Thanks be to God! It is with great joy that we announce the arrival of the new Parochial Vicar for Holy Rosary Parish – Fr. Vipin George!

Fr. Vipin comes to us from India and is part of the Missionaries of St. Francis de Sales. We are filled with thanksgiving that the Lord has provided another priest for us and we look forward to having him continue his ministry here at Holy Rosary Church & School in Rosenberg and St. Wenceslaus in Beasley. When you see him, please say hello and welcome him to the Holy Rosary Parish community!

The addition of a Parochial Vicar allows us an opportunity to provide more Mass times and more efficiently and effectively serve the spiritual needs of our parishioners. For this, we are immensely grateful.

BEGINNING MONDAY, JULY 25TH, the daily and weekend Mass schedule will have the following additions:

- Daily Mass on Mondays, 8:15am at Holy Rosary (Marian Hall)
- Additional Daily Mass on Thursdays, 6:30pm at St. Wenceslaus
- Weekend Mass on Saturdays, 6:00pm at Holy Rosary (Parish Hall)

The complete list of Mass times is on the front of this bulletin and on our website.

We know that the best is yet to come as we look forward to being good stewards of the blessings we have been provided. Indeed, God is good!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

When I Called, You Answered

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we'll find out they're a direct descendant of a dead president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they'll say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable.

Too often we fall into a pattern of entitlement, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want is going to roll on past us, and we'll barely even have to extend our arms. We read our Bible and we hear all these amazing promises from the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. He's got this, we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for stop signs and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be an active, receptive participant in our own salvation. See his patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the righteous of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

He wants us to stay awake for the drive.

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL MEDITATION—July 24, 2022

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Meister Eckhart asks, “Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?” He answers, “God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: ‘You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!’ Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God.” We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God’s will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. “Thy will be done” is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call “Father.” We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That’s what makes the Lord’s Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one’s darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus’ conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God’s most perfect gifts and all we really need.

The Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the church will blossom.

- Pope Saint John Paul II

GOD IS DOING SOMETHING NEW AND HE IS CALLING YOU TO BE A PART OF IT!

Ready to be a part of something life-changing? Jesus needs each one of us to be his hands and feet throughout this Eucharistic Revival. We're seeking laypeople, families, religious orders, and priests to volunteer their time, talents, and prayers in pursuit of the grassroots renewal our world so desperately needs.

Just as many humble pieces come together to form a glorious stained-glass image, so too will God use each of us, however ordinary or imperfect, to bring about this Revival. He only asks that you listen for his voice! There are three opportunities for participation—

- 1) Become a Prayer Partner,
- 2) Share a Testimony, and/or
- 3) Call on the Holy Spirit.

Visit eucharisticrevival.org/get-involved to learn more about each of these opportunities! Contact Leann Jerkins or Fr. Orrin if you would like to find out how you can help!

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Luke 11:1-13

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

You are not ashamed to keep on asking.

MISSION

Make time to pray every day this week.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Do you know how to pray? All you need to do is talk to God. He is your loving Father. Tell Him how you would like to make him happy. Ask Him to give you the things you really need. Ask Him to help you forgive other people, just like He forgives you. God loves you, so talk to him often.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for loving me and listening to me.

Holy Rosary Give Back Program

If you contact me to help you buy or sell a home, I will donate 5% of that earned commission back to Holy Rosary Catholic School in your name.

Not thinking about buying or selling a home? That's ok! You can still support our school by referring anyone you know. If they buy or sell a home, that referral will earn our school the 5% Give Back in your name.

Supporting our school together one house at a time!
