NOTES FROM FR. ORRIN

Dear People of God,

In great excitement, we continue to welcome our new Principal Adrienne Rodriguez and our new Parochial Vicar Fr. Vipin George!!! They are an amazing addition to our already great staff at the school and church. They complete us and I am so excited about what is possible in the year to come.

I wanted to briefly go over with you the three Committees that I mentioned in my homily this past weekend:

1. Vocations Action Committee—A committee to promote vocations of all types in our parish community. We need to promote and provide fertile soil so that all young men and women can discern and answer God's call in their life. We need priests, so we need to take action now. We need to promote the family which provides the Church with Priests, Sisters, and Parents!!! Families provide the essential building blocks of the Church. Your answer to God's call is important to the whole Church.

2. Pro-life Action Committee—In light of the news, the turnover of Roe Vs. Wade means that we the Church have a greater responsibility to serve moms who choose life. We have to serve and help children from the womb until they are adults that can share their gifts with the world. We also must walk the journey with those who have had abortions. We have to let them know that we love them, want them at Church, and are here to walk with them on their journey of healing. We must protect all life!!!

3. Eucharistic Action Committee—With the call from the local Church in the United States to remember our belief in the Eucharist, we must actively evangelize each person in our parish community. We must promote prayer and a place for all to experience the power in our Lord's Body and Blood. We must make sure that all know the possibilities of the sacrifice that has eternal effects on us all!!!

These Committees are so essential that the whole Body of Christ in the local Church has to get involved and make these ministries lively as to promote the beautiful realities of Life, Vocation, and Eucharistic mysteries!!! I would like to thank the many people who signed up last weekend at Mass!!! It's not too late to sign up!!! Please call Heather to join these exciting possibilities!!!

Last but not least, we pray that all our students are having a great and restful summer and can't wait to have you return on Tuesday, August 16th. Let's keep each other in prayer.

Thanks and God bless you,

Fr. Orrin

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

What We Store in the Barn

I once knew a godly woman who had truly tasted the bitterness of this earthly life. This woman knew pain. She knew sacrifice. She knew hard labor and loss, including the death of a cherished child. She worked each day at a low-paying job, waiting patiently for her 65th birthday, when she could retire and devote herself full-time to her grandchildren. She crossed off the dwindling days on her calendar like a first grader waiting for Christmas.

Ninety-eight days before she was set to retire, she died suddenly. Her name was erased from the schedule at work and penciled over with that of her replacement hire.

All things are vanity.

I think we all know someone like this, don't we? If the details aren't exactly the same, the outline of the story is: someone labors "with wisdom and knowledge and skill," in the words of Ecclesiastes. And what profit comes to him? Sorrow and grief all his days. The proverbial barn filled with harvest and left to rot.

But I'll let you in on a secret: this isn't a sad story. I've only told you part of it.

This woman heard, daily, the voice of God, and against it she never hardened her heart, whatever news it brought her. This woman loved as hard as she worked. Every action was a form of evangelization. To talk to her was to feel the embrace of Christ.

As much as she waited for that retirement that never came, it was never the harvest in her barn.

This is what it means to be a true steward: to seek what is above.

LIVING OUR FAITH

GOSPEL MEDITATION—July 31, 2022

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime “in the future” while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. “Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom).” We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

GOD IS DOING SOMETHING NEW AND HE IS CALLING YOU TO BE A PART OF IT!

Ready to be a part of something life-changing? Jesus needs each one of us to be his hands and feet throughout this Eucharistic Revival. We're seeking laypeople, families, religious orders, and priests to volunteer their time, talents, and prayers in pursuit of the grassroots renewal our world so desperately needs.

Just as many humble pieces come together to form a glorious stained-glass image, so too will God use each of us, however ordinary or imperfect, to bring about this Revival. He only asks that you listen for his voice! There are three opportunities for participation—

The Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the church will blossom.

- Pope Saint John Paul II

- 1) Become a Prayer Partner,
- 2) Share a Testimony, and/or
- 3) Call on the Holy Spirit.

MISSION

When you get home, pack three toys and three books to give to children without any.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When you put Jesus first in your life, you will have everything you need. Having a lot of stuff won't really make you or God happy. God doesn't want you to keep your blessings to yourself. God wants you to share what he has given you. Be "rich" in only the things that God cares about. The closer you grow with God, the happier you will be.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to remember what is really important to you.

Holy Rosary Give Back Program

If you contact me to help you buy or sell a home, I will donate 5% of that earned commission back to Holy Rosary Catholic School in your name.

Not thinking about buying or selling a home? That's ok! You can still support our school by referring anyone you know. If they buy or sell a home, that referral will earn our school the 5% Give Back in your name.

Supporting our school together one house at a time!
