NOTES FROM FR. ORRIN

Dear People of God,

This year marks the 86th Annual Holy Rosary Fall Bazaar, our first in-person fundraising celebration in three years!

Whether you've been a parishioner here your entire life or just recently joined our parish, we need everyone's help to make this Bazaar a success. The day will be filled with many activities for you to enjoy including some fun additions.

Holy Rosary Church has been an integral part of the Rosenberg community for 111 years. Our parish is growing as we welcome new parishioners every week. Our growth means we have increasing needs for our parish family, and our Bazaar always has been our biggest fundraiser to meet these financial challenges.

On Bazaar day, all of our wonderful, air-conditioned buildings will be in full use to offset our hot, Texas weather, and the newly created KID ZONE area will be located under the shady trees of our beautiful parish grounds -- full of activities and games for the children.

We've taken a slightly different approach to the Bazaar this year. It will be on a Saturday instead of a Sunday, and a variety of food choices will be available throughout the day instead of one main meal. Those food choices will be available out of both kitchens to service the activities taking place in the various buildings. You won't have to venture very far to grab a bite to eat or something cold to drink!

Please invite your co-workers, neighbors, friends and family to come out and have loads of fun with us at the 86th ANNUAL HOLY ROSARY BAZAAR!

In the tradition of Holy Rosary parishioners for the last 85 years, I ask that you make a personal commitment to the financial success of our Bazaar by volunteering to work, donating the requested items, and participating in the full day of activities.

We look forward to visiting with all our old friends, making new friends, and working together as a parish at this year's 86th Annual Holy Rosary Bazaar!

May God continue to pour His blessings out on this endeavor and Holy Rosary Parish!

Fr. Orrin

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

Attention Parishioners...

MASS SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS

To better serve our parish and to be good stewards of our resources (volunteers, staff, etc.), there are some adjustments being made to the weekend Mass schedule for the summer. This adjusted schedule impacts the Saturday Vigil Mass celebrations. Saturday Mass will only be held at St. Wenceslaus. This Mass will remain at 4pm, however when we have a visiting priest (which will be the case over the summer on a few occasions), the Mass time will be moved to 6pm to accommodate the availability of the guest clergy.

There will be NO Saturday Masses at Holy Rosary Catholic Church. Mass times and locations for Sunday will remain the same (7am, 9am, and 11:30am at Holy Rosary).

Upcoming Masses at St. Wenceslaus:

July 9th—6pm | July 16th—6pm

July 23rd—4pm | July 30th—4pm

We understand that those who attend the 6pm Saturday Mass at Holy Rosary will be the ones most greatly affected by this new schedule. Thank you for your understanding and patience as we make these necessary adjustments.

As always, your involvement as part of the Holy Rosary Parish family is most appreciated. We are so happy you are here!

BEWARE OF EMAIL SCAMMERS

Frequently, we have experienced staff and/or parishioners receiving emails claiming to be from Fr. Orrin. They will typically state something such as "I have a request that I need your to handle discreetly. Please reply to my email." Correspondence will typically result in a request to purchase gift cards or wire money. Father does not send emails like this, though they may have his name, so please do not respond to these emails. It is unfortunate that individuals take advantage of others in this manner, but we want you all to be prepared if it happens.

GOSPEL MEDITATION—July 3, 2022

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, “the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited.” That same dictionary defines liberty as, “the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to.” Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that “the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ.” There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one’s soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one’s character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. “I am sending you like lambs among wolves,” Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That’s what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

Jesus sent out 72 of his followers to spread the good news about God. They were not to bring anything with them—no food, no extra clothes or shoes, not even money to spend. They were to visit strangers and completely depend on God to give them what they needed. That took a lot of faith!
