MASS SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS

To better serve our parish and to be good stewards of our resources (volunteers, staff, etc.), there are some adjustments being made to the weekend Mass schedule for the summer. This adjusted schedule impacts the Saturday Vigil Mass celebrations. Saturday Mass will only be held at St. Wenceslaus. This Mass will remain at 4pm, however when we have a visiting priest (which will be the case over the summer on a few occasions), the Mass time will be moved to 6pm to accommodate the availability of the guest clergy.

There will be NO Saturday Masses at Holy Rosary Catholic Church. Mass times and locations for Sunday will remain the same (7am, 9am, and 11:30am at Holy Rosary).

Upcoming Masses at St. Wenceslaus:

July 16th—6pm

July 23rd—4pm | July 30th—4pm

We understand that those who attend the 6pm Saturday Mass at Holy Rosary will be the ones most greatly affected by this new schedule. Thank you for your understanding and patience as we make these necessary adjustments.

As always, your involvement as part of the Holy Rosary Parish family is most appreciated. We are so happy you are here!

BEWARE OF EMAIL SCAMMERS

Frequently, we have experienced staff and/or parishioners receiving emails claiming to be from Fr. Orrin. These will typically state something such as "I have a request that I need your to handle discreetly. Please reply to my email."

Correspondence will typically result in a request to purchase gift cards or wire money. Father does not send emails like this, though they may have his name, so please do not respond to these emails. It is unfortunate that individuals take advantage of others in this manner, but we want you all to be prepared if it happens.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

What Jesus Doesn't Say

"If Jesus wanted us to (fill in the blank), he would have said so."

We hear this argument applied to every controversial topic under the sun — and even some not-so-controversial topics, too. Whenever someone is trying to make a case for a decision they have already made, they call in Jesus' scriptural silence on the matter as their expert, unimpeachable witness.

And sure, there's much Jesus doesn't talk about in the Gospels. But by this logic, we would have to assume that Jesus doesn't care, for instance, if we drive well over the speed limit (he doesn't discuss cars and highways in the Bible) or what we do online (he never mentions the Internet or websites at all!), when we know that certainly is just not the case.

Like the scholar of the Jewish law who challenges Jesus to define who exactly his "neighbor" is, we can argue semantics all we want. But if we rest in prayer and look deep into our hearts, we know what path we need to take, and it's usually not the easy one.

I find that I do this plenty in ways that are far more subtle. I lament that the situation facing me is not sufficiently "black and white." I become frustrated by the shades of moral grey and toss up my hands, claiming I don't know what the right answer is, insisting that I can't be blamed for the ramifications of whatever decision I make.

What I need to be doing in these situations is asking God for His guidance, even if it makes me nervous. I need to be like the scholar. He was brave enough to ask, even though I think he knew he wouldn't particularly like the answer. Let's strive for that same courage.

GOSPEL MEDITATION—July 10, 2022

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

"We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers)." It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin.

God's law "is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules.

MISSION

Ask your parents if your family could give money to help the missions in another country.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus wants you to love your neighbors. He wants you to help your neighbors. You could help the people who live next door, or the people that go to your church. But Jesus wants you to think bigger than that. Jesus wants you to help people all around the world—no matter where they live, and no matter what they believe.

PRAYER

Dear God, show me how to help others around the world.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of people holding hands all around the world. They are all your neighbors.

Holy Rosary Give Back Program

If you contact me to help you buy or sell a home, I will donate 5% of that earned commission back to Holy Rosary Catholic School in your name.

Not thinking about buying or selling a home? That's ok! You can still support our school by referring anyone you know. If they buy or sell a home, that referral will earn our school the 5% Give Back in your name.

Supporting our school together one house at a time!
