Prince of Peace - Belfair, WA

Parish Office: (360) 275-8760

Dear Parishioners:

---In the Book of Samuel 3: 3-10, it's the call of Samuel and of Andrew and his brother, Simon Peter. First, let us consider the story of Samuel's call -- a dramatic story exemplifying the dynamics of God's call. Eli was old and nearly blind; his time was nearing an end, so God called Samuel to begin a new era. Samuel needed help in discerning his call, and Eli's wisdom and friendship with the young man were necessary so that Samuel could really hear the Lord's voice. Once Samuel recognized that it was truly the Lord who was calling him, he became the great prophet who would discern God's will regarding religious, social and political matters for the people.

When we come before the Lord to listen to his Word, our deepest prayer of the heart should be: "Speak Lord, your servant is listening."; yet, often turns out to be: "Listen Lord, your servant is speaking!"

In the Gospel story John 1: 35-42, it is Jesus who takes the initiative to ask the disciples: "What are you looking for?" (verse 38). The disciples, in turn, ask him, "Teacher, where do you stay?" The disciples are not only concerned about where Jesus might sleep that night, but they are really asking where he has his life. Jesus responds to them: "Come and see" (verse 39). To "come" to Jesus is used to describe faith in him. Also, for John, to "see" Jesus with real perception is to believe in him.

The disciples began their discipleship when they went to see where he was staying and "they stayed on with him that day" (verse 39). They responded to his invitation to believe, discovered what his life was like, and they "stayed on"; they began to live in him, and he in them.

What can we learn from the call stories in today's readings? We are never called for our own sake, but for the sake of others.

---This coming Friday, January 29th, a "March for Life" will be held in Washington D.C. and was the forty-eighth anniversary of the U. S. Supreme Court Decision Roe v. Wade. (Although, it's will be little different because of Coronavirus). The Bishops of our nation have asked all Catholics to fast and do extra penance as small reparation for the millions of abortions committed in our country, and for the legal approval of these actions.

While, we Christians can and ought to build a pro-life culture through many avenues, and not only through changes in law, it remains the case that as Christians and as Americans, "in God we trust". God expects us to make needed changes in our world, but we can only do so through God's truth and grace.

A word of "Thanks" to those who work on behalf of our two parish communities in Justice, Peace and Life at St. Gabriel and Prince of Peace who has shared information and encouraged us in this effort locally and in our own Archdiocese of Seattle.

---This weekend January 16th & 17th, at all Masses, we will be mentioned about the joy and happiness that many people had and continue to experience through the help of C.C.S. (Catholic Community Services) through the local office with envelopes provided. Please consider giving generously for this great cause as we continue to recognize the needs of many unfortunate people in our local area.

---Our Beloved Seahawks are not moving on in this year playoff ... how SAD!!! Perhaps, at some point, we can truly say that the Seahawks did have a very good season.

Christ's Peace,
Fr. Phuon Hoang

Questions of the Week:
Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Eli was the priest of the temple in Shiloh. He raised Samuel and helped Samuel to hear God's voice in his life. Who have you taught to hear God's voice?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Corinthians that believers should "glorify God in your body" by avoiding immorality. What do you think is needed to live a good, moral life?

Gospel Question: Gospel: Paul taught the Corinthians that believers should "glorify God in your body" by avoiding immorality. What do you think is needed to live a good, moral life?

Preguntas de la Semana: A Reflexionar y Responder

Primera Lectura: Elí era el sacerdote del templo de Silo. Crio a Samuel y ayudó a Samuel a escuchar la voz de Dios en su vida. ¿A quién has enseñado a escuchar la voz de Dios?

Segunda Lectura: Pablo enseñó a los corintios que los creyentes deben "glorificar a Dios en su cuerpo" evitando la inmoralidad. ¿Qué crees que se necesita para vivir una vida buena y moral?

Pregunta del Evangelio: En el relato de Juan sobre la llamada de los primeros discípulos, Jesús plantea la pregunta: "¿Qué estás buscando?" En tu propio viaje espiritual, ¿cómo sabes que has encontrado a Jesús?

Saint of the Week: St. Agnes, Virgin and Martyr

Almost nothing is known of this saint except that she was very young—12 or 13—when she was martyred in the last half of the third century. Various modes of death have been suggested—beheading, burning, strangling.

Legend has it that Agnes was a beautiful girl whom many young men wanted to marry. Among those she refused, one reported her to the authorities for being a Christian. She was arrested and confined to a house of prostitution. The legend continues that a man who looked upon her lustfully lost his sight and had it restored by her prayer. Agnes was condemned, executed, and buried near Rome in a catacomb that eventually was named after her. The daughter of Constantine built a basilica in her honor.

She is the patron saint of girls and girl scouts.

Day of Prayer for the

LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

©LPI

A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer.

*Pope Saint John Paul II
Evangelium Vitae*

The over 60 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a "throwaway culture." However, we have great trust in God's providence. We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord's help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children": "In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion."

As individuals, we are called to observe this day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting and/or giving alms. Another way to take part is through participating in special events to observe the anniversary of Roe v. Wade. Call your local diocese or parish to find out what events might be taking place in your area.
