22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." - Lk 14:13-14

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to be a welcoming Catholic community by living our faith fully, sharing that faith freely, and transforming our world, discerning the will of God the Father, understood through the love of His Son Jesus Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit.

The foundation of our parish life is praise, worship, and the sacraments. Strengthened by them, we strive to deepen our relationship with Christ and to meet the needs of others through a variety of ministries that include evangelization, education, spiritual enrichment and service to our growing community. Guided by the example of our patroness, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, "we seek to do small things well for the glory of God."

Meet the Staff

Hello everyone,

My name is Elias Damian, and I'm excited to join you as the new Facilities Manager for both the Parish and Notre Dame Academy. I'll be overseeing the maintenance and needs of our buildings—from plumbing to solar energy—and supporting events whenever needed.

A little about me: I'm originally from Mexico and had the opportunity to serve a mission for my church, an experience that deeply shaped my leadership skills and devotion to God. I'm currently pursuing a degree in Industrial/Manufacturing Engineering. Outside of work and school, I'm a car enthusiast, avid reader, gamer, and a fan of exploring new food spots. I'm also working on becoming more of a "nature person."

I look forward to getting to know each of you and working together!

Best,
Elias Damian

Prayer

Dear God, help me to be a good friend.

Mission for the Week

When you sit down with your family for dinner tonight, ask if you can serve the food. You may surprise your parents and get some pretty big smiles from them.

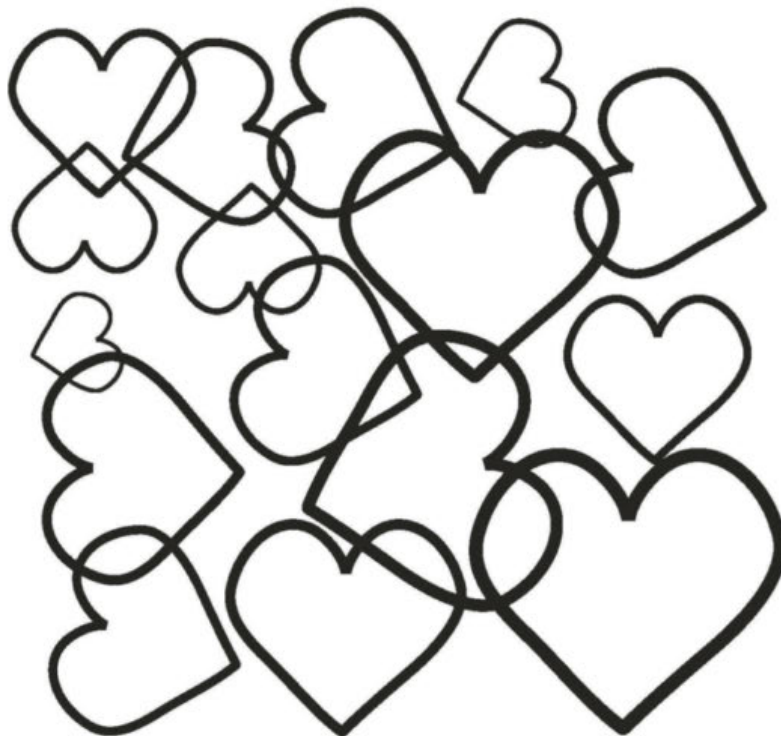

Sharing the Gospel

If you act bossy, you might get your way, but you won't make many friends. Jesus shared a secret about making friends. When you treat other kids with kindness, they will want to be your friends. Instead of telling other kids what to do, ask other kids to choose a game. If you want to play tag with other kids, offer to be "it" first. If it is time to line up to go outside, offer to go to the back of the line and let other kids in front of you.

Now color the picture!

How many hearts can you count?

The answer is sixteen.

Mini Reflection: I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

What Did You Expect?

Moms have a lot of jobs, and it's usually the case that none of them pay very well.

My work as a chef? Zero compensation, and my clientele are very rarely pleased with my efforts. My role as a teacher, a maid, a chauffeur, a therapist — same deal. Ironically, these jobs consume so much of my time that I am constricted in my work as a writer — the only sphere where I do actually garner any earnings.

It is so easy to grumble about all of this, and I do it all the time. Because despite the fact that I know better, I expect repayment for my good deeds. Deep in my soul, I expect it.

That's a huge problem.

In my defense, I don't think this is a very uncommon thing. I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. We want our day to go smoothly. We expect these things as a matter of course; we feel entitled to them, and we become grumpy when we are denied them. I worked so hard. I gave so much. What was it all even for?

But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

When you hold a banquet, Jesus said, invite those who cannot return the favor. Give not just without the expectation of repayment, but without the possibility of it.

Think about that for a minute. What does that even look like — no possibility of payment?

I know what that looks like in my own life. It's giving more to the literal poor, yes, but it's also giving more — and more happily, more lovingly — when I cook and clean and drive and write and console. It's not lamenting that no one appreciates me — it's actually hoping no one does.

It's learning to love the lowest place at the table. Because in the lowest place, we are closest to God.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Does chewing gum break the fast before Communion?

Answer:

If you look in Canon Law or in the Catechism, there is no mention of chewing gum. I guess it does not rate the attention of the universal church! The Church requires us to fast for one hour before we receive the Eucharist. Basically, we are to refrain from food and drink, not including water or medicine. There are also exceptions for people who are ill. Overall, the fast is intended for us to prepare ourselves to receive the Eucharist and in some small way to literally as well as spiritually hunger for what we are about to receive. Chewing gum, while not really food, does at least break the spirit of the fast. Besides that, it is a distraction and rude. What do you do with the gum when it is time to receive Communion? People have actually come to the altar chewing away, oblivious to what they were doing or Who they were receiving. At best, it is distracting and irreverent. At worst, it adds a barrier to giving our best to receiving God's best.

Re-Imagining Parish Life Together

This past May, our parish joined 17 others across the Diocese in a mission: to re-imagine parish life journeying together in communion, participation, and mission.

What We've Done

We re-established the Parish Pastoral Council, meeting six times in prayer and reflection. We gave thanks for the strengths of our parish and asked: Where is God calling us to grow?

- Bringing our many ministries together around a shared mission and goals.
- Strengthening our connection with Notre Dame Academy.
- Finding new ways to engage young adults and families.
- Deepening our sense of sacredness and tradition in worship.

We Can't Re-Imagine without YOU!

We invite you to walk with us—discover ways to grow in faith, share your gifts, and journey together as we deepen our faith and parish community.

To kick off our Parish Life we have four major events over the next 60 days. Please mark your calendars and join us for our:

- Parish Renewal Weekend & Ministry Fair – Sept 13–14
- Parish Anniversary Weekend – Oct 4–5
- Eucharistic Mission of Love – Oct 9–14
- Back to the Garden Fundraiser Concert – Oct 25

Guided by the Holy Spirit, and united in the example of St. Thérèse—doing small things with great love—we ask you to walk with us as we re-imagine parish life together.

May the Holy Spirit Guide Our Way,
Fr. Chris Tozzi and the Pastoral Council
