre todos los fieles, especialmente aquellos que desearían sinceramente cumplir sus obligaciones de Misa, al tiempo que albergaban serias preocupaciones por contraer el coronavirus.

Así como he hecho cambios a otros protocolos, ahora anuncio un cambio para la dispensación de la obligación de la Misa del Domingo y del Día Santo. A partir del 2 de enero de 2022, la solemnidad de a Epifanía del Señor, esta dispensación es removida para todos los católicos dentro de la Arquidiócesis de Galveston-Houston. Los fieles deben cumplir sus obligaciones del domingo y del día santo con alegría y conciencia.

Al mismo tiempo, recuerdo a todos que, de la propia ley de la Iglesia, la obligación de asistir a la Misa del domingo o a un día santo de obligación no es moralmente vinculante para quienes encuentran imposible asistir a la Misa, por ejemplo, debido a enfermedad, edad avanzada, cuidado de un enfermo, O estar en alto riesgo de contraer COVID-19 (cf Canon, 1248). Estas personas deben cumplir con sus obligaciones en el hogar a través de algún acto de oración o meditación sobre las sagradas escrituras para la Misa del día.

Cuando había gran incertidumbre acerca de la manera de transmitir COVID-19, suspendimos el uso del agua santa en nuestras iglesias. Recientemente he ordenado a los pastores que reanuden el uso del agua santa a partir del domingo 2 de enero de 2022.

Que la paz que viene del Señor Jesucristo llene sus corazones ahora y siempre.”

MISSION

Find out what makes God happy. As a family, read John 15:9-12.

GOSPEL

Your Dad says, "Wash your hands, please. It is almost time to eat." After you wash your hands really well, your Dad smiles. He says, "That's my boy. You did a good job!" In today's Gospel, it was time for Jesus to be baptized. After his baptism, Jesus talked to God his Father in prayer. Jesus did everything his Father asked. God was happy with his Son and said, "I'm pleased with you."

EVANGELIO

Tu papá dice: "Lávate las manos, por favor. Es casi la hora de comer". Después de lavarte las manos muy bien, tu papá sonríe. Él dice: "Ese es mi niño. ¡Hiciste un buen trabajo!" En el Evangelio de hoy, era hora de que Jesús fuera bautizado. Después de su bautismo, Jesús habló con Dios su Padre en oración. Jesús hizo todo lo que su Padre le pidió. Dios estaba feliz con su Hijo y dijo: "Estoy contento contigo".

PRAYER

God, I want to make you and my parents happy.

ORACIÓN

Dios, quiero hacerte feliz a ti y a mis padres.
